

TEACHERS' LOCAL ASSOCIATION

The teachers of Klamath county will hold an association, consisting of two sessions, at Klamath Falls in the High School building.

On Friday evening January 18, commencing at 8 o'clock, a short literary program, consisting of music, recitations, and several short talks by citizens and patrons of the school will be rendered. This will be followed by a reception, and dainty refreshments will be served. The following day will be the regular institute session for which a splendid program has been provided.

The patrons of the school are especially requested, and the general public is cordially invited to attend both sessions. Come and spend the evening with those who are trying to direct aright the boys and girls, and before the evening closes we know you will resolve to spend the next day with us too.

The teachers from outside points will be entertained by the teachers of Klamath Falls, and the former are requested to send notice to the committee of their intention to be present.

Fathers and mothers come, that we, as teachers, may become better acquainted with you, thus bringing the schools nearer the homes.

There is considerable snow here now, but zero weather is the coldest yet recorded.

Literary Friday night after an adjournment of three weeks, on account of the holidays, was quite a success, and people came in sleighs from all over the valley.

M. F. Parker is in Klamath Falls in the interest of the incorporation of Ft. Klamath. Everything bears evidence of a success for a town in this part of the country.

Mr. Scott has returned from Spokane, Wash., where he has been in attendance of his little son, Eli, who is recovering from a severe operation. Mr. Scott is closing out his stock of confectionery goods. He has also sold his house and household goods, and expects to make his home in Spokane. Mr. Scott and family will be greatly missed here and we are sorry to have them leave us.

KENO ITEMS

Colonel Wilkins stopped over night in Keno on his return to the Falls.

The steamer Klamath took quite a load of freight to the Falls Tuesday from Keno.

Quite a lively dance was had last Saturday night at Conard Madison's new house.

Tuesday morning was the coldest of the season. The mercury registered 4 degrees below zero.

The barge that is loaded with lumber for Uncle Sam is frozen in tight, and is well surrounded with ice.

Mr. Travis of the Oregon Stage Co. was in Keno looking after the interests of the company. A very decided change is looked for in the near future.

J. S. Padgett killed the largest porker of the season. It dressed 375 pounds. Mr. Padgett certainly knows how to raise good hogs.

Len Spencer says that the S. P. R. R. Co. is putting up a very fine house near his place. We expect to hear more of this next spring.

The people of Keno think the Water Users Association did a wise thing when they refused to levy a tax for advertising purposes.

Charley Nelson is going to haul logs for Thomas McCormack. McCormack expects to saw in the spring.

The snow is just about right for logging on sleds, and Mr. Ackley and Harry Wall are utilizing the time.

Great Sale at the Boston Store

This January clearance sale is a sale of broad range, a sale that has to do with the best sorts of merchandise in all lines. 'Tis a movement of magnificent economy strength, embodying to an unusual extent the three essentials that go to make a great sale, viz: Quality, assortment and value. We have bent all our efforts to make this the greatest bargain event that ever came to Klamath County, and the result is a grouping of extraordinary bargains that no store hereabouts can equal.
