Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree. With "Everybody's" Publishers.

The Hot Springs Improvement Co. is getting quite a number of inquiries from people on the outside in regard to their business property near the depot site. Lots will be on sale as soon as the plat can be filed and all those wanting choice business locations, should come and make their selections at an early date. Prices right and terms easy.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to L. F. Willits on store account, may settle the same at my old stand, with Shive Brothers & Co. where my books will be kept during my absence from the city. L. F. Willits. 11

GEO. WINGFIELD

The Poor Lakeview Boy Who Struck It Rich in Gold

He has announced his intention of coming up to the new gold mines at Windy Hollow. When Wingfield takes hold of the good things at Windy Hollow—something is bound to move. He has cleaned up $7,000,000 in the last few years in Nevada. Over the Sierras and across the deserts of Nevada the news of the wonderful richness of Windy Hollow has spread—when Geo. Wingfield returns to his old stamping ground in Lake county there are coming with him a "bunch" of the world's greatest mining men from Tonopah and Goldfield. The stock of the Lakeview Mining and Milling Co. can be had (on the first allotment) at 25c a share. After Wingfield and his associates plant their feet in Windy Hollow the stock of the Lakeview Mining & Milling Co. will rise. Then the man with the small capital will have lost his opportunity.

WANTED—To buy for cash a fire insurance business that is well established. State companies and number of policies on your books. Address J. E. Paddock, Riverside, California.

Notice

Having disposed of my interests in the Chitwood Drug company, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the people of Klamath Falls and Klamath county for their liberal patronage in the past, and recommending to their careful consideration my successors. I bespeak for them most courteous treatment, efficient service and first-class goods.

Being desirous of closing up my books at the earliest date possible, I will be obliged if those owing me will make prompt settlement of their account.

C. C. CHITWOOD.

February Delineator

Fooled the Public. By Fred Thompson. The growth of the big show as described by a master showman. (Illustrated.)

The Making of a Charming Woman. "An Old Beau," with some temerity, ventures to discuss this interesting subject. (Illustrated.)

How to Order in a Restaurant. By Elizabeth M. Rhodes. For the initiated

this is good reading; for the uninitiated, it is sound instruction. (Illustrated.)

Confidence and Dollars. By Lida A. Churchill. An inspiring little article in "The Department of Real Life."

Little Problems of Married Life. William George Jordan, under his heading, discusses "The Specter of Constant Jealousy."

The Funniest Valentines. By the funniest people.

The Hostess' Calendar. A valentine cotillion. By Winifred Fales. Timely suggestions for the celebration of February 14th.

The Dawn of Womanhood. By Gabrielle E. Jackson. This chapter of a series of talks helpful to young women is dedicated to mothers.

The Care of the Woman. By Dr. Anna M. Galbraith. Dr. Galbraith writes with scientific accuracy on the subject of "The Complexion."

Talks on Home-Making. By Alice M. Kellogg. Miss Kellogg this month gives practical suggestions for the furnishing of "A Girl's Room."
