The rooms for the Inland Empire Club are rapidly nearing completion, and when ready for occupancy will be about the finest in the state, outside of Portland. This organization will undoubtedly be a popular one.

One of the causes for the remarkable growth of Newsom & Underwood is the fact that no expense or trouble has been spared to procure the finest stock in the State. The great prescription business they do is on account of their using only pure fresh drugs.

The Inland Empire Club will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow night. There is much business of importance to be transacted and a large attendance is urgently requested. The furniture for the new quarters has been ordered and it will not be long before they will be ready for occupancy.

If you are in need of medicine during the night or if you have a prescription you wished filled you can get it at Newsom & Underwood by calling at the home of Dr. Maston—next door to our store.

Col. M. G. Wilkins, who has been suffering for over a week with la grippe is gradually improving. The Colonel seems to be up against it of late and is inclined to believe that the gods have given him a misdeal. He is going to ask for a new deck and if he gets it he feels sure that all will be right again.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Willis expect to leave this week for California and possibly Mexico. After many years of labor in the mercantile business Mr. Willis has decided to take life easy for a while and this trip is to be of an indefinite nature. Do you need visiting cards? If so call at the Republican office where you will find the latest styles in cards and type

The Gun Club had a blow out last Sunday and went down to Keno on the steamer Klamath. In addition to the members of the organization were several invited guests. Condition were ideal for hunting and practically every game bag was filled to overflowing. Today is the last day of the season and the club decided to give it a send off that would be remembered until next. Accordingly they again chartered the Klamath and are now busily engaged in seeing who can shoot the farthest, quickest and best. That they will have a good time goes without saying and many a table will offer support for the toothsome duck tomorrow.

Lowney's and Bishop's delicious candies at Newsom & Underwood.

Because the postoffice department holds that the present contractor, J. L. Yaden, is not complying with the rules so far as they apply to residence and devoting personal attention to the business, bids are asked for the carrying of the mails between this city and Fort Klamath and between this city and Merrill, beginning March 11, 1907, and continuing until June 30, 1910. The bond for the former is $4000 and for the latter $4500. Further information may be secured on application to Postmaster Murdoch.
