Good clothes are always made to measure. Inspect the stunning line of Spring samples at K K K Store.

Do not forget the concert tonight. It will be given at the Conservatory of Music and will certainly be a treat.

Owing to a break in the Ankeny ditch, Eight street was badly damaged the first of the week. The heavy rains filled the ditch with water.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Willits left this week for their contemplated trip to California and Mexico. They expect to be absent several months.

Don't buy your clothes off the shelf when you can have them made for you at the same prices. See the Spring and Summer suitings at K K K Store.

Mrs. Archie Mason and family are expected from Portland in a few days. Mr. Mason has rented the Reames house formerly occupied by Sheriff Obenchain.

J. C. Hamaker, editor of the Bonanza Bulletin, was in the city this week. He said that it was not in the interest of the plan to defeat the erection of the new court house, but simply private business.

One of the causes for the remarkable growth of Newsom & Underwood is the fact that no expense or trouble has been spared to procure the finest stock in the State. The great prescription business they do is on account of their using only pure fresh drugs.

J. Frank Adams of Merrill was in the city this week on business connected with his railroad contract. He stated that the dredger was doing its final work on the railroad grade and would be finished with this end of it in a few weeks. Then it will take up the work farther down the route.

If you are in need of medicine during the night or if you have a prescription you wished filled you can get it at Newsom & Underwood by calling at the home of Dr. Maston—next door to our store.

J. F. Nowlin, of the firm of Croft & Nowlin, returned during the week from San Francisco, where he had been on one of the biggest deals yet consummated. He refused to discuss the matter for publication, but it is understood that it will be a record breaker in the realty line.

For rings go to L. Alva Lewis. New line just arrived.

Sheriff Obenchain states that there will be no tax statements sent out this year, unless the same are requested. This decision is due to the immense number of transfers than have been made this year. After the taxes become delinquent, then notices will be sent out, but not until then.

Fine watch repairing. L. Alva Lewis.

Again the Steamer Klamath has resumed the run between this city and Keno, much to the gratification of the traveling public, for it results in the cutting out of about twelve miles of the worst piece of the stage trip. It is to be hoped that the river will remain open for the rest of the winter.

FOR RENT—New two-room house, at $10 per month. Very convenient and well built. Tom Stephens. tf

B. St. George Bishop is going to set a high water mark in the saddle line and accordingly is having one made by the Linkville Saddlery company that will be a record breaker. It will be square rigged, with the cinch well in front and will be made of the best material that can be procured. The reputation of the company assures that it will be par excellence in workmanship.

14 yards apron check $1, the Brick Store Co's Saturday sale.

Our Dairy correspondent missed fire again this week. His last letter advised us that he was threatened with a visit from his old enemy, rheumatism, and evidently it arrived on time. It is to be hoped that it will soon take its departure and that the readers of The Republican will not long be denied his interesting weekly letter from one of the best sections of the county.

The Lakeside Inn Bar. C. Ross Anderson for High grade Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Tomorrow, Friday, evening the Military band will give a dance in the opera house for its own benefit. It will be opened by Wagner's Tannhauser march. This is a fair indication of the efforts this organization is putting forth to give this city one of the best bands in the State, and their work should be appreciated by unstinted patronage. Give the boys a hand and they will be sure to appreciate it. You do not have to attend, but you ought to buy one of the tickets, and thus indicate your interest in this organization, which is semi-public in its character.

Lowney's and Bishop's delicious candies at Newsom & Underwood.

Last Friday was Colorado day in this city, and was commemorated by Mrs. F. L. Wright and Mrs. John Lewis, at the home of the former, where were entertained about twenty-five former Coloradans. A most pleasant evening was passed, cards being played and refreshments served. "State Days" should be of more frequency, for it brings together many who have a common interest and recalls pleasant memories of the past, solidifying friendship and generally working to the advantage of the adopted community wherein the participants reside.

Chafing dishes at Newsom & Underwood.

Miss Agnes Eilene George of Ashland was in the city during the past week for the purpose of securing subscribers to the Portland Telegram. Miss George's sister is a contestant for the honor of a free trip to the Jamestown exposition that is given by the Telegram, and it was for the purpose of securing votes in her behalf that she came here. She is recognized as one of the best solicitors in the State and her success here sustained her right to the title.
