

FORT KLAMATH

Fort Klamath is located in the northern part of Klamath county, and is in the center of what is recognized as the Switzerland of America. In close proximity to Crater Lake and surrounded by the greatest natural and scenic wonders on the continent. It will, within a few years, be one of the greatest tourist resorts on the Pacific coast.

Several are sick with la grippe.

A ball will be given in the hall February 14th.

A change for the better are the symptoms of the weather.

Jesse and Joe Vose are soon to begin logging for Browns at Crystal.

Ed Loosely has returned from Redding, where he has been on business.

A number from here attended the entertainment at the Agency Saturday night.

Messrs. Spink, Swartslander, Barkley, Barker and Hilbert Wilson were in town Sunday evening.

Cary Loosely anticipates attending the State University at Eugene the last half of the school year.

The literary last Friday evening was unusually interesting on account of the school children's debate.

Miss Myrtle Love of Central Point is expected here the last of the week and will remain during the spring and summer months.

A continuous rain for four days and nights has dispensed with all the snow in Wood River valley, and if the nice weather continues, it will be only a short time until stock will thrive on the grass.

MERRILL

Merrill is situated in the southern part of Klamath county, very near the center of the Klamath Project. It has a population of 600. Is well supplied with good business houses. Has many fine homes. Telephones, long distance and home. Will soon have water works. Located on a branch of the California Northeastern, now being built into Klamath Basin. Will be one of the best towns in the county. Has fine public school.

Louis Gerber spent Monday and Tuesday in Merrill and bought William Ball's hay and Fred Pope's cattle.

E. B. Hall and wife spent Friday and Saturday in Merrill.

William R. Davis visited Merrill Friday and Saturday.

The river has fallen about five feet and no serious damage was done to its bridges.

Silas Obenchain was in Merrill Tuesday attending to some business.

Friday evening, February 8th, about 25 couples enjoyed a very sociable evening at the residence of N. S. Merrill, it being the birthday of Mrs. N. S. Merrill. Games were indulged in until 11:30 when the spacious dining room was thrown open and all invited to partake of a fine spread of delicacies, which loaded the tables. After supper the friends wished Mrs. Merrill many happy returns of the same date. She was the recipient of many handsome presents.

Mrs. E. B. Hall and Mrs. William P. Davis' birthdays coming on the same day, were there to enjoy the fun.

Carpenters commenced work on the counters and fixtures in the bank Monday. Things on the inside of the bank will present a different appearance in a couple of weeks.

Roy Hamaker was in Merrill Monday.

N. S. Merrill left for California Monday and will be absent a couple of weeks.

William R. Davis left for San Francisco Monday.

J. B. Mitchell has been in town several days.

The Merrill Dramatic Club played to a well filled house Saturday evening. They presented "Borderland," a comedy drama in three acts. The club deserves great credit for the efficient manner in which they presented it. Many traveling troupes could not have done as well. The proceeds, which were about $60, go toward the purchase of a library for the school.

W. C. Dalton was in town Tuesday.

BONANZA

Bonanza is situated in the northeastern part of the county, and so located as to command the trade of three of the largest valleys of the Klamath Project. Largest springs in the county are there. Fine school. Is growing rapidly and will be a large city. Has telephone connections. Will soon have water works and electric lights. Population 350.

The floods have subsided, and after taking stock will say, we have sustained but little loss. Dr. Johnson has found his well and all goes well again.

Farmers are busy these days, getting ready to put in the usual spring crop.

Bonanza, being the head of "sucker navigation," expects to be very busy soon, and the "sound of the Siwash" will soon be heard in the land.

The boys played baseball last Sunday. The grounds could not have been in better condition.

A basket social at the M. E. church tonight.

All hands are busy pruning and transplanting fruit and shade trees and otherwise beautifying their homes and preparing for the advent of irrigation. Appropos of the irrigation scheme, it looks to us at this distance that engineers who, if working for a corporation, "missed" their estimates by 35 per cent, as stated by the Express, would be looking for another job. We are willing to let the "service" do their work without our assistance believing that they know as much of the matter as we do.

Capt. O. C. Applegate was in our town last night. The genial Captain is very optimistic in regard to the future of this country.

Dr. Whitmarsh has moved into his new quarters, corner of North and Market streets. "PAT."

Did Not Belong to Army

Mrs. Albert L. Mills, whose husband is the superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point, is known throughout the army for a fund of pertinent anecdotes of the service. In a party which included prominent officers of both the army and navy she recently told this story:

"It was in the South, and a colored minister of the Methodist persuasion was pleading with one who was not a member of the flock.

"Oh, my dear brother," he begged, "why don't you come with me and join de army of de Lord."

"I done already belong to de army of de Lord," insisted the negro.

"When you jine the Methodist?" demanded the preacher in a tone of surprise.

"I see no Methodist, but I belongs to de army of de Lord jest de same. I see a Baptist."

"Huh!" snorted the preacher "dat's not de army of de Lord; dat's de navy."
