MARRIED—In this city, Thursday, February 7, 1907, Carl C. Cofer and Miss Dorathea Margrieter, Rev. J. B. Griffiths officiating. Miss Margrieter has many friends in this city who extend to her their best wishes. The groom is well and favorably known. He had built and furnished a cozy home that was all ready to receive the happy young couple.

FOR SALE.—A lot of fine driving, draught and saddle horses, at a price that will sell them. Phone or write to Liesky Bros., Dairy, Oregon. Swan Lake ranch 18 miles from Klamath Falls. 1-24-6mo.

The Concert that was given at the Conservatory of Music last Thursday evening was one of the rare musical treats of the season. The auditorium was filled to overflowing and every number of the program was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience. Mrs. Zumwalt and Miss Applegate have demonstrated to the music lovers of this city that their institution is one of high merit and a credit to Klamath Falls.

STRAYED—Mahogany bay mare, no brand; little split in left ear. Slightly ruptured forward of the udder. Liberal reward for information leading to her recovery. E. B. Rameby, Klamath Falls, or S. E. Martin, Merrill. tf

James Mayberry, the special land agent who was here for the purpose of conducting the proceedings prior to the issuance of patents for government land, concluded his labors this week and left for other points. He kept some of the applicants on the gridiron for several hours and it would seem that there is some cause for worry over the outcome of their case. Most of the applicants, however, passed easily.
