

NEW COMPANY IN THE FIELD

Arrangement Finally Reached That Is Satisfactory To All

NEW DEAL IN TRANSPORTATION

A Coalition of all Forces That Is Going To Result In the Elimination of a Rate War This Summer

The dove of peace once more flies over the camp of the transportation companies as a result of the conference held in San Francisco last week. No official statement has as yet been issued, and only indefinite information is volunteered, but it may be stated positively that the following will be the program: The passenger traffic will be divided between the Oregon stage company and a new corporation that is to be organized out of the Navigation company, and in which W. R. Davis will be in control. This company will have the boat end of the proposition. If the stage company buys the equipment of the Lakeshore stage company, then it will have no competitor in the field, but if not, then there will be a stage line from both Pokagama and Grass Lake. The California-Northeastern is not going to be left out in the cold, for Davis has adopted that child and is not going to disown it.

The freighting part of it is to be taken care of by General Manager Abbott and Capt. McIntire. These gentlemen will practically have control of the Klamath Lake railroad and will forward all freight direct to this city. This will not shut out the Klamath Falls and Pokagama Transfer Co., but freight turned over to this company may be assessed with forwarding charges the same as is charged at Ager.

Until the California-Northeastern is built a little closer there will be no staging from that point. All passenger and freight traffic will center at Teter's Landing and come by boat to this city. Merrill will have a boat service from this point.

EXCHANGES

Everything worked out just as intended, without a hitch, and the proceeds amounted to $300, beyond all expectations. The expenses of the affair amounted to $21.50, which sum V. L. Snelling raised the next day by means of a subscription paper, so that the net receipts would be an even $300, and succeeded in raising $3 over the amount.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR MIDLAND

The Light and Water Company Will Enter That Field

It is practically certain that Midland will have electric lights and telephones within a very short time. When manager Gates of the Light and Water company was seen in regard to the matter he stated that his company would run a wire from this city to Midland for the purpose of supplying that city with electricity. He was not in a position to state just when this service would be inaugurated, but said that it would be in the near future.

When questioned about telephone connections he said that service in this respect would also be supplied. It has not as yet been definitely settled whether the wire would be run down the right of way of the railroad, but this is now under consideration, and as soon as a decision is reached on this proposition, work will begin.

It is the purpose of the Light and Water company to supply residents between this city and Midland with electricity both for domestic and power use.

The water question is a serious one for the town of Midland, but steps are being taken to solve this, and an early solution of the problem is promised. There is only one spring near the town that has sufficient flow to be considered, but the owner refuses to either lease or sell unless given certain concessions that the promoters of the town are not willing to grant. It is understood, however, that tests have been made that convince those interested in the matter that absolutely pure water can be secured by driving points, and this is the method that will probably be employed. Power for the operation of the pumping plant will be supplied by an electric motor.

Mrs. C. H. Underwood left for Seattle, Wash., Sunday to visit her brother, Dr. Wayne Bridgeford. She expects to be gone six weeks, during which time she will visit in Portland and Albany.

The regular application blanks for grazing permits can be secured by writing the undersigned, at Lakeview, Oregon. Similar meetings will be held at Paisley, Oregon, on March 15, and at Silver Lake, Oregon, March 20, for the convenience of residents living near these places.

All sections of the country adjacent to the reserve should be well represented, so that a fair and equitable adjustment of the range may be secured, therefore, all stockmen depending on the Forest Reserve for grazing, are urged to attend one of these meetings.

Contributions by interested friends: Book shelves, illuminated sign, work, wood, lumber, window shades, books, magazines, daily and county papers, hauling by city transfer men and freighters.

1650 books were taken out during year 1906.

Over three hundred books are on the shelves and more are being added as rapidly as money can be obtained.

Competent librarian is in attendance every evening from 6:30 to 10:00 p. m. and Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 2:30 to 5:00 p. m.

Great credit is due the members of the Woman's club, as the promoters of the library and reading room, which means much to a growing town like Klamath Falls, but without the financial aid so freely given by the progressive business men of the city, the efforts of the women would not have been crowned with success. The librarian states that the library is highly appreciated as the record shows a daily increase in the number of interested readers of books, papers and magazines.

The club fully appreciates the fact that the townspeople have been heavily taxed in various ways, and so every bit of aid, financial or otherwise, is received with double appreciation by the ladies who are giving time and much thought to make the Klamath Falls Public Library and Reading Room a success.

Narrow Escape

J. D. Diekman of Dairy, who had such a narrow escape from death last Friday evening near Olene, gives the following particulars of the affair:

"I met the stage in Lost River Gap, near the water wheel, at the narrowest place. I turned out as far as I could against the wire fence, and when the stage got opposite me the driver requested me to pull up, as he thought he could not get by. But my off horse refused to go ahead, being so close against the fence, and started in kicking. He got over the tongue, fell down on it and broke it. I jumped off, when the horse which was down jumped up but slid down the bank, and the other fell on top of it. Three tugs were still attached to the hack, but I got them all loose. When in getting up the one horse turned a summersault into the river with his head under its body, and drowned. My loss is $125, a broken tongue and broken harness."

Additional Briefs

As an indication of the growing antagonism manifested towards this city by other towns in the county, the case of the organization of the Chamber of Commerce in Bonanza may be cited. When it was proposed to name the organization the Chamber of Commerce, vigorous protests were entered, the reason given being that they did not want anything that smacked of Klamath Falls. It is to be regretted that this condition of affairs should exist, for it is going to be detrimental not only to this city, but also to the locality where it is present. The one thing for the entire county to do is to pull together. While it is all right to have a friendly rivalry, there should be no spirit of knocking.

THE KENO CANAL THIS YEAR

Proposed Purchase of Right of Way From Water Company Goes Over To Next Meeting

This city should bend every energy to eradicate this adverse sentiment and at all times seek to show the outlying communities that it is as anxious for them to grow as it is for this city to be the chief metropolis of the Cascades.

Get in a live game and buy lots in Midland. See Klamath Development Co.

Remember the great sale at the Boston Store, Feb. 23rd.

For the assurance of purchasers of lots in the town of Midland, as well as to furnish information to people interested in lands in or near to Midland, which purchasers or owners of land might be affected by the reports to the effect that several additions would be made to Midland, we take this method of stating that there will be no additions to Midland for some years. We can give this assurance, for the reason that we own land on all sides of the town site, all of which will be kept vacant, except the vacant land on the south and the southeast of the town site, which has been set aside for the use of stock yards, sheds and loading pens. Proposed Purchase of Right of Way From Water Company Goes Over To Next Meeting

The main obstacle to the construction of the Keno canal was removed last Monday night, when the City Council granted the franchise to the government for the construction of the waterway on Mill street. It was Attorney Stone who turned the trick. In his peculiarly winning way he explained to the council the purposes of the government, the necessity for the granting of the franchise and the ridiculousness of the idea that the government was going to drive things with an iron hand, but would do unto the property owners as it would expect them to do unto it. As might be expected, his talk had the desired effect, and the franchise passed.

Most of the property owners have been settled with by Mr. Stone, and the few remaining will be cared for in a few days.

An ordinance for the payment of $350 to the Water company for the purchase of certain rights of way, was put over until next meeting. This was due to the vigorous protest entered by Dr. Maston, who stated that inasmuch as the city has granted the water company valuable franchises, without cost, it should vacate these streets and alleys without any charge to the city. Manager Gates stated that this was not a matter between the company and the city. That property owners wished to clear the title to their lots, and in order to do so, wished the water main removed. Dr. Maston maintained that they should have thought of this before they purchased the property.

The usual routine business of sidewalks and lights and bills was transacted.

To Shut Out Japanese

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The Administration plan to settle the California-Japanese situation was approved in the Senate today by the adoption of the Senate committee report on the immigration bill. This report contains a provision which authorizes the President to exclude Japanese laborers from the United States at his discretion. The report will now go to the House for its approval, which is assured.

The California committee which came here to confer with the President on the Japanese question has not conceded any of its rights. State sovereignty was absolutely insisted upon," declared Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco, today. Yet he said a complete agreement had been reached on all points of difference, the only thing remaining to be done being the incorporation by Congress of the exclusion amendment in the immigration bill. As matters now stand, all parties will be satisfied.

Got the Money

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 16.—The prosecution in the Bailey investigation maintains that the testimony of J. P. Gruett, ex-secretary-treasurer of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, against Senator Bailey has been fully corroborated and that the $1500 draft charge against the Senator has been sustained.

In Birmingham, England, a device has been invented that will light street lamps by clock work. The invention is so nicely adjusted that the gas will be lighted at a different moment each day in the year, according to the varying seasons. The machine turns on the gas at night and lights it, and turns it off in the morning. When once adjusted it will run for a whole year by simply winding the clockwork attachment once a week.

Work has commenced on the bridge crossing the canal over the Esplanade on the Hot Springs tract.

Another consignment of trees for the Hot Springs Addition arrived and are being set out this week.
