

BONANZA

Bonanza is situated in the southeastern part of the county, and so located as to command the trade of three of the largest valleys of the Klamath Project. Largest springs in the county are there. Fine school. Is growing rapidly and will be a large city. Has telephone connections. Will soon have water works and electric lights. Population 350.

I see "be the pe-apur" that Bonanza is located in the northeastern part of the county. Now, we are just 14 1/2 miles from the California line, so you see we must be in the southeastern part.

Since our last we have to chronicle the marriage of Mr. Charles Snow and Miss McComb. May good luck follow them all the days of their lives.

The death of Miss Mable Morine has cast a shadow of gloom over our entire community. She was Bonanza's daughter, and had won a warm place in the heart of all of its residents. The family has the sympathy of all. Mrs. Conrad, sister of Miss Morine, arrived from Ashland Wednesday. Other friends and relatives are expected Thursday.

S. C. Hamaker, of Bly, is in town making a deal for some of the timber land in the neighborhood. Clark knows a good thing when he sees it, and is always to be found on the ground floor.

The sucker and Siwash are with us.

BLY

Bly is situated in the southeastern part of Klamath county and commands all the trade of Sprague river valley. Is well connected with telephones. Several new buildings soon to go up; also a new school house. A large timber country surrounding will make much business in time to come.
