

FORT KLAMATH

Fort Klamath is located in the northern part of Klamath county, and is in the center of what is recognized as the Switzerland of America. In close proximity to Crater Lake and surrounded by the greatest natural and scenic wonders on the continent, it will, within a few years, be one of the greatest tourist resorts on the Pacific coast.

Maude Engle returned to the Falls Monday after spending sometime in Ft. Klamath.

John Hessig left the first of the week for Yreka, where he will take charge of the construction of 52 miles of telephone line, from that place down the Klamath river. Prof. Collis will accompany him.

Miss Grace Pierce, who was employed to teach the school in the lower district, has given up the position on account of her health and returned to Jackson county.

Gus Melhase of Klamath Falls, and his niece Miss Emma Frank, were visitors at the homes of Richard and Al Melhase last week. They returned home Sunday. Miss Frank expects to return to her home in the east about April 1st.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loosley is still quite sick.

Cary Loosley writes from Eugene that he has resumed his studies at the university and finds things there entirely satisfactory.

The Fort Klamath Chamber of Commerce met in special session Feb. 27. The meeting was called with the object of considering ways and means for opening the navigation of Wood river before county court convenes. But on communicating with the parties who own the boat, it was learned that on account of their not being able to get someone to run the engine the trip would have to be postponed. However it will not be long, and preparations were made for the reception of those accompanying the boat. Committees were as follows: Committee on reception—Richard Melhase, Dan Ryan and Ralph Moon. Committee on entertainment—G. C. Copeland, C. E. Hoyt and James Emery. Committee to investigate condition of river—L. Hessig, F. Butler and Warren Kingdon.

Messrs Brophy, Sarter and McCarty of Klamath Falls were up over Sunday. Mr. Sarter is investigating the situation here for a bakery and confectionery. A baker would do a fine business here, as the tourists lay in their supplies here just before starting on their outings to Crater lake and other points of interest surrounding here.

Prof. Collis is making a move to organize a band at this place. There is no reason why there couldn't be a band here, and everyone in the valley will give their support for the success of it.

Another dance was given at the hall last Saturday night.

The Kingdon boys came in from Lakeview last Friday night.

J. J. Brophy of Klamath Falls was here, the first of the week, with the object of starting up a butcher shop. Mr. Brophy is a first class butcher, and we are sure he would make no mistake by coming here.

James Emery this week received a letter from his son Charlie who is attending school at Eugene. He stated that he was coming home in April and will in a short time afterward start for the Philippine Islands where he will enter the Civil Engineer service.

BLY

Bly is situated in the southeastern part of Klamath county and commands all the trade of Sprague river valley. Is well connected with telephones. Several new buildings soon to go up; also a new school house. A large timber country surrounding will make much business in time to come.

Mrs. J. W. Wells has been detained some time in Lakeview on account of her illness, and is not yet able to return home.

A mask ball will be given in Bly on the 15th of this month. A large attendance is expected, as this will be the first mask ball ever given here.

The new laws regarding the forest reserves have given the ranchers and cattlemen something to think about.

Several will attend the meeting to be held in Lakeview on the 7th.

Bly is still growing. One of the stage drivers could not find the postoffice, which has been moved to the new building across from the Pioneer hotel.

Misses Ida and Eva Howard left Sunday for Lakeview to prove up on their timber claims. Miss Ida will return to Bly.

John Stindt and O. Peterson have gone to Lakeview on timber business.

BONANZA

Bonanza is situated in the southeastern part of the county, and so located as to command the trade of three of the largest valleys of the Klamath Project. Largest springs in the county are there. Fine school. Is growing rapidly and will be a large city. Has telephone connections. Will soon have water works and electric lights. Population 350.

A. E. Vinson's little daughter has been quite sick, but is better today, we hear.

J. A. Parker and family arrived from Arizona Saturday. Jesse says he would prefer sudden death in Klamath county to a good old age in that "ghost walk" country.

I see the Bulletin gives the Merrill Record a little advice in its last issue, which may be opportune. "Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit." It seems the Record had the indiscretion to do so. Hence, no doubt, the advice.

Fred McKendree and family just returned from Willamette points, where he has been making the creamery business a study. Fred is very optimistic in regard to that proposition here, and will stay in town till the plans for the new creamery are matured. (I will state right here, parenthetically, that any community that engages in that business intelligently, will grow wealthy; and there is no better place on the coast than Klamath county, and no better part of Klamath county than right here at Bonanza. What with our splendid water and abundant outside range for young stock, the one not pleased with the outlook here must be fastidious indeed.)

We have found a beautiful building stone about two miles from town. A sort of quartz, in color a very light gray. You see, when a thing is wanted, we find it right at home.

OLENE.

Quite a number of Indians from the Yanix reservation are camping here, busily engaged curing fish caught from the Lost river.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Snow went to Bonanza Sunday, where Mrs. Snow will remain a few days.

We are glad to state that little Billie Dixon is much improved, having suffered with a severe attack of croup.

The auction sale held at W. McClure's was attended by all far and near, consequently great results were obtained in the sale of goods.

W. N. Snow is spending a few days at the Grigsby ranch.
