Mr. William Bittle Wells, manager for the Sunset magazine for the Pacific Northwest, is in the city in the interest of that publication. Mr. Wells says that "Sunset" is in a position to do a great deal to further the welfare of Klamath Falls, inasmuch as the magazine has adopted a policy of co-operating in every way possible with communities of this section. The object of the magazine—to build up the West—is to be emphasized more and more, and every effort is to be made to increase its circulation in fields that will especially benefit western enterprises and western communities. It is a significant fact that "Sunset" has already attained a circulation of one hundred thousand copies per month. A proposition was made by Mr. Wells to the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night, and it is safe to say that Klamath Falls will take advantage of the opportunity offered. It is certain that no more desirable publicity could be offered the city. Our business men generally commend "Sunset's" plan for advertising Klamath Falls.

In this issue of The Republican appears the advertisement of George T. Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin has been in business in this county since 1875 and in that time has established a reputation for "square dealing" that has surrounded him by a host of patrons. This policy that has done so much to make his establishment what it is, is the same today as it has been for the past thirty-two years and assures the continued increase in his business that has marked his career since his entrance into Klamath county.

One of the causes for the remarkable growth of Newsom & Underwood is the fact that no expense or trouble has been spared to procure the finest stock in the State. The great prescription business they do is on account of their using only pure fresh drugs.

Though it hardly seems possible, the year for which your dog license was paid has passed and you are indebted to the city for another $2.50. You are supposed to pay this at once, and if you do not, then you are liable to be minus a dog and have some additional costs to pay, provided you redeem him from the pound. Marshall Smith has been accommodating enough to take the tax from some and thus save the trouble of going to the city recorder, and it is possible he may do it for you. At any rate, it is time to pay your tax and least you forget it, do it now.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hurn left for Sacramento Saturday. During his absence Mr. Hurn will attend the Hardware Dealers convention and will place large orders for hardware, crockery and wall paper. In the latter commodity he has had a remarkable experience during the past year. Though placing orders of immense quantities of wall paper, he has been unable to keep up with the demand, so great has been the building boom. He is going to try this time and lay in such a supply as will meet all requirements for sometime. During his absence Mr. Hurn's brother will look after his interests in this city.
