The fire department was summoned to the residence of W. H. Webb, Eighth and Walnut streets, Tuesday afternoon, where an incipient blaze, caused by a defective flue, was in progress. Through a misunderstanding the trucks went to the residence of Frank Ward, Fourth and Pine streets, when it was supposed that it was a case of false alarm. In the meantime heroic efforts succeeded in putting out the fire at the Webb residence, with no more damage than the burning of a hole in the roof.

See Louise Lowe in "Only a Country Girl" at the opera house next Saturday night. This is one of her favorite parts and if you miss it you will miss the best show of the season.

One of the causes for the remarkable growth of Newsom & Underwood is the fact that no expense or trouble has been spared to procure the finest stock in the state. The great prescription business they do is on account of their using only pure fresh drugs.

The recital given in the rooms of the Conservatory of Music rooms Tuesday evening by Miss Edith Rutene and Miss Bertha Hammond was largely attended. Though but a mere child, Miss Rutene is a marvel. Her execution is perfect, and under the careful training she is receiving will undoubtedly develop into a musician of note. Miss Hammond possesses a voice of rare sweetness that has already shown evidence of much improvement, notwithstanding that she has been a student of the Conservatory but a short time. She has undoubtedly a bright future before her.
