

DAIRY

Dairy is pleasantly situated on the west side of Yonna Valley, near the center of Klamath County. It has two good general stores with enterprising, up-to-date dealers who enjoy a large trade from surrounding valleys; a hotel and feed barn, and a school house. It is surrounded by a rich farming community with which it is connected by a farmers' telephone line and also a long distance line. Is on the stage line, twenty miles east of Klamath Falls.

I hear that numbers of my old friends in Nebraska are coming to Oregon this spring. They can depend upon receiving a hearty welcome if they come this way singing as they come:

"To the West! To the West!
To the land of the Free!
Where the mighty Columbia
Rolls down to the sea!
Where a man is a man
If he's willing to toil,
And all may there garner
Rich fruits from the soil!"

I was a trifle previous last week in regard to the Yonna mail contract. It will not go into effect until the bond is approved as provided by law.

Several farmers have recently lost their dogs by poison—put out, no doubt, to kill coyotes.

What a joke it is on those foolish Americans who have deserted their flag and gone to Alberta, where they have 54-degrees-below-zero-weather, when they could have come to Klamath County and bought land, that will be under the ditch, almost as cheap and a good deal better, and where we seldom have seen zero weather! But it pays to advertise.

Last Sunday was the first real sunny day within a month, and it was very noticeable how many teams were on the road at once.

Grandpa Wallis of Hungry Hollow was a business visitor in Dairy Saturday.

Miss Rosa Beck, who has been keeping house for the Carroll ranch, returned home Monday last, and there is great joy in the Fred Beck household.

Present appearances indicate that the farmers will sow an unusually large acreage of grain this year.

This is the time of year when the country stores run short of odds and ends in those lines that the people want the worst.

It is reported that the agent of one of the big lumber syndicates has lately been nosing over the timber belt north-west of Yonna valley to ascertain whether all of the homesteaders on that big tract are living up to the requirements of the homestead law; and it is the opinion of some who are well informed that it is the intention of the company for whom he is operating to put contestants on as many of these claims as possible.

It seems that our fellow citizen, Hank O'Brien, is quite a writer when he becomes afflicted with the cacothous scribbendi.

Pat Colahan and Carl Adams ventured toward Klamath Falls Saturday, riding their bronchos.

A second meeting of the Water Users was called Sunday last, at Dairy, and the call brought out more of a crowd than attended the first meeting, held two weeks since. Wm. L. Welch took the chair, and C. H. Flackus was secretary. A general discussion followed that was characterized by great earnestness and some heat. A vote was taken on the question of endorsing the election of Jacob Ruesch for director and stood 29 for and 11 against such endorsement. The matter of the employment of Capt. Applegate was set at rest by a telephone message from him stating that his employment did not cost the Reclamation Service a cent.

A social dancing party was given last Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Smyth in the northern part of the valley, in honor of their daughter, Miss Annie. There was a large attendance, good music by the Gray Brothers, and all went "merry as a marriage bell."

A dance is announced to be given at the Wallis residence in Hungry Hollow Friday evening. The roads are improving rapidly.

It is reported that the name of Wm. L. Welch is likely to be presented by petition, from Yonna valley, at the coming annual meeting of the Water Users, Saturday.

Jr., and H. J. Winters, Wednesday plead guilty to the charge and were sentenced to three years in the State penitentiary.

As an evidence of the rapid growth of this city the registration is sufficient. The registration books were closed Saturday evening and showed that 434 names were registered as against 264 for 1906. Owing to the fact that many living here have homesteads elsewhere, this number does not nearly represent the full population, but is a fair indication of our size and our right to claim 3000 population.

On account of several social events on Friday evening, April 5th, the social evening that was to be given at the Klamath Conservatory of Music for the benefit of the public library, is indefinitely postponed. It will be given later when an evening can be found free from social engagements, as the desire is that there be a good attendance, as the program prepared is excellent, and the same most worthy.

For sale—The north half of the north east quarter, the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section nineteen, south of range eleven, east of Willamette meridian. Inquire at this office.

The Dread of the Housewife

The pleasures of many homes are still marred by that weekly horror "wash day." Some still cling to the idea that by doing their washing at home they are saving money, without stopping to figure the cost. In most cases the cost of the wood alone would pay for the work being done at the laundry.
