

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

E. J. MURRAY, Editor.

LEADING NEWSPAPER OF INTERIOR OREGON.

TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Roberts for Mayor.

Wagner for City Recorder.

Wagner is the man you want for City Recorder. So be sure that you vote for him next Monday.

Next Monday will be election day, and when you go to the polls to cast your vote be sure and see that it has the names of Roberts and Wagner on it.

Do not let the excitement of the election carry away your good judgment. They will hold them after you are dead, and the thing for you to do is to enjoy them while you are living. When you let yourself get worked into a frenzy you make a mistake, for you are simply doing it for the benefit of someone else, who, nine times out of ten, will "pass you up" for your troubles. It is well enough to take a lively interest in affairs, but let your interest be rational.

If you want a man who will attend to the duties of his office and who will be on hand when you want to do business with the city government, then you want to see that Mr. Wagner is elected. This thing of carrying the government around in your pocket is a thing of the past. Klamath Falls is getting big enough now so that it ought to have a representative in the City Hall during the day time. There is only one way that this can be done during the coming year and that is by the election of Mr. Wagner to the office of City Recorder.

Woman's Home Companion

The Woman's Home Companion for May appears with a number of its illustrations exquisitely printed in color. This is a radical departure for monthly magazines of the size of the Woman's Home Companion, in fact it is the first time in the history of similar magazine publication that color work in illustrations has been attempted. The result is exceedingly attractive, especially as shown in Ellis Parker Butler's humorous story "The Chromatic Ghosts of Thomas," and in Herbert D. Ward's short story "The Wall of the World." The cover of the May number is a reproduction of an extremely clever water by Fanny Y. Cory.

DAIRY

Dairy is pleasantly situated on the west side of Yonah Valley, near the center of Klamath County. It has two good general stores with enterprising, up-to-date dealers who enjoy a large trade from surrounding valleys; a hotel and feed barn, and a school house. It is surrounded by a rich farming community with which it is connected by a farmers' telephone line and also a long distance line. Is on the stage line, twenty miles east of Klamath Falls.

Ed Sedge and Joe Welch are thinking of going to work on the government ditch this summer.

Farmers are getting along well with their spring farm work, and have most of their seedling done.

One of August Flackus' horses was badly injured in a wire fence recently. One foot was nearly torn off.

Chas. H. and Albert Bergdorf have recovered their health and are again able to go about their daily avocations.

Theo. Hammersley and his bride (nee Miss Myrtle Donnell) have gone to housekeeping on the Hans Nelson place.

Chas. H. Jones is preparing to remove with his family to California early in May. He has been assisting in the farming of the John Shook place.

The twice-a-week mail route from Dairy to the Yonah postoffice is now in full operation and is a convenience, especially to people living enroute.

It is reported that Louie Fleischmann, and Mr. Schneider are soon to reopen the saloon in Dairy, and will either rent or buy the Emil Flackus building.

Miss Rosa Beck who has been nursing the sick at the C. H. Bergdorf home for some weeks, went home Saturday, her task having been accomplished.

Peter Petersteiner was a business visitor at the Falls Saturday last. Peter and his family were visiting friends in the Tule lake region Monday.

Supervisor Flackus has recently been doing a good job improving the road over the Pine Flat grade and Lowe hill, for which the traveling public will be very thankful.

I am informed that a lady from California has been engaged to teach the winter school in the Hildebrand district. James Wight's term will close about June 1st.

Mrs. Frances L. Lee departed Monday last for a visit among friends in Tacoma and Seattle, to be gone for an indefinite time. She hopes to regain her health while away.

Capt. J. W. Siemens was a visitor in Yonah Valley one day last week, accompanied by Wm. McDonald, of San Francisco, who was taking a look at a place he bought a year ago.

Chas. Horton arrived at the Marsh last week from Prineville with some 800 head of stock cattle. He will feed most of them on the Sprague river feeding grounds this summer.

A number of Yonahians attended the session of the Commissioners' Court at the Falls Wednesday. Among them were Hon. John S. Shook, A. Sterzl, Chas. Flackus, Theo. Flackus and C. W. Sherman, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bennett, Wm. Shook and other Yonah valley members of the I. O. O. F. attended the anniversary celebration of Odd Fellowship given at Bonanza Friday evening last, and report having enjoyed the occasion very highly.

Wm. Hadley of Douglas County is camping on Sprague river. He is reported to be a unique character in his way. He makes his home near Diamond lake and makes his living killing deer for their hides, and is reported to have killed as many as 23 deer in a single day, and 500 in a year. He does not seem to have any fear or regard for the game law. He was in Dairy Saturday, enroute for the Falls. In the region where he makes his home deer are said to be as plentiful as jack rabbits.

Jacob Rueck now enjoys the luxury of holding two responsible positions—that of director of the Water Users Association and postmaster of the Yonah postoffice. Neither one is very lucrative, however. He also has another office, that of vice president of the bank at Bonanza, and out of the three he ought to be able to eke out a living, if he works hard as usual on his farm.
