CITY BRIEFS.

Gasoline at the Star Drug Store. †
The Boston Store is going out of business and as a consequence has cut the price on every article in the store. If you want anything in the clothing, dry-goods, hat, shoe or any other line, now is the time to get it and save money. †
Watches. L. Alva Lewis. †
E. D. Whitney and Capt. McIntire arrived in this city Sunday.
Lead Arsenate for spraying at Star Drug Store.
Misses Evelyn and Bessie Applegate left for Oakland Sunday Morning.
The government says that Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandy Rye and F. F. V. Rye is pure for it is put up under its supervision in bonded warehouses. Sold by C. D. Willson. †
FOR SALE—4-room cottage near high school; $1200; Mason & Slough. †
Dr. Harry Irwin, who recently has made heavy purchases in Klamath county real estate, has decided that he will come here and locate permanently.
Small tracts of well located tule marsh lands offered for one week at $20 per acre. Abel Adv. †

Mr. Schofield, botanist in the employ of the Department of Agriculture of the United States, is here, having been delayed for the purpose of making investigations for the Reclamation Service wherever experimental farms are to be installed. His work here will be along that line, and when he finishes the Service will be able to carry out its plans relative to the experimental farms that are to be started here.
Now is the time to get your suit. Call at the Boston Store for it. †

T. H. Humpherys, formerly Project Engineer of the Klamath Project, and now in charge of the immense Sacramento Project, arrived here this week on private business. He has a host of friends here who gave him a warm welcome. Mr. Humpherys is one of the coming engineers of the country and his ability has received ample recognition from the government, chief of which is placing him in charge of the Sacramento Project, which will be the largest of any undertaken by the Reclamation Service, and in some respects the greatest ever undertaken by any nation in the world. He will probably return to Sacramento this week.
The Farmers Implement & Supply House will be pleased to show you their new stock of Bikes, Road Wagons, Buggies and Spring Wagons. †
James M. Emery of Fort Klamath was in the city Sunday on business, returning to his home Monday.
Do you know that I have all kinds of property for sale at a bargain. Mark L. Burns, Klamath Falls, Oregon. †
See Ady for marsh lands. †
FOR SALE—A new five room cottage, in a good location; $1000; Mason & Slough. †

FOR SALE—A lot of fine driving, draught and saddle horses, at a price that will sell them. Phone or write to Liskey Bros., Dairy, Oregon. Swan Lake ranch 18 miles from Klamath Falls. 1-24-6mo.

Owen McKendree tells the Record that he has just sold his clip of wool to a Boston purchaser realizing 19½ cents per pound at the shearing corrals. Mr. McKendree avers that there is more money in sheep than any other kind of stock, he having realized $10,000 profit off his band last year.—Record.
For Pumps, Pumps and Pumps go to the Farmers Implement & Supply House. †
If you want anything in the machinery line, see George T. Baldwin, who is agent for the Ashland Iron Works. †
Mrs. Silas Obenchain and niece returned home this week, after a most enjoyable trip to California.
For rings go to L. Alva Lewis. New line just arrived. †
Do you want to buy property that will be a gilt edged investment? Buy in the Hot Springs Addition. †
FOR SALE—A fine ranch already unready under water, within 8 miles of town. $47.50 per acre. Mason & Slough. †
W. M. Brown of Astoria was in the city last week for the purpose of looking over this field as a possible location for a billiard parlor. He is at present in business in Astoria, but that town is getting to the point where it is too dead to support a first class establishment such as Mr. Brown owns. He spent several days here and made a thorough investigation of conditions and at the end concluded that this city offered about the best opportunity in the state for his business. He accordingly rented the corner room in the Withrow—Melhase block and left for Astoria Friday to pack up his equipment and bring it here. Mr. Brown knew no one when he arrived here, but before he left had made many friends among the business men. He is a good mixer and will be welcomed by the entire community.

FOUND—A suit of clothes. Kuh, Nathan & Fisher make; splendid material and latest pattern. You can get it at the Boston Store, where all prices are always right. †
Mr. and Mrs. Lon Story were in the city Saturday.
FOR SALE—At a bargain: One 12-foot header; three header beds; one wagon. L. D. Ward, Tule Lake, Ore.
The Ladies of the M. E. Church will serve ice cream and lunch over the 4th, beginning the afternoon of the 3rd. Place—the vacant room adjoining Nowlin and Croft's real estate office.
FOR SALE—12 four-year-old mules; all broken. Inquire at this office. †
Regular services are being held every evening in the First Baptist church by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wrisley. Mrs. Wrisley is considered one of the best evangelists on the coast. Come and hear her.
FOR SALE—320 acres, 5 miles from town; 100 acres timber; estimated to run 1¼ millions—$1,000. J. F. Croft. 6-27 tf
Major Worden has purchased a piece of property in Fort Klamath from Mr. Hessig. It is his intention to erect thereon a bungalow which he will occupy several months each year. With his new auto he will experience no trouble in reaching it on schedule time.
"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandy Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Willson. †
Just arrived at Alva Lewis's, new line of jewelry. †
George T. Baldwin has recently been appointed local agent for the Ashland Iron Works and will be pleased to give quotations for all kinds of repairs and machinery. †
Get your suit at the Boston Store. The price is right and the goods are there. †
The 500 club was entertained at the home of Mrs. R. S. Smith when Mrs. George Noland won the prize.
FOR SALE—One of the best houses in Klamath Falls; $3500; easy terms; Mason & Slough. †
Mrs. John S. Shook, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Portland for the past several weeks, returned home Saturday. As a result Mr. Shook is the happiest man in the county, and he states without reservation that bachelor life is not what it is cracked up to be.
Any one wanting property of any kind in Southern California or if you have property to sell or trade, write J. E. Paddock, Klamath Falls, Oregon. 4-18 tf

Hon. George T. Baldwin returned from Portland Monday evening. The Judge is afflicted with an aggravated case of automania and it is not unlikely that in order to perfect a cure he will have to undergo the operation incident to the purchase of an automobile.
If you want to buy a lot in the Fairview addition No. 2, see me. I have an interesting proposition for you. Al Kubus, Klamath barber shop. †
E. G. Kilgore, one of Langell valley's leading stockmen was in this city Friday. He says that he has been talking with his neighbor stockmen to present the County Commissioners with a petition asking to have a bounty placed upon panthers as these animals have been killing stock by the score during the past two months.—Bulletin.
Pitch Forks, Jackson Forks, Rope, Cable, etc., etc., at the Farmers Implement & Supply House. †
H. W. Straw returned home Saturday. He is assisted in his efforts to get around by a pair of crutches.
On receipt of two cents in stamps I will send descriptive literature of Klamath County to any address.—Mark L. Burns, Klamath Falls, Oregon. †
Mrs. J. E. Pierce entertained a number of her friends Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served and the guests had a most enjoyable afternoon, as may be expected with such a charming hostess.
FOR SALE—4-room house with barn and wood shed; $1000; Mason & Slough. †
You will find the largest and most complete stock of Haying and Harvesting Machinery at the Farmers Implement & Supply House that you have ever seen in Klamath County. †
Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, daughter Ruby and niece Miss Chambers, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. R. S. Smith, returned to their home in Eugene Tuesday morning.
Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandy Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Willson. †
H. V. Gates, accompanied by Frank Anderson, the well known Southern Pacific railway geologist, and Mr. Wardell the chemist, left Monday morning for Lake county on a prospecting tour. They are traveling under a roving charter and simply have their eye out for anything that needs development with promise of a fair return for the effort and expense. Their trip may be productive of much good.
