The freshmen of the High School were tendered a reception Friday evening by the older students and the event was a most enjoyable one. Part of the program that miscarried was the proposed hazing of the freshmen. There was fun galore, especially for the freshmen, who held their own against heavy odds.

Men's cravenette rain coats $5 to $20 K K K Store.

Small tracts of well located tule marsh lands offered for one week, at $20 per acre. Abel Adv.

On receipt of two cents in stamps I will send descriptive literature of Klamath County to any address.—Mark L. Burns, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Do you want a choice timber claim or homestead? If so call at my office at once. Mark L. Burns

Marion Bennett had the misfortune to have his separator burned last Friday. It was located at the Henry Stoeshler place, near Dairy. The crews were at dinner when the fire was noticed, and it is presumed that it was started by sparks from the engine. The loss will be a heavy one to Mr. Bennett, as he had just received the machine. It will also be a hardship on the farmers in the neighborhood, who were depending on Mr. Bennett doing their thrashing.

"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

Harry Benson joined the Klamath County contingent at the Agricultural College, Corvallis, this week.

Klamath County will have a big delegation at the Agricultural College this year. Among the students already there are Jesse and Holly Siemens, Ren Crews, Lester Leavitt, Harry Benson and J. M. Copeland. There are several others who will attend.

Judge Drake and Allen Sloan returned Friday from an outing on the Upper Lake.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.
