Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

The ladies of the Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will give a Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. Alex. Martin, Jr., next Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5:30 o'clock. All are invited to come, enjoy, and leave a generous silver offering for the work of the Ladies Aid Society.

"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

Senator Abner Weed was well enough to come to Yreka Friday and attend to some business as supervisor from this district. Senator Weed will be able to go to Sacramento and take his seat in the senate at the special session of the legislature. He has not fully recovered his health, though he is gaining ground every day.—Yreka Journal.

Those who wish the Wiggle Stick Blue, which I have been selling for the benefit of the Woman's Temple of Chicago, will now find it for sale at the Racket Store, as Mr. Duffy has kindly consented to handle it in future. I also have it at my residence, if it is more convenient to call for it there. Hattie Willson. 10-31 +

The articles of incorporation of the Klamath Packing and Commercial Company are completed and will be forwarded to General O'Brien, at Oakland, Cal., as soon as the embargo now existing by reason of the holiday proclamation of the Governor is lifted. Upon the return of the charter the organization of the company will be completed, and active operations begin at once.

J. E. Enyart, president of the Medford National Bank, has received samples of the new $10 gold piece now being coined by the mints, which has the words, "In God We Trust," omitted. The coin is probably the ugliest ever put out by this government. Certainly no coin collection reveals one so utterly lacking in beauty. One side has an overgrown eagle that looks like a vulture wearing pantelettes. The reverse is a brutal looking Indian, not half as handsome as the conventional one on the one-cent piece. Instead of being milled, the coin has a series of stars around the edge.—Tribune.

Mrs. S. F. Van Ripper, while visiting her daughter Mrs. J. D. Walker, had the misfortune to break her arm last Thursday. She was driving the chickens from the door yard when she fell, causing the accident. Dr. Johnson was called and reduced the fracture.—Bulletin.

Don J. Zumwalt and M. D. Williams, of the engineering department of the Klamath County Abstract Company, who have for the past ten days been platting the Lakeside Tract, returned home this week, having completed their field work.

John Willard and Dan McNamara, who were arrested last week on the charge of stealing chickens from Frank Armstrong, had their hearing before Judge Nichols and were bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Their bail was fixed at $500. The penalty for the offense is from two to five years, and it would be well for some others who are in the habit of stealing chickens, not only in this city but throughout the county, to bear in mind that it is a serious charge.
