Those who wish the Wiggle Stick Blue, which I have been selling for the benefit of the Woman's Temple of Chicago, will now find it for sale at the Racket Store, as Mr. Duffy has kindly consented to handle it in future. I also have it at my residence, if it is more convenient to call for it there. Hattie Wilson. 10-31 +

S. A. White, of Bonanza, was in the city Saturday, speaking a good word for his town, as usual.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandle rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

J. F. Salcido, the well known newspaper man, was in the city this week representing the Bonanza Bulletin and the Lakeview Examiner.

"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandle rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

John and Clyde Van Meter of Bedford were visitors in the city Saturday coming for the purpose of doing some Xmas shopping.

Don Zumwalt and M. D. Williams, who for the past week have been engaged in laying out a new town at Teter's Landing, returned home Monday.

Work on the Keno Canal was suspended Saturday and will not again be resumed until spring. This action was due to the severity of the weather, it being impossible to carry on the work to advantage.

Reports have it that a newspaper is to be started in Dorris under the direction of J. Scott Taylor. We wish you luck, Brother Taylor, and that the decision of the railroad to pass Dorris by as a terminus will not have a disastrous effect on your pet.

Jesse and Holly Siemens and Arthur Leavitt returned this week from Corvallis, where they are attending college, to spend the holidays with their parents. These young men, together with the other representatives from Klamath County, are making a splendid record, one that is a credit to themselves and the county.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Zimmerman entertained the members of the "Nonpareil" basket ball team last evening. A bounteous Christmas dinner was served by the hostess, after which a pleasant social evening was spent. Instrumental solos by Mrs. Pratt and Miss Worden and vocal solos by Mrs. Zimmerman, Mr. Zimmerman, Roy Walker and Burge Mason were greatly enjoyed by those present.

FOR EXCHANGE—A new modern, five-room house, value $1600, in Santa Cruz, Cal.; climate here like perpetual spring time. Will exchange for Klamath Falls vacant lots, valley land, or timber. Reason for change, must have higher altitude. I also have a nice eight-acre ranch two and one-half miles from Santa Cruz, for sale. Address, A. W. Pingree, Sealbright Station, Santa Cruz, Cal.

The Butte Valley Stage company has leased its outfit to the O. & C. T. company. The former is the company headed by J. H. Hughes and operating a stage line between Bray and this city. This transfer leaves the O. & C. T. company in sole control of the field. Mr. Hughes has commenced arrangements for the placing of a stage service between Merrill and Bray, the ultimate object of the plan being to secure the

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Mong and their company of players open an extended engagement in Houston's Opera House tonight in what is said to be a great cast in dramatic success entitled "Till Death Do Us Part." The company comes to the Klamath country direct from the Coos Bay, where they have been playing for the past five weeks, and from what we can learn they have a very fine company and play repertoire of successes entirely new to this section. It is their intention to play the surrounding county after their engagement in this city.

FARMERS OF MODERATE MEANS OFFERED RARE OPPORTUNITY

An unusual opportunity is offered the farmer of moderate means to secure a home in the Lakeside Tract located on the North shore of Tule Lake. The land now offered for sale consists of 3500 acres of irrigable land lying under the Adams canal, a part of the Klamath Project, and admirably located along the shore of the lake. It is rich sagebrush and grass land, part of it being in cultivation. It will be sold in tracts to suit purchasers and on satisfactory terms.

For particulars call on or address, J. Frank Adams, manager Lakeside Company, Tule Lake, Oregon. 10-17-41
