The Kiser Photos have arrived at the Star Drug Store. †

Fred McKendree of Bonanza was in the city Tuesday looking after the interests of the Bonanza Creamery, of which he is manager.

S. A. White of Bonanza was registered at the Lakeside Inn Tuesday.

Mrs. Emmitt Beeson, of Talent, is here on a visit with her daughters, Mrs. E. Dunham and Miss Anna Beeson.

Mrs. J. B. Griffith, who has been ill for some time, is reported to be convalescing.

W. H. Heilman and family left this week for Washington, D. C. They expect to return to Los Angeles for the winter.

Those who wish the Wiggle Stick Blue, which I have been selling for the benefit of the Woman's Temple of Chicago, will now find it for sale at the Racket Store, as Mr. Duffy has kindly consented to handle it in future. I also have it at my residence, if it is more convenient to call for it there. Hattie Wilson. 10-31 †

Fancy box stationery at Winters'. †

It would seem that F. H. Mendenhall, who passed several worthless checks in this city, was either trying to fool the officers or wished to add insult to injury by offering a clue as to his whereabouts. This week K. Sugarman received a postal card from Walla Walla, Wash., signed "Phil." Comparison between it and other letters written by Mendenhall convinces the authorities that the postal was written by the fugitive. It is possible he has an accomplice in Washington, who forwarded the postal for the forger. The matter is being investigated.

New Sterling and plated toilet sets at Winters'. †

Circulars offering a reward of $50 for the arrest of F. H. Mendenhall, the forger, have been issued by Sheriff Obenchain. The description contained therein is as follows: Smooth-faced; about 28 years of age; height 5 feet 5 1/2 inches; weight 150; large, dark-blue eyes; full-faced; medium dark complexion and hair; wears No. 5 shoes; scar size of 25-cent piece on right leg above ankle; small scar on nose between eyes. Discharged from Deer Lodge, Mont., penitentiary, Nov. 17, 1907.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson. †

President Mulkey this week resigned as head of the S. O. S. N., his resignation to take effect January 1. He has associated himself with the Jackson County Abstract company and will locate in Jacksonville. Mr. Mulkey is recognized as one of the ablest educators in the state, and the Normal loses one of its strongest supports through his resignation. †
