If this is true it is a deprecation, the perpetrators of which should be severely punished. Deputy Sheriff Schallack is making an investigation, and public feeling is considerably aroused as this is not the first case reported.

"Just what we have been waiting for. Now we can do business," remarked Harry Ackley, in speaking of the snow and cold weather. Ackley Bros. have over one million feet of logs piled on skidways in the woods near Keno. They have had their teams and sleighs in readiness waiting for the first big snow, and it is expected now that no time will be lost in getting the logs to the landing.

If enclosed in unsealed envelopes, they are subject to postage according to the character of the message—at first class rate if wholly or partly in writing, or third class rate if entirely in print—and postage should be fixed to the envelope covering the same. The last few days has brought joy to the hearts of the small boy and girl and to many older residents of Klamath Falls, as well as to the consumers of ice. The cold weather is fast producing our supply of ice for next summer. The lovers of skating, however, are not bothering about next summer's ice, but are enjoying to the utmost the exhilarating pastime before it is too late. According to the dictum of the small boy, who is an undisputed authority, there is fine skating below the Government tunnel, also on the railroad ditch and Moore's canal. The latter seems to be the favorites and are more generally patronized.

"Dick" Richardson has been known ever since he has been a resident here as a "red hot" republican, and you can imagine his feelings when he saw his name reported in a local paper in the registration list as a democrat. "Dick" immediately got busy with the telephone and things were hot around his office in the court house. Among other names reported as democrats are: Tony Castel, A. Kershner and Fred L. Applegate. These men have always been such loyal and enthusiastic republicans that it is considered a rather good joke. The names probably got misplaced in making up the forms, but their friends insist on the cigars.
