The Royal Neighbors will give a St. Valentines' dance at Houston's opera house on February 14th. The grand march will be led by the Foresters and M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Hughes are in the city from Butte valley, where Mr. Hughes is now engaged in clearing a large tract of sagebrush land, preparatory to putting in a crop of grain. They will return to Dorris Monday.

FOR SALE—House and lot four blocks from post office. P. O. box 115, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

According to the new schedule issued by the postoffice department to go into effect Monday, February 10, the mail will leave Klamath Falls in the morning at 10 o'clock and arrive here about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The new order provides for ten hour schedule between here and Pockegama. The mail will leave the latter place at 5 a. m.

Practice for "The Crucifixion" under the leadership of T. W. Zimmerman is progressing very satisfactorily.

The Twenty One Club gave one of its popular dances last evening, and it was one of the most largely attended of any given by this organization for some time. The evening was an ideal one for dancing and the guests of the Club enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The dancing committee had decorated the hall beautifully, evergreen, flowers, red and white ribbons and Japanese lanterns entering largely into the decorations. Each of the ladies was presented with a carnation as a souvenir of the occasion.

"Spray 'em or cut 'em down," says Secretary Williamson of the State Board of Horticulture, in discussing the care of fruit trees and vines. He is engaged in sending out the formulas for spraying for the San Jose scale, woolly aphis, codling moth and other things that prey on the fruit crop of Oregon.

"Now is the time for winter spraying and it ought to be done right away," he said. "Where the trees are not winter-spraying they should be cut down and burned, so as not to remain breeding places for the various pests. Even rose bushes ought to be sprayed, in order that they may not harbor the San Jose scale."

Charles Lambert of Bonanza manager of the Klamath Falls-Lakeview stage line has been in this city since Saturday looking after the business at this end of the line.

C. A. Jensen, who has been employed on Klamath Falls newspapers for several years, left for Lakeview Saturday morning. He has accepted a position as foreman on the Lake County Examiner, and being a good printer and also a good fellow he will fit into his new surroundings.

Guy M. Ingram, head of the Forest Service at Lakeview, passed through the city Thursday on his way to the railroad.

Capt. Ivan D. Applegate arrived in the city Thursday from his home in Oakland, Cal. Mr. Applegate will remain here a short time looking after his sheep interests.

Evidence that the dog poisoner has begun work again, this has been reported. "Rip," the fine English pointer, belonging to L. A. Gregory, was taken sick Thursday, with every indication of poison, and it was only after several hours of work that the life of the animal was saved. It will be remembered that last year there was a big loss of valuable dogs from some unknown person distributing poisoned meat.

Since the organization of the company here to prospect for oil, there has been several representatives from the outside sent here to make private investigation. One of these parties is in the county now from Bakerfield, Cal. In speaking with a business man of Bonanza, he fully agreed with the report and statements made by Mr. Sims. He said, however, that it would take a well-gained company with considerable capital in order to sink wells and build pipelines.

W. P. Sedge, of Dairy, who recently purchased the Davies' stock of merchandise, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Sedge brought in 250 dozen of eggs which he sold to the local merchants. He says the Yonna Valley hens are working overtime these fine days and they are turning out close to three hundred dozen of eggs each week. With such a record as this the people of Yonna ought to feel happy and keep humming the "lay of the hen." Mr. Sedge is offering for sale his entire stock of merchandise at actual cost, also his buildings and lot. His reason for this is the desire of Mrs. Sedge to go to California, to care for her father, who was bereft of his wife recently.

J. P. Bonham, the Singer man, returned Thursday from Merrill, where he attended to business for a few days.

D. W. Burling, the Dorris real estate man, is in the city Friday boosting the coming railroad terminus.

Dr. Middleton, of Klamath Agency was in the city Friday.

Wheat hay, alfalfa and timothy, mixed—No. 1 hay—$15 at the Belmont Stables.

J. M. Emery is down from Fort Klamath. Mr. Emery has with him several marten and fox skins, which were taken from animals he trapped in the northern part of the county. They are all handsome specimens of fur.

"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandy Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Wilson.

Postmaster Murdoch, as soon as he was notified of the change in the mail schedule, telegraphed the department asking that the order be reconsidered, and advising that the mail leave here at 8 o'clock in the morning instead of waiting until 10 o'clock. He has not received an answer yet. If the citizens will support the postmaster in his effort to remedy the present conditions, it undoubtedly can be accomplished.

As an indication of the increase in business conditions prevailing in this city, that of G. Heitkemper, Jr., is a fair example. When he rented the store room in the republican block he believed that he would have ample room for sometime to come, but now he finds that his business has grown to such proportions as to demand larger accommodations. He has therefore made arrangements for the erection of an addition on the rear of his store, which will be used as a work shop and store room. The space at present used for these purposes will be fitted up for optical and music departments and will be in harmony with the rest of his establishment.

The following teachers are in the city taking the examinations for state and county papers: Mesdames Kirkendall, Newton, and Lambert, Misses Rachael Applegate, Sarah Griffith, Nichols, Lola Wilkerson and Wood, Messrs. Irwin, Hall, Griffith, Clapp, C. E. Mulkey and True Delap for county papers. Miss Conn and Callahan and Mr. Hall for state papers.

Bonanza has two girl basket ball teams, and they are ready to challenge the world. It would make a nice interesting game if arrangements could be made to have them meet one of the Klamath Falls teams.

According to J. B. Hulse, who recently returned from Dorris, the Dunkards are planning to set out a one hundred acre tract in apples this spring. It is believed that the vicinity near MacDoel is particularly adapted to the raising of fruit. Experiments already made fully justify those who hold this opinion and another year will see large tracts planted in fruit trees. The contract is also about to be let for the seeding of a tract of 700 acres in wheat. Every indication points to the rapid settlement and cultivation of all land along the line of the new railroad.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandy rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Wilson.

A new basket ball has been purchased for use during the series of games for the Mong Cop. The ball will be given to the winner of the series.

Richard Kerns and T. H. Hunsaker are in the city from Dorris.

It is understood that the Fire Department will ask for the receipts from the basket ball games. The Public Library officials also think they could use the money to good advantage.

Joe Hettinger, of Bonanza, was registered at the American Hotel Monday.

District Attorney W. J. Moore arrived from Lakeview Saturday evening to attend the special term of Circuit Court, which convened today. Mr. Moore said he did not think he would be a candidate for re-election.

Geo. W. Nowlin, who has held down cases on the Republican for more than two years and recently of the Herald force, left Sunday morning for Los Angeles where he will join his wife and young son, who have been in the land of perpetual sunshine for several months. Mr. Nowlin will seek employment on one of the large dailies in Southern California.

Miss Doris Goss and Oda Cravens were Bonanza people in the city Friday making final proof on timber claims.

Fred Liskey, charged with mayhem on the person of Ira McCall, was released from custody of the sheriff Monday on $500 bail, furnished by his mother and brother. The case will be tried at the regular June term of court.

Charles Horton has just returned from Yainax, where he is wintering 300 head of stock cattle. He also has 400 head at his home ranch. Mr. Horton states that there is no danger of his running short of hay this winter, as he probably will have 500 tons left over, when he turns his stock out on the range. He will make his final shipment this season of about 500 head of beef cattle the latter part of this month.

Farewell Ovation

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cronemiller were given a big ovation at Fort Klamath Saturday night. Mr. Cronemiller has been visiting friends in the Wood River country previous to his departure for Lakeview to assume his duties as receiver of the land office.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cronemiller have a host of warm personal friends, who took this occasion to show the respect in which they hold their former neighbors. As soon as the suggestion was made it was enthusiastically taken up by everyone and arrangements were quickly made for a banquet and dance.

When the people of Wood River undertook to do a thing they always go the limit and Saturday afternoon the residents began pouring in and by evening nearly everybody within a radius of 30 miles were gathered at the big hall where the event was to take place. The reports state that it was the largest gathering in the history of the Fort, with everyone crowding each other to offer their congratulations and do honor to their most respected citizen. Mr. and Mrs. Cronemiller were both deeply moved by the enthusiastic reception tendered them and it will be with a tinge of regret that they leave their host of sincere friends.
