Mr. Hunt is from W. S. Slough's old home and he was induced to visit here last year by Mr. Slough. He was so pleased with the country that he remained nearly a year so as to become familiar with the conditions at all seasons. After becoming fully satisfied he election. returned home to make arrangements to move his family here. A large num-ber of his neighbors and friends have been induced to come to this county by

Most of these people are practical farm-ers and that is the class of citizens that Klamath County needs most.

Jubilant in Upper Project

H. G. Bussey, of Lorella, was in the city Thursday, and he stated that the people of the Upper Project were jub-ilant over the fact that the government had advertised for bids for the construction of the Clear Lake dam, and he did not seem at all apprehensive that the work would be held up through a failure of the signing up of sufficient land to make the 85 per cent demanded by the government. He was quite outspoken about the large landowners who have been responsible for the delay in however, and that they will see their duty from a humanitarian standp int 10 10 and realize that they owe it to their fel-WHEREUPON, Court adjourned unlaw man to no longer stand in the path til Monday, Jan. 13, 1908, at 9 o'clock, of progress and success.
