You know how important a matter fit is in Clothes: so do we; the fitting quality of our garments is one of the best reasons we can offer you for buying them.

If you get any of our garments with the general measurement right—chest, sleeve, waist, leg—you'll be satisfied with the fit. The clothes hang right. The designing is correct.

Quality is closely related to style in Clothes. You find them at

J. P. Bonham and E. W. Muller, proprietors of the Singer Sewing Machine Agency, wish to inform the public that they have removed their entire stock of Edison phonographs and records which have been on display and for sale at Winters' jewelry store, to the S. K. Noel building on Main St., between Seventh and Eighth, where they will be pleased to serve you and respectfully ask for a share of your patronage.

D. J. Van Seyoc, of Oakland, Cal., is now connected with the local office of the Holcomb Realty Co.

County Court met Monday morning, Judge J. B. Griffith and Commissioner Fred Melhase in attendance. The only business transacted was the appointment of A. D. Miller as justice of the peace to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of T. F. Nicholas. The court is holding a short session this afternoon to transact routine business. Judge Griffith is indisposed and owing to this the court has not gone to the Upper Gap to view the bridge site.

PASTURE for all kinds of stock. Stock taken about April 4. Cows taken out mornings and brought in evenings. Address R. L. RIDDLE, Klamath Falls. 4-2 4-30 *

Miss Anna Applegate, teacher in the Fort Klamath school, is spending a week's vacation with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. O. C. Applegate.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply to Dr. Maston.

Alfred W. Scullen, of Eugene, is in the city visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Smith.

J. S. Holabird, of Claremont, Cal., is in the city. He is the engineer who laid out the various townsites along the line of the California Northwestern.

B. C. Burnett has returned to the city after being out in the sagebrush for several weeks.

Omer Bo thwick, of Altopelo, has located on one of the Byrnes ranches near Bonanza.

We have three ranches for rent. MASON & SLOUGH.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

J. Frank Adams has been buying a number of broke horses for a large stock farm, which is engaged in tulle farming. They cultivate a large area of reclaimed tulle lands and use a great many horses on the ranch. He has bought about 15 head and wants about 30 head more that are thoroughly broke. He says that good horses are scarce in this country and the price is too high to permit of speculation.

Wheat hay, alfalfa and timothy, mixed—No. 1 hay—$15 at the Belmont Stables.

"Every drop pure," is what can be said of Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie Rye and F. F. V. Rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

A number of Poe valley ranchers were represented at the meeting Saturday. Some of them are Geo. Maxwell, Dick Ross, O. C. Lee and Fred Eglington.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

The best way to learn that the traffic into the Klamath country is exceptionally heavy for this time of the year is to visit the hotels and lodging houses of this city. Most of them will be found pretty well filled after the arrival of the stages and boat.

Thursday the time for filing petitions for nominations for county office closed. Two petitions were filed that morning that of Geo. Chastain for committeeman for this precinct and that of R. L. Kilgore for Bonanza precinct. The former on the Democratic ticket and the latter on the Republican. The petition of C. T. Oliver for Republican committeeman for this precinct was filed several days ago.

The machinery for Moore Bros. big power plant is now at Bray, and will be brought in here at once. The workmen will begin on the building in a few days and the installation of the machinery will begin just as soon as it arrives. The line to Bonanza will be completed while the plant is being put in and by July 1st Bonanza will be getting electricity from the new plant.

The band club rooms will shortly be equipped with pool and billiard tables. The rooms are now nicely furnished and indications are that the band boys' venture will be highly successful. There are now thirty-one associate members in the band club, and these together with the band boys' makes a membership of more than fifty, enough to maintain the splendid club rooms.

A number of young folks enjoyed a very pleasant time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swingle Wednesday evening. Music, games, conversation and refreshments afforded the evening's amusement.

J. Scott Harrison, of the Interior Department, is here from Washington, D. C., to inspect a public survey made by R. A. Emmett some few years ago in the Pelican Bay section. The survey has never been examined by the Department.

DRESSMAKING—On and after March 30 I will be prepared to do first class dressmaking. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Mrs. G. S. Field, Worden block, over Stilts store. 4-23*

The Holcomb Realty Company is now located in the room with the Wells-Fargo Express Co.

Oscar Wright went to San Francisco Saturday to visit a few months with his brother.

FOR SALE—240 acres level grass land. Well improved. The place has an ample supply of water and is easy to irrigate. Suitable for a dairy of 50 or more cows, or for stock raising. Parties interested should see this place. Price $30 per acre. Half cash, balance to suit the buyer at 7 per cent. Call on or address Chas. Westlorn, Fort Klamath, Oregon. 4-24

R. E. Wattenburg has been awarded the contract for the erection of the Home block and work on the same will be begun shortly.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Rev. Geo. T. Pratt. 4-24

A. T. Duhime, who was here for several days on the timber deal, has returned to Lakeview where he makes his headquarters. He did not buy any while here as he considered the price asked for timber, such as he wanted, out of reason.

Full blood brown leghorn eggs for sale. Settings reasonable. E. L. Hopkins, 11th and Pine Sts. 4-24

FOR SALE—A four room cottage with outbuildings; city water in kitchen; fine fruit trees; must sell quick. Price $325 cash. Mason & Slough.
