Chas. Graves, who was in the city several days last week, is feeling jubilant over the railroad prospects in his section. He says that the survey for the S. P. from this city to Natron crosses the survey for the Oregon Eastern on his ranch at Odell, and that he feels sure that the place which was once a wilderness when he first located there will one day be the greatest railroad junction in Central Oregon.

The Newell boys, Lake County sheepmen were ordered to remove their sheep from certain lands they had rented from the Road Company in the Bly country. This they refused to do and the four men, who had given the orders to move, departed, but that night a crowd returned and a number of shots were fired. No one was hurt, and it is believed that the shooting was done to run a bluff. This happened more than a week ago according to Lakeview papers.

DRESSMAKING—On and after March 30 I will be prepared to do first class dressmaking. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Mrs. G. S. Field, Worden block, over Stilts store. 4-23*

Thos. Hendricks, a farmer residing in Plevea precinct, is the only voter registered as a populist. In case of a populist convention he would have no more trouble in manipulating the mechanism of the same.

FOR SALE—240 acres level grass land. Well improved. The place has an ample supply of water and is easy to irrigate. Suitable for a dairy of 50 or more cows, or for stock raising. Parties interested should see this place. Price $30 per acre. Half cash, balance to suit the buyer at 7 per cent. Call on or address Chas. Westlorn, Fort Klamath, Oregon. 4-2 tf

County Clerk George Chastain has purchased an interest in the Shive Co. store and upon the expiration of his term of office he will enter upon his new duties in the mercantile business. George is well acquainted with the business, having been in the employ of L. F. Willits when he conducted the store.

Mike Doohar has returned from a visit to the timber in the Bly vicinity. He says few of the homesteaders in that section have returned for the Summer.

A large sawmill is being built at Pokegama. About twenty-five men are now employed on the building and it is stated that the mill will be in operation by the first day of July.

Do not buy blended whiskey. When you want pure whiskey see that it is put up under the government's "bonded warehouse stamp," as is the Continental whiskey, Water Mill whiskey, Normandie rye and F. F. V. rye. Sold by C. D. Willson.

Moore Bros. have a force of men at work on the line to Bonanza. The Pole gang is now working near the Horton ranch. There has been some delay in getting the work on the plant started, but a force will be employed shortly. The machinery of the plant is at Bray and will be brought in at once.

The General Land Office has handed down a decision in the T. F. Short vs. Joseph V. Hessig contest case. The latter is a homesteader who, it appears, did not live up to the letter of the law governing homestead entries. The contest was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The land in question is in the pine belt north of Bly.

When Mail Route Inspector F. W. Vaile was here a few weeks ago he stated that he would recommend that the mail route via Weed be established temporarily whenever the stage company would agree to carry the mail at the regular rate allowed by the Department. Before he left the Oregon & California Transportation Co. practically agreed to carry the mail at the established rate as soon as the train service was inaugurated to Dorris.
