He has just returned from Bonanza, and says he is undecided as to whether he will locate at that place or in Klamath Falls. He will leave for Arizona in a day or two, but will return here about June 1st, to practice his profession either in this city or at Bonanza.

The Western Union has had several car loads of poles unloaded at Dorris. The linemen are now working in the vicinity of Macdoel and the line will be completed to Dorris just as fast as the poles can be set and the wires strung. Material for the completion of the line to the new railroad terminus is piled up to the stations along the railroad. The Western Union will likely stop at Dorris until the railroad is built to this city.

Klamath County this year will receive $1,300 from the state as its share of the interest accumulated on the irrevocable school fund. This fund is apportioned according to the number of children of school age in the county. Klamath County has about 1500 children of this age and so gets not quite one dollar for each pupil.
