Another Excursion to Klamath BETTER THAN WAS EXPECTED. Through the efforts of the Klamath Boosters, who recently visited Portland, this section is to be favored with a visit from the Oregon Press Association. The time for the excursion has not yet been set, but it will probably be the latter part of August On this excursion, if present indications count for anything, there will be at least one hundred of the most prominent icorn: lists of the state of Oregon. J. S. Dellinger, the editor of the Morning Astorian, published at Astoria, is very enthusiastic over the He is the president of the Press Association and will do everything to get a large number of the to come on the pleasure trip. The large Portland papers have already agreed to send representatives and among the excursionists will be the best literary men of the state. The excursion will be of untold value to this section from a publicity standpoint O R Ball the Portland manager of the American Press Association, has agreed to use one of the best articles written by the journalists in issuing the patent prints for customers of the association. This would mean that literature on the Klamath country will go to all sections of the United States.

Arrangements for the excursion are now in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce who have taken the matter of rates up with the railroad officials, and are planning the itinerary for the entertainment of the excursionists after they arrive here. The plan is to have them remain in this county about eight or ten days, during which time side trips will be made to Crater Lake, to the resorts on the Upper lake and to many of the other fishing places. It is also tion so that they may be able to obempire.

The plans are yet in their inciplency and before it is definitely decided that the President will come here John B. Goff, the ing real property, to-wit: special guide of the President on his Colorado hunt, will come here and make a thorough investigation. Parties residing in this city have received word from Meeker, Colo., the home of Mr. Goff, stating that he will be here shortly to inspect the section in order to make a report to the President. It is the intention of the chief executive of the nation to visit this section, if the report is favorable, before he starts on his African trip. Reports from all sections of the country are that deer and bear are more plentiful than they have been

Four Bids on Canal Extension

At 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the local office of the Reclamation Service were opened the bids on the extension of the South Branch canal. Four bids were received. Maney Brothers & Company, who are now working on a part of the canal, bid on all five schedules, their bid being $24,369.60; W. H. Mason of this city also bid on all of the schedules, his total bid being $22,703.90; Capt. J. M. McIntire bid on schedule four only his bid being $4311.30, while Hard & Johnson bid on schedule eight only, their bid being $4560.50. The five schedules on which bids were asked comprise the extension of the South Branch so that it will connect with the Adams system. In all it requires the digging of seven U.S. Land Office at Lakeview, Oremiles of canal. The board of engi-
