POE VALLEY ITEMS.

The Roberts boys have hauled wood to the school house for winter use.

Mr. Eglington and Lauson Ross have been working on the road.

Wm. Griffith, Elmer and Ellsworth Moore each took a load of hogs to Klamath Falls Monday.

Mrs. Mark and daughter, Alberta, went to the Falls Tuesday.

Mr. Mark and Mr. Evans have completed their barn.

Miss Sarah Griffith, who is now teaching at Lone Pine, visited her parents Saturday and Sunday.

Will Irwin, of Langell Valley, was in the valley on business Monday.

On Wednesday, November 11th Grandma Roberts was 78 years old. Her children and grandchildren with well filled baskets took possession of the house and enjoyed a bountiful meal and a delightful evening. Grandma was very much surprised, but enjoyed the evening hugely. Those of her children present were Mrs. Joe Taylor and husband and Mrs. Hiram Roberts and husband. Her sons William and Tom Roberts were unavoidably detained. Ten of her grandchildren were present.

Chris. Killsgaard has gone to Portland.

Esau Keck and Wm. Marcho have built a barn at the school house.

Mr. Thompson and family have moved from Poe Valley to the Carroll place on Lost River.

Albert Edler went to Klamath Saturday.

Sidney Freuer has completed his house. He has been making frequent visits to the lower end of Poe Valley. Wonder what it means?

LONE PINE ITEMS.

Services were held at the Lone Pine school house last Sunday afternoon by Rev. Anderson from Merrill. He will preach here again November 22.

The Government bridges are being built by Fred Steemans and M. H. Beebe.

Harry Booth is hauling lumber for the Government bridges.

The erection of the Lone Pine school house was commenced Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Slate have recently moved into the Ed. Booth house. Mr. Slate is one of the contractors building the new school house.

Carl Robely has the contract of building the fence around the school yard.

There was a dance at the Wain residence Monday evening.

Mrs. M. H. Beebe left Monday morning for Medford, where she expects to remain for a few weeks.

Mr. L. West lost one of his work horses last Saturday night.

Mrs. Alma LaPrarie has moved into her new house.

Archie Colson is building an addition on his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Monson have recently moved to the Fairco place.

Mrs. Hugh Best, who has been visiting her parents at Weston, expects to be home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. Elmer Smith has moved his ditch camp.

Mr. Joe Dervan is seeding.

Charlie Steeman is hauling hay from below Merrill. Hay seems to be rather a scarce article in this part of the country.

Gerald West of Lone Pine school was absent on Monday.

Mr. J. E. Enman began seeding last Friday.

Mr. Wain and family and Mr. Liggett and family, who have been working on the ditch, left Tuesday for California, where they expect to spend the winter.

Fred Combs left Tuesday for California.

NEWS FROM DAIRY.

E. B. Sedge is acting postmaster while Mr. Davies is attending a special Masonic meeting at Ashland.

It might be well for the farmers in this section to organize and make war on the coyotes. Six of the varmints were seen in the Lee field Sunday morning and they are killing pigs and chickens for everybody.

Our farmers are busy as bees plowing for next year's crop.

Elder Nortridge has been getting in his winter's wood the past week. He expects his family to arrive soon.

Godfrey Beck has sold his ranch to B. S. Grigsby. Price said to be $15 per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Tooper went to Klamath Falls Sunday to meet their daughter and son-in-law who live in Los Angeles, Cal.

A Mr. Hughes is interviewing some of our farmers in behalf of the Ruby Horse Co., who deal in thoroughbred horses.

Jan. Wight and John Ward were in Dairy Tuesday. Mr. Wight has PLEYNA ITEMS.

Mr. H.H. Van Valkenburg and wife are contemplating a change of residence. They will move to Klamath Falls.

Mr. John Faulkner has been hauling hay during the past week.

We have introduced an Agricultural Department into our school. We have been planting different kinds of seeds during the week and anticipate a great deal of pleasure and profit in watching them grow.

Leo Thompson is assisting Mr. Chas. Faulkner in digging potatoes every evening after school.

Our little boys and girls are weaving paper hats for busy work.

Mary Byers had a very narrow escape last Sunday, having been thrown from one horse under the feet of another. She was fortunate enough, however, to escape with a few bruises and a sprained arm.

Tom Roberts, a Poe Valley farmer, passed through here last week on his way to Rogue River after fruit.

Mr. McIntire's big teams and wagons pass by here very often and from the railroad.

Mr. Arthur Bretner shot and killed a large goose Sunday evening.

Rev. Pratt delivered an interesting address at the school house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Brown of Ashland will speak to us next Sunday, November 15.

Sunday School is still in progress, last Sunday showing a larger attendance than we have had yet.

We have a Current Event period every other day, each pupil contributing something of interest at each period. This work is very interesting as well as instructive, and we enjoy it very much.

Several teams and wagons went by here Monday and Tuesday to work on the railroad.

Mr. Sevits has been baling hay from the last few days.

The tule fire of Little Klamath Lake has ceased burning.

Last Wednesday and Thursday the Steamer Klamath towed two large steam shovels to the railroad camp near Klamath Falls. These two huge pieces of machinery are the property of Erickson & Petterson, the contractors.

Mr. A. Brentner has purchased a three-year-old filly of Mr. J. P. Lee. He has been breaking her the past week. She works like an old horse.

A number of the farmers are doing their fall plowing.

The potato crop is very light in this vicinity this year owing to the dry summer.

There have been many geese killed here lately. The duck shooting is also very good.

Mr. Joe Foster, from Round Lake, attended Sunday school here Sunday, and Monday morning started for his home near Merrill.

The boys of this district were anticipating a charivari, but were disappointed, the gentleman in question having returned to California.

A strange event took place Wednesday of last week, when a white pig followed a team and buggy (and squealing all the way) from Klamath Falls to a farm house near our school where it stayed.

Mr. Heavilin and wife from town attended services at the school house Sunday.

Mr. Beardsley passed through here on his way back to Rogue River Valley. He brought a load of tomatoes over, and had no trouble disposing of them.

One item in the Current Event period for Tuesday was "There's Nothing to it but Taft."

Arthur Bretner hauled a load of wood Wednesday.

Numerous "Oregon Tourists" pass through here daily on their way (we suppose) to some winter(?) resort.

SUMMERS NEWS.

Hunting is good on the Merrill road. Among those successful in bagging game recently were Leslie Rogers, Kent Ballard and Herb Baldwin.

Eldin Dennis has moved his fence back in order to make room for a new county road.

Homer Roberts is digging potatoes on Merrill Island. He says they are above average size.

Mr. De Pew is running an eight-horse gang plow on Judge Wihit's ranch.

Sam Woodward's gun exploded the other day and badly injured the thumb of Jack Hunsaker.

Jim Dixon is through baling his hay and is now hauling it to town.

Mr. Miles is constructing a sagerbrush scraper, which he intends to pull with Mr. Wilson's threshing machine engine.

There are twenty-four scholars enrolled in our school at present.

The directors have promised us a new fence and some new out buildings; also to level our yard.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Styles, November 1, 1908, an eleven pound boy.

J. D. Hooper has butchered thirty-three hogs from his ranch. He is now sowing grain.

Gak Bogz is hauling wood from Frank Iris.

E. W. Smith is hauling his grain to Martin Bros. Mill.

M. P. Galarneau is hauling rock from the rock crusher to the government camp.

Mr. Melhase is building a new barn on his place at Midland.

The railroad camp is pitched within a few miles of our school.

J. W. Jory will finish his ditch contracts in about three weeks.

Zelma, Walter and Andrew Folsom, whose father is working for J. W. Jory on his ditch contract, are attending our school.

Lennie Hooper has been chosen correspondent for the Summers district.

Our teacher, Miss Millie Garrison, has just finished reading and explaining to us "The Making of An American Boy." She is going to read next "The Bird's Christmas Carol."

We were very much disappointed last Friday because we had to scrub, instead of having the regular Friday afternoon reading.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gardner of Fort Klamath arrived last Friday for a visit with his son, G. A. Gardner, and wife. Mr. Gardner recently disposed of his place in that county, known as Seven mile ranch, and will spend the winter on the coast visiting friends at Crescent City and Bandon. In the spring he intends installing an electric lighting plant using the waters of Seven mile creek near Fort Klamath.—Crescent City Rustler.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.

Henry O. Offenbacher, Plaintiff, vs. R. E. Dyer, Defendant. No. 171 Equity.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale, duly issued out of the above named court and cause, on the 29th day of October, 1908, upon a decree made and entered of record in said Circuit Court, and in said suit, on the 28th day of October, 1908, in favor of the above named Plaintiff, directing the sale of the premises therein described to satisfy the sum of $2200, $250 attorney's fee, $42 costs and disbursements, together with interest on said sum of $2200, from the 20th day of July, 1907, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and accruing costs.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution and in compliance with said writ I have duly levied on said premises and will, on Monday, the 30th day of November, 1908, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the front door of the County Court House, in Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest of the above described defendant in and to the following described real property, situated in the City of Klamath Falls, Klamath County State of Oregon, to-wit:

Commencing at a point twenty-five feet (25 feet) northeasterly from the corner on Main Street between Lots 2 and 3 in Block 18 in the town of Klamath Falls, Oregon, thence northerly at right angles with Main Street eighty feet, thence northeasterly at right angles with said line twenty-five feet, thence southeasterly at right angles with said line eighty feet; thence southwesterly along Main Street twenty-five feet, to place of beginning, embracing a strip twenty-five feet wide and eighty feet long in Lot two (2), Block eighteen (18) in the town of Klamath Falls, Oregon. Also seventy-seven (77), Klamath addition to the town of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Lots one (1) and two (2), Block

Together with tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereon to belonging or in any wise appertaining.

The proceeds of said sale will be applied in the satisfaction of said execution, order and decree, interest and costs and all accruing costs, and the over-plus, if any there be, to be paid into said court to be further applied as by law directed.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 29th day of October, 1908.

W. B. BARNES,
Sheriff of Klamath County Oregon.

Now is the time to visit
California

WHEN summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate.

California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied recreations.

The Southern Pacific Co.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write any S. P. Agent, or
