

The Portland Clothing and Shoe Store

Agent for

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing

Hole-Proof Sox

Douglas Shoes

"The Store of Full Value"

K. SUGARMAN Proprietor

ARE YOU COMING?

We mean are you coming to the Street Carnival during the week of Oct. 12th. We hope you will. We are going to have a big time. And when you are here we would be glad to meet you personally in our store, to show you our modern, up-to-date stock of Drugs, Medicines and everything found in modern drug stores. We hope you will come and see for yourself the largest and best drug store in Klamath County.

STAR DRUG STORE
"They have it."

Dependable Hardware

Heating Stoves, Household Utensils, Guns and Ammunition, Cutlery—in fact everything in Good Hardware—No shoddy or shelf-worn goods.

Agents celebrated Ellwood Fences—and everything the farmer needs.

GEO. R. HURN, the Hardware Man

O. K. TRANSFER & STORAGE CO.

Goods packed and shipped. Heavy freighting a specialty. Baggage orders given prompt attention. Having up-to-date piano trucks we solicit your fine piano moving.

Phones—Office 871, Barn 873

$200.00 REWARD.

I will pay $200.00 for any information that will lead to the conviction of the party or parties who stole the following cattle from my pasture on the night of Friday, November 6th:
1 Red polled Steer branded Y on both sides.
1 Red Cow branded RX on left hip.
Any information will be considered confidential.

REX E. BORD,
Olene Ranch.

ESTRAY NOTICE.

Gray mare, branded J.R. on left shoulder; left eye out.
IKE JACKSON,
Yainax, Oregon.

DUNCAN--WEEDEN.

Henry E. Duncan and Pearl I. Weeden, both of Langell Valley, were united in marriage at 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesday by Rev. J. B. Griffith, at his residence in this city.
Mr. Duncan is one of the prosperous stockmen and farmers of the upper country, and the bride, formerly of Ashland, is also a land owner in Langell Valley.

Merrill enjoyed its first electric lights Wednesday night. The electricity was turned on at 4 o'clock Wednesday by the Moore Bros. power plant. A crew of men are still working connecting up the business houses and residences and this work will be completed in about two weeks.

CITY BRIEFS.

See the K K K Store's Ad inside.
R. C. Spink returned Monday from Salem.
D. R. Doten was up from Keno Monday.
J. F. Arant has returned from Crater Lake.
J. W. Wells was in the city from Bly this week.
Mrs. Sol Dewey was in town from Merrill this week.
Jas. Ryan, of Bly, was at the Lake-side Inn Monday.
A. F. Clubine and wife were up from Merrill this week.
N. S. Merrill was in the city from Merrill Tuesday.
Bring the children and see the Toys and Dolls at K K K Store.
J. B. Churchill and J. B. Martin, of Yreka, were in the city this week.
H. E. Duncan, of Lorella, was stopping at the Houston Hotel Tuesday.
R. L. Kilgore, the flour mill man of Bonanza, was in the city Wednesday.
Sheriff Barnes went to Bonanza last Friday to serve papers in a civil suit.
Alex. McRae, the timber man, arrived Sunday from Rhinelander, Wisconsin.
A. Patterson, Earnest Hamaker and L. Lundy were down from Bonanza Wednesday.
Send us your mail orders for Toys, Dolls, etc. We guarantee satisfaction. K K K STORE.
Sheriff W. B. Barnes returned last Thursday from Salem where he took Jay Sticks to the penitentiary.
I. F. Davies, of Dairy, returned last Monday from Ashland where he has been attending the meeting of the Shriners.
Lon Gorman, who had one arm and a foot cut off by the train at Weed a few months ago, is in the city visiting friends.
Carpenters are remodeling the front of the Hamaker building, which is occupied by Attorney Kaykendall and Thad. McLattan, the jeweler.
C. H. Dusenberry, the timber cruiser, has returned from Lake County, where he has been in the timber most of the summer.
E. R. Reames returned last Monday from attending the meeting of Shriners at Ashland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Reames.
Exclusive agents for the famous Rosebud Chocolates. Something new. If you haven't tried them you have NEVER eaten any REAL candy. American Confectionery. 16-17k

O. L. Carter, the new Chief of Police appointed by Mayor Stilts, was sworn in Monday morning by Police Judge Leavitt and commenced his duties Tuesday morning.
S. C. Graves returned last Friday from the Odell country where he has been visiting his brother. While absent he made a trip to Prineville, Crook County, but says he did not see anything that looked as good as Klamath County to him.
Geo. W. Lowe and C. T. Oliver returned Saturday evening from Lakeview. Mr. Lowe has disbanded his troupe for the winter. On this side of the gap as they were coming to town the wagon was upset and Mr. Oliver had one of his legs badly injured and is now confined in bed as the result.
Work on the Crisler & Stilts building is progressing rapidly and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year. C. H. Underwood, the Druggist, will probably occupy the corner store and the adjoining store room will be occupied by either The Portland Store or a dry goods firm.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

C. N. Meyer left Thursday morning for California.
L. A. Obenshain is here for a few days from Merrill.
E. L. Hopkins and wife left Monday morning for Marysville, California.
Chas. Stindt, of Lakeview, was in the city this week.
Emil Egert came in Friday from his ranch near Dairy.
E. Casebeer and John Wells were in the city from Bly this week.
R. C. Spink came down from the Klamath Agency Friday afternoon.
R. C. Spink and wife, of Klamath Agency, left Saturday for Salem.
Attorney Pierce Evans returned on Tuesday from Redding, where he has been with his wife. Mrs. Evans will remain below for the winter.
Bring us your Butter, Chickens, and Turkeys and get CASH for them. Monarch Mercantile Co. 11-12
Mrs. James Pelton returned last Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Jacksonville. She left next morning for her home at Fort Klamath.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes, cabbage, etc., wanted by the Monarch Mercantile Co. We pay CASH for them. Bring them to us. 11-12
Mr. McKensie, Superintendent of the Southern Pacific steamship lines, is in the city with his family spending his vacation. He is stopping with Engineer Church.
Mrs. Simmons, who has been suffering from an abscess for some time, Hamilton, assisted by Drs. Fisher and Stone. Mrs. Simmons has been in a very serious condition for several weeks but she withstood the operation, excellently.
Anyone having an account with the Singer-Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., will kindly make their remittances to E. W. Muller, cor. 6th and Main Sts., Klamath Falls, Ore., who now has sole charge of this territory for us.
11-5tf Singer Sewing Machine Co.
W. F. Arant, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, will return to the park tomorrow and will remain until driven out by the snow. He states that when he left the lake a few days ago there was very little snow except around the rim of the lake. At the camp this side of the lake there were only a few spots of snow.

The forest service has announced the creation of six administrative districts to which, after December 1, all business heretofore transacted in Washington will be referred. The district headquarters are located as follows: Missoula, Mont.; Denver, Colo.; Albuquerque, N. M.; Odgen, Utah; San Francisco, Cal.; and Portland, Ore.

John McCall, an experienced shoe man from San Francisco, arrived last night to take charge of the shoe department of the Boston Store. Mr. Jacobs has been increasing his stock of shoes and his trade in that line has grown to such an extent that it has necessitated his putting that department under the management of an up-to-date man. Mr. Jacobs states that he will be able to supply anything in the shoe line for men, women and children.
The Clerk and Sheriff on Tuesday afternoon drew the list of Jurors who are to serve at the regular December term of the Circuit Court. The list comprises 21 names and the men are from all parts of the county. Notices will be served on the men at once by the Sheriff. The December term promises to be a long and important one, as there are a large number of cases already on the docket, both civil and criminal. On account of the liquor and gambling cases it is believed that it will be necessary to summon a good many venire.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

C. N. Meyer left Thursday morning for California.
L. A. Obenshain is here for a few days from Merrill.
E. L. Hopkins and wife left Monday morning for Marysville, California.
Chas. Stindt, of Lakeview, was in the city this week.
Emil Egert came in Friday from his ranch near Dairy.
E. Casebeer and John Wells were in the city from Bly this week.
R. C. Spink came down from the Klamath Agency Friday afternoon.
R. C. Spink and wife, of Klamath Agency, left Saturday for Salem.
Attorney Pierce Evans returned on Tuesday from Redding, where he has been with his wife. Mrs. Evans will remain below for the winter.
Bring us your Butter, Chickens, and Turkeys and get CASH for them. Monarch Mercantile Co. 11-12
Mrs. James Pelton returned last Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Jacksonville. She left next morning for her home at Fort Klamath.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes, cabbage, etc., wanted by the Monarch Mercantile Co. We pay CASH for them. Bring them to us. 11-12
Mr. McKensie, Superintendent of the Southern Pacific steamship lines, is in the city with his family spending his vacation. He is stopping with Engineer Church.
Mrs. Simmons, who has been suffering from an abscess for some time, Hamilton, assisted by Drs. Fisher and Stone. Mrs. Simmons has been in a very serious condition for several weeks but she withstood the operation, excellently.
Anyone having an account with the Singer-Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., will kindly make their remittances to E. W. Muller, cor. 6th and Main Sts., Klamath Falls, Ore., who now has sole charge of this territory for us.
11-5tf Singer Sewing Machine Co.
W. F. Arant, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, will return to the park tomorrow and will remain until driven out by the snow. He states that when he left the lake a few days ago there was very little snow except around the rim of the lake. At the camp this side of the lake there were only a few spots of snow.

The forest service has announced the creation of six administrative districts to which, after December 1, all business heretofore transacted in Washington will be referred. The district headquarters are located as follows: Missoula, Mont.; Denver, Colo.; Albuquerque, N. M.; Odgen, Utah; San Francisco, Cal.; and Portland, Ore.

John McCall, an experienced shoe man from San Francisco, arrived last night to take charge of the shoe department of the Boston Store. Mr. Jacobs has been increasing his stock of shoes and his trade in that line has grown to such an extent that it has necessitated his putting that department under the management of an up-to-date man. Mr. Jacobs states that he will be able to supply anything in the shoe line for men, women and children.
The Clerk and Sheriff on Tuesday afternoon drew the list of Jurors who are to serve at the regular December term of the Circuit Court. The list comprises 21 names and the men are from all parts of the county. Notices will be served on the men at once by the Sheriff. The December term promises to be a long and important one, as there are a large number of cases already on the docket, both civil and criminal. On account of the liquor and gambling cases it is believed that it will be necessary to summon a good many venire.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Notice was served by the city officials on H. F. Murdoch, J. V. and J. A. Houston and other property owners who had sewerage connection on Second street to discontinue the connection and provide proper means of carrying off the sewage. These gentlemen have done so and are now arranging for the laying of a pipe from Main street to the lake.
A large force of hicklynets have been put to work putting up the walls for the Crisler & Stilts building and no stop is to be made until the roof is on. Childers Bros., the contractors, have been so rushed with work on a number of other brick buildings, that they have been delayed in starting the Crisler building. Now they are working every man they have room for.
That Taft's election to the presidency will mean work for 650,000 idle men is indicated by the result of a canvass among the 2000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers, which will be published in the next issue of its magazine, American Industries. The canvass was made ten days before election, but its results were not published for fear that the cry of partisanship would be raised.

Don't Forget that we are receiving SUITS every few days
THE BRICK STORE Co.

American Field Fence
and KOKOMO LAWN FENCE
BARBED WIRE

SOLD BY
ROBERTS & HANKS
HARDWARE DEALERS

STUDEBAKER WAGONS, BUGGIES and CARRIAGES

Sold by Geo. T. Baldwin Phone 261

This Week Only
Sale on AGATE WATER PAILS

12 qt. - - - 70c.
10 qt. - - - 60c.

THE □ DEAL

Ask about those rebate checks

The Fair Bride

now shows her happiness and shines resplendent along with our line of

Sparkling Cut Glass Hand Painted China and Rich Silver

All are appropriate wedding gifts and she will not be happy till she gets them.

See OUR Line Get Prices

H. J. Winters

THE LEADING JEWELER
BRANCH STORE : DORRIS, CAL.

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary
DON J. ZUMWALT, C. E. President
E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc.
Surveying and Irrigation Engineering
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

YOUR LAST CHANCE

In about 30 days our building will be ready and we are going to move. We want to reduce our stock before that time, and to do so we will make sweeping reductions in prices in every department. Remember--Only about 30 days more

The Boston Store