YONNA VALLEY ITEMS.

Adam Weidman has been digging potatoes for Arthur Noyes, who has a good crop, consisting of eleven sacks.

The people of Yonna ought to be well supplied with pork this winter, as H. J. O'Brien will butcher 25 hogs, C. H. McCumber, and Godfrey Beck 13.

Manuel Viera has bought potatoes of Arthur Noyes. Jacob Rueck, who has the Government rain gauge, states that on Nov. 20th of this month, the rain fell .26 of an inch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Stoeshler went to the falls this week. Louis Gerber bargained with Godfrey Beck of Yonna for a load of grain, oats, wheat and rye, with which to seed his place at Bly.

There is at present a great deal of improving going on at the Hildebrand school. The cloak rooms and porch are now being erected by Mr. Bliss, who was helped for a while by Emil Flaekus and Mr. Hammersley. There is a shed also being erected by Jacob Rueck, on the northeast corner of the school grounds, for his children's horse. These improvements will greatly add to the comfort of teachers and pupils, and also to the appearance of the grounds.

Harrison Gray made a business trip to Bonanza Thursday.

On last Thursday the weather which had been so beautiful took a sudden change in the shape of a bad sand storm. The wind blew so fiercely in Yonna that a pine tree in front of Mr. Viera's house was blown down.

S. B. Grizzle, of Klamath Falls, made a hasty trip to Yonna Tuesday, to get some rye of Mr. Viera to plant on his land above the ditch. This is the place he has recently purchased and will raise alfalfa. Rye seems to be very scarce this year around the Falls; hence the trip here was for it.

J. G. Wight of this valley has purchased 62 tons of tule hay of John Ward of the Conner ranch in Swan Lake, and will feed his cattle there for a part of the winter. Consideration being $5 per ton.

Frank Sterzl has made his escape from the land of sage brush and gone to Portland for the winter.

Riley Woods, who went to Lakeview to spend the winter, returned Thursday evening on his way to Klamath Falls.

Claude Clouton stopped over night in Yonna, with 360 cattle belonging to Chas. Horton. The cattle were bought in Warner Valley and Goose Lake, and are being taken to the Ankeny ranch near the Falls, to be fed this winter or until needed for the Oakland, Cal., market.

Louis Gerber bought the meadowgrass hay belong to A. T. Langell and James Goss, paying $6 per ton for it. Mr. Gerber will bring his cattle from Sprague River to the Seonschin ranch where the hay is, to feed them this winter.

Tom Shannon and Ed. Hadley stopped in Yonna on their way to their gold mine at the North Fork of the Sprague River.

Some improvements are being made at the home of D. Y. Grays of Yonna; such as repairing the house and barn, etc.

Some of the people of Yonna, old neighbors of Mrs. Della Colahan, who is now in Eureka, Cal., have received letters from her saying she is going to sell her home in Eureka, and return to her farm in Yonna. Also that Frank Logue, her brother, formerly of this place, will return and run the ranch for her.

Mr. Griffith, of Klamath Falls, has been in Yonna for the purpose of purchasing grain, rye, wheat and oats of Fred Beck.

Some of the people of Hildebrand are getting their turkeys for Thanksgiving of Mrs. L. A. Sterzl, who raised 27 this year.

While in Yonna Claude Clouton reported that the house belonging to L. Gerber of Bly, took fire Wednesday while they were moving a stove. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done except to the roof of the house.

C. C. Pearson has been plowing this week.

H. Gray has been sawing wood during the past week, for his winter's use.

Ed. Casebeer, of Bly, in passing through Yonna on his way to Klamath Falls, bargained with Mr. Ritter for 1000 pounds of rye, wheat and oats each, the same to be taken back on his return trip.

I. F. Davies, the postmaster at Dairy, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

Henry Meier of Swan Lake was visiting Godfrey Beck this week.

The Bank and Trust Company, of Klamath Falls, has purchased Mrs. P. Peterstener's place near Dairy. Albert Burdorf, of Yonna, has been harrowing in grain on his homestead this week.

J. R. Welch, who is an expert hide tanner, has tanned hides for his neighbors during the past month. H. D. Harpold, who is offering his place for sale, this year raised a very fine crop of oats.

Now is the time to visit California

WHEN summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied recreations.

The Southern Pacific Co.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write any S. P. Agent, or
