NEWS FROM DAIRY.

D. P. Shook began feeding his cattle November 25th.
Pat. Colahan will feed cattle for Dave Shook this winter.
Wm. Wight and wife took dinner at G. G. Anderson's Thanksgiving day.
W. P. Sedge took dinner at P. H. Gray's Thanksgiving day.
Miss May Robinson was in Dairy Thanksgiving evening.
Harrison Gray was in Dairy on Thanksgiving evening.
Elder Norridge took part in the Thanksgiving services at Bonanza.
Wm. L. Welch went to Klamath Falls Friday and brought out a load of groceries for W. P. Sedge.
Sheriff Barnes was in this locality looking after jurors for next court Friday.
Miss Nett Drew returned to Klamath Falls Saturday to be ready for school on Monday, after an absence of several days on account of sickness.
Milton E. Lemons, from Western Washington, came to Dairy Sunday. Mr. Lemons has bought the Calamies homestead in Pine Flat and will move on to the place as soon as he can get a building up.
Al. Benzinger from Swan Lake is in Dairy today, Tuesday, canvassing for the Salem nurseries. He took an order from Mr. Lemons the new corner to Pine Flat.
We know that fruit trees would grow well in Pine Flat but had never thought any one would undertake to raise Lemons there. We sincerely hope those that are making the venture will succeed heartily.
Elder Norridge's family are expected to arrive today, Tuesday.
Early Arant and family spent Sunday in Dairy and will soon come here to remain indefinitely.

MERRILL ITEMS.

J. P. Gifford and family are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rhodes. They will locate in Merrill as soon as they can find a house. They have started their children to school.
The Methodist Aid gave a Thanksgiving party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner. Games were played and refreshments served.
Grace Barrows gave a party to a number of her friends last Friday evening. Games were played and refreshment served. Those present were: Lee and Charlie Brown, Riley Powers, John Nye, Solmie Dewey, David and Herbert Fitch, Cecil Johnson, Calvin, Luther and Chester Haskins, Harriett Garrison, Emma Burr, Francis Eaton, Lucy, Ada, Alice and Yatta Turner, Lucy Johnson, Yetra and Gypsy Johnson, Grace Graybael, Ethel Brown, Alla Balls, Lulu and Phoebe Turner.
Donna Davis is very ill at this writing with typhoid fever. Hope she will be better at next writing.
Mr. Ivory, the man who was shot in the foot, died last Friday morning. He left a wife and two children, two brothers, one sister and a mother and many friends to grieve his death. They have taken his body to Alturas for burial.

GALE HAPPENINGS.

The Thanksgiving dinner given at the school house by the school was a great success. After a short program by the school and address by Rev. Johnston, the ladies spread a table with the best of the land and it is needless to say that everyone did full justice to all the good things. Everybody united in praise of the good cooking. After spending some time in social circle all departed for their homes feeling that they had had the time of their lives.
Mr. and Mrs. Grover Slate and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson went to Tule Lake hunting and returned with a large swan. Of course the ladies killed it.
Mr. Dalton's buccaroos brought up from the Clear Lake range 1300 head of young calves.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadley left Friday for Klamath Falls to be gone about a week. Ed. Hadley is here taking care of the children during their absence.
Herbert Anderson left for Santa Rosa, Calif., Saturday for a brief visit with friends.
E. C. Albin and Jack Anderson went to the railroad Saturday morning for Mr. Albin's household goods.
Horace Hickman accompanied by Miss Della Gerking visited her old home of six years ago Sunday afternoon.
Steve Stukel and Claude Ramsay brought up about 150 head of cattle for Mr. Tolle to feed during the winter.
Willie Graham left his team standing and while he was gone they became frightened at some loose horses and ran away but H. T. Anderson caught them before any damage was done. Tie the horses next time Will when you leave them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Worden and Mr. Cartright spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hobbs.
Last Tuesday the members of Gale Sunday school met at the home of R. C. Anderson to practice songs for Thanksgiving.
R. C. Anderson is busy taking the school census.
Rev. Johnson preached an able discourse at Gale Sunday at 2 p. m., and will hold services every two weeks hereafter.
Louis Tolle who is attending High school in the Falls spent Thanksgiving at the home of his parents at Gale.
Mont Robinson has returned to Merrill to make his future home. That's right Mont. Gale Valley is all right.
Mr. Callahan and Mr. Eoustrwright are busy plowing nowadays.
The government surveyors who are making the final survey of the ditch have reached Adams Point.

POKEGAMA NEWS.

Miss Marie Abbott is spending Thanksgiving week up at the home of her father, E. T. Abbott. She is a student at the Tacoma, Wash., High school.
Mr. Grant and bride of Los Angeles came up for a day to view the new mill in which he is interested. Chef Stough, of the dining hall, prepared an elaborate supper in honor of the occasion.
The mill ceased operations Nov. 25, owing to inclemency of the weather. The falling crew will probably work on through the winter.
The dance was enjoyed by a large attendance Thanksgiving eve, at the old dining hall. Mosier's orchestra furnished the music.
Quite a number of Pokegama's young people took advantage of the special train to attend the masked ball at Hornbrook on Thanksgiving night. Messrs. J. M. Berry, Tony and George Burgess, E. L. Coburn, Pete Furlan and Misses Amter, Stough and Johnson were among the merry making crowd.
The traveling state library is enjoying a good circulation.
Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Fennel and family were the guests of Supt. H. H. Edmonds Thanksgiving.

YONNA ITEMS.

It seems to be Harrison Gray's fate to have had luck lately. As he was returning from Dairy Thanksgiving, accompanied by Miss May Robinson, they drove off the bridge at Mrs. N. S. Drew's, the buggy overturning off the bridge into the ditch. As it was only about five feet from the bridge to the bottom of the ditch not much harm was done, except that Miss Robinson has a sprained wrist as a result of the accident, and the buggy had the double tree broken. They consider themselves fortunate under the circumstances that the accident was not more serious.
Quite a large number of their relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Beck Thanksgiving day to enjoy a fine Thanksgiving dinner and a pleasant time. After the dinner was over the children played games, all sang songs and listened to the music of the phonograph. All seemed to have an enjoyable time. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Beck's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Egert, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smyth, Mrs. Wm. Uhrmann, Chas. Sherman, Sr., Adam Weidman, Fred Beck, Misses Nellie Bliss, Louisa Egert and Mary Smythe, Henry Stanley, Willie Jonas, Frank, George and Earl Beck, and Orville Smyth.
Mike Doohier and Luke Walker stopped in Yonna on their return trip from the Falls. They will return to their camp near Mrs. L. M. Fitch's in the upper part of Yonna Valley, where they are at work classifying timber land for the county. They classify in three grades. The classification is to prevent the timber owners from paying as much taxes for poor timber claims as for good ones.
Mrs. F. M. Bennett and son Vestal who have been living at the Falls for some time, have come to Yonna to visit, and spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Sey Pool. Mrs. Bennett on her trip will also visit her sister, Mrs. Dan Driscoll of Bonanza.
Miss Nett Drew, who has recovered from her illness, will be taken to the Falls Saturday by her brother Jesse, and she will again resume teaching school.
Miss Emma Liskey and brother Dave from Swan Lake were in Yonna Friday. L. A. Sterzl accompanied them on their return to do some carpen work for Mrs. C. Liskey.

There was a holiday granted to this district Friday by the directors. Jacob Rueck, one of the directors, asked the school boys if they would rather have school or grub sagsbrush and clean the school grounds on Friday. They soon decided to do the latter and all hands were up instantly. Therefore Supt. Swan will find the grounds all cleaned when he comes to visit the Hildebrand school.
A large fat turkey was enjoyed at Mr. and Mrs. Vierra's home Thanksgiving. Those partaking of the fine dinner were Miss May Robinson, Master Ernest Nail, Messrs. James Wight, John Anderson and Will Loque.
The 5th and 6th grades entertained the school Wednesday afternoon by giving a splendid program, consisting of recitations, Thanksgiving songs, and play, "Little Red Riding Hood." This was a surprise to the teacher as well as pupils. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCumber, Mrs. Fred Beck and John Ritter.
Adam Weidman of this valley is selling turkeys at on-half cent per pound.
Mrs. Walter Campbell, of Lorella, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. N. S. Drew, of Yonna.
Those having the most perfect lessons as shown by the Star Board are: 1st grade Earl Beck, 2nd Clara Smyth, 4th Willie Beck, 5th Waive Drew, 7th Viola Pearson, 8th Ernest Nail.
Those on the Roll of Honor for the month ending November 29, 1908, were: Louisa Egert, Frank Beck, Carl Ritter, Henry Stanley, Joe Sterzl, Nellie Bliss, Clara Smyth, Lois Pool, Floyd Pool, Ernest Nail, Albert Beck, Louisa Flaekus, Irviline Smyth, Bertha Beck, Willie Beck, George Beck, Elizabeth Vierra, Mary Smyth, Waive Drew, Theresa Sterzl.
Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Kirkpatrick of Fort Klamath will spend the winter in Yonna Valley.
The rain which fell in this valley since the last time reported is .60 of an inch.
PLEVNA ITEMS.
We are expecting six more pupils soon. Mr. Cyr of Round Lake is contemplating moving into this district. He has three children of school age.
A. Brentner butchered hogs Thursday.
Ernest Boyd, of Merrill, was in this neighborhood Monday.
Mr. Creasy also has three children whom he expects to send.
The scarlet fever scare is quite general. Everyone is using disinfectants.
A. Brentner purchased a nice heifer calf of Capt. Lee.
Duck and goose shooting continues good in this section. It will be better as soon as the weather becomes colder.
Nearly all the farmers have finished their plowing.
The snow storm on Monday makes things look as if winter was here.
Leo Thompson one of our pupils has returned to his home near Lost River and will go to the school at Pine Grove.
G. F. Sevits took a load of wood to Klamath Falls Wednesday. He is getting $6 per cord for his wood.
J. H. Barnes went to the Falls on Wednesday bringing home his little girl who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Heavilin.
Mr. Byers butchered Wednesday.
Arthur Sevits attended the Keno school entertainment Wednesday night. He reports it a great success.
The thermometer stood at 10 deg. above zero here on Thanksgiving morning. Indications are for a severe winter.
Lloyd Alford came out from Klamath Falls Thursday with his father. Emery Sevits was absent from school Tuesday on account of illness.
E. Thompson just purchased a span of mares of Mr. Cyr.
Charlie Lewis, of Merrill, and Hiram Roberts and wife, of Poe Valley, all visited the Falls Saturday.
Miss Mattie Foster, daughter of S. Foster of Round Lake, is thinking of visiting her parent during the holidays. She is now attending the Ashland Normal.
Sarah Griffith, teacher of the Lone Pine school, was in Klamath Falls Saturday.
Mr. Witty, who has been visiting in this vicinity, has returned to his home in Santa Barbara, Calif.
Miss Lola Thompson, the teacher of Plevna school, visited with her father and sister Saturday and Sunday.
Clarice Bonner, Willie Barnes and Gertrude Thompson have been ill with chicken pox, but are now recovering.
Prof. J. G. Swan, our general superintendent, visited our school Thursday of last week. He gave us such an interesting and inspiring talk, that it made us wish to place our ideals higher and work harder to reach them. He also brought us a number of library books.
Our teacher just received word that one of her old friends in California, Mrs. G. K. Willard, her husband and two daughters were the victims of a bad accident. The four of them in an automobile were crossing a railroad track when the machine was struck by a train mangling the bodies so that they could hardly be recognized.
Jerome Ager, the 3 year old son of George Ager, was nearly burned to death by falling into a tub of hot water. Dr. Merryman was called at once and he says he thinks the little boy will recover.

POE VALLEY ITEMS.
Rev. Norridge preached at the school houses Sunday, Nov. 29, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. He will preach here again Dec. 6th.
Dick Ross and Fred Eglington went to Klamath Falls Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Evert Griffith passed through the valley Wednesday en route to H. Bussey's of Langell Valley to spend Thanksgiving.
Douglass Bussey went through the valley Wednesday. He had been to the Falls with a load of chickens and turkeys.
Frank Jobs went to Klamath Wednesday.
The farmers had to quit plowing as the ground is frozen.
Miss Zella Bussey spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Langell Valley.
Mrs. Hughes Ethel, Mary and Charley Hughes, Elmer Ellsworth and Mrs. Moore took Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore. Levi and Frank Griffith went to Klamath Falls Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor and children, of Olene, attended church here Sunday evening.
Mrs. Haynes and daughter, Mrs. Walter Purdy, of Merrill, visited at Mrs. Stephen Griffith's Friday. They were on their way to Langell Valley where they will visit a week with relatives.
Mr. Elder, the Lower Poe Valley school teacher, visited in the Falls Saturday.
Sarah E. Griffith and Chas. W. Lewis were united in marriage Saturday, Nov. 21, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Rev. J. B. Griffith. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Griffith. Their friends extend their congratulations.
TAG DAY RECEIPTS.
The public library received from the sale of tags last Friday evening and on Saturday $107.50.
Prizes according to the advertised offer were given to Miss Paye Hogue for largest sum from sales—over $20, and to Orthal Horton whose sales brought $7.20 to the library fund.
The Woman's Club wishes to thank all who helped make "Tag Day" the success it was. New books will probably be added to the public library with part of this money.

to visit
California

WHEN summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate.
California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied recreations.

The Southern Pacific Co.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write any S. P. Agent, or
