

YOUR LAST CHANCE

In about 10 days our building will be ready and we are going to move. We want to reduce our stock before that time, and to do so we will make sweeping reductions in prices in every department. Remember--Only about 10 days more.

The Boston Store

NEWS FROM DAIRY.

Mrs. L. M. Fitch was in Bonanza Sunday.

On account of the bad weather those staying out of school last Monday were: Frank Beck, Albert Beck, Willie Beck, Orville Smyth, Edward Flackus and Earl Beck.

Harrison Gray, accompanied by Miss May Robinson, spent last Sunday at Bonanza.

Emil Egert went to the Falls on a business trip Sunday.

L. A. Sterzl, of Yonna, went to the Falls on Monday to dispose of the rest of his turkeys.

Mrs. Chas. McCumber, of Yonna, was visiting at Dairy last Saturday.

Willie Clarke, who has been working on the Shook ranch, had a painful accident the other day. While shoeing a horse the horse fell down on his foot and sprained his knee. He is now staying with his sister, Mrs. Lily Flackus.

L. A. Sterzl butchered nine hogs last Saturday.

C. C. Pearson and Harrison Gray are at work hauling wood from the mountains for their winter's use.

Master Ernest Nall, of Hildebrand, has been helping at the Hildebrand road ranch during the enforced absence of Mr. Vierra at Sprague River.

Walter Simpson, of Dairy, who has recently rented a place in Yonna Valley, is beginning to buy live stock for the place.

Mrs. N. S. Drew went to Bonanza to take cream to the Bonanza Creamery and get things for Christmas.

Mannel Vierra and Jas. Wight, formerly County School Superintendent, came home from Sprague River last Monday evening. They found it a very cold and disagreeable trip and through bad luck were gone much longer than they had intended to be.

Chas. McCumber, who has been in the Falls attending Court, came home Monday evening.

Mrs. N. S. Drew and little daughter, Waive, will go to Olene to spend Xmas with Mrs. Drew's mother.

Fred Beck has been butchering hogs this week.

Miss Nettie R. Drew, who is teaching at the Falls, will be home in Yonna Valley during Christmas week.

Adam Weidman made a trip to Dairy Saturday.

C. C. Pearson and Walter Simpson helped Joe Welch raise his new barn last Saturday.

Sev Pool is working this week for Mrs. N. S. Drew.

On the evening of the 18th inst., a dancing party was given at the home of Mrs. L. M. Fitch. Those present were the Misses Nellie Bliss, Hazel Fitch, Louise Egert, Mary Smyth and Mrs. Fitch. Messrs. Johnnie Donnell, Jerry Pearson and Ernest Nall. They all enjoyed a very pleasant time and a good supper.

Walter Simpson made a business trip to Dairy last Friday.

John Lind, of Yonna, was a Dairy visitor Saturday.

Vernon Hastings, who has a place in Yonna, will go to his home near Portland and spend Christmas with his mother there.

N. P. Nelson and H. J. O'Brien were hauling wood last week for their winter's supply.

GALE HAPPENINGS.

The people of Gale met at the school house Tuesday evening to make arrangements for the Christmas tree.

Chas. Whitlatch, George Ward and Leo Todd brought us a nice Christmas tree from the mountains Tuesday.

We understand there was a birthday party at Mr. Van Meter's Sunday, but we did not learn the particulars.

Mr. Hadley is not afraid of a little snow, but is still hauling rock for the government.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson, Miss Clara Anderson and Mrs. J. H. Hobbs spent Tuesday with Mrs. Gertrude Caldwell in her new home on the bank of Lost River.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnston, of Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson, took dinner with Mr. Cortwright, of Gale, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson went to Klamath Falls Tuesday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Redfield, who were coming down on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Slate were at the home of C. J. Anderson, until their departure for Tangent, Oregon, Sunday.

Doris Deardorf, of Oakland, Ore., visited the home of J. H. Hobbs. Charley Anderson went to Klamath Falls Sunday to take Mr. and Mrs. Redfield and Mr. and Mrs. Slate. They are going to the Willamette Valley to spend the winter.

Miss Clara Anderson is the guest of Mrs. Eva Anderson, while Mr. Anderson is away on business.

A special school meeting was held at the Gale school Saturday to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by F. O. Pierce moving out of the district. Eugene Hammond was elected director.

Louis Tolle, of the Klamath Falls High School, is home on a visit to his parents during the holidays.

Lucy and Goldie Johnson were absent from school all last week on account of the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson and Miss Blanche Robinson were in Merrill trading Saturday.

Marion and Jake Whitlatch took a load of hogs to the Falls, Saturday, returning Sunday.

Clyde Van Meter, of Gale, went to Poe Valley Sunday to visit.

There is to be a Christmas tree at the Gale school Thursday evening. The program will be as follows:

Song, "Jingle Bells".....School.

Recitation, "Christmas Time"....

.....Dorothy Morgan

Recitation, "Christmas".....

.....Walter Tyler

Recitation, "Santa Claus".....

.....Paulina Giacomini

Recitation, "Little Miss Tidy"....

.....Mildred Morgan

Song, "Red Wing".....School

Recitation, "The Doll Mother's

Trouble".....Audrey Tolle

Instrumental Solo,.....

.....Mrs. M. Giacomini

Recitation, "The Bite".....

.....Hazel Hadley

Recitation, "Santa Claus".....

.....Willie Hammond

Recitation, "Gertrude Tolle

Song, "Little Snow Flakes".....

.....Eight Little Girls

Reading, "Some Other Birds are Taught to Fly".....Neva Whitlatch

Recitation, "The Empty Stockings"

.....Dannie Anderson

Recitation, "A Dear Little Schemer"

.....Alice Hadley

Recitation, "Two Sides".....

.....Esther Morgan

Dialogue, "Bridgett's Investment"

Characters.

Mrs. Morgan.....Neva Whitlatch

Bridgett.....Della Gerking

Boy selling stove polish.....

.....Dannie Anderson

Gentleman caller.....George Wooden

Agent selling tea.....Charles Whitlatch

The ladies of the Gale district met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hobbs last

Tuesday afternoon to make the candy sacks, string the popcorn, and make arrangements for decorating the tree in general.

MERRILL ITEMS.

Go to H. R. Anderson's for your Christmas presents.

A number of the Merrill children were sleighing last Friday. Clay Cann was the driver.

Albert Gifford and family have decided it was too cold in this country. They have gone to Riverside, California, where it never snows.

A party of girls and boys went over to White Lake for skating, but the skating was very poor there.

Frank Graybael is filling his ice house from the cut.

Mr. Clubine is putting up ice from the boat landing.

Mr. Meserly is getting his ice from the river.

A number of persons were on the river skating Sunday.

T. A. Ballis has returned from a trip to Alturas.

A number of the pupils of this school have been staying out on account of sickness.

Herbert and Pearl Lemorest are down from the Falls spending the holidays with relatives and friends.

Everyone is looking forward to that joyous time called Christmas.

Dr. J. D. Patterson has a large supply of Christmas toys.

For your Xmas dishes go to W. P. Whitneys or Martin Bros.

Robert Adams will be up from Santa Fe to spend his Xmas holidays.

KENO DOINGS.

H. L. Smith, S. Padgett and John Ackley are putting up ice.

Chas. Marsrow went to Blidell after a load of grain for W. H. Wall which he had shipped down from Klamath Falls on the boat.

O. F. North was down to Blidell Saturday.

F. T. Nelson was in Keno last week.

Madge McCormick suffered with a sick headache the first of the week.

Albert Traylor is still hauling hay for Ira Hanson to Blidell where the latter has sold it to the stage company.

Henry Straw visited in Keno the first of the week.

Conrad Madison went to Klamath Falls Monday accompanied by Lisle McCormick, who will return on the Canby.

Tom Wilson was absent from school Monday.

N. W. Deal has moved from his former residence in George Way's house to the J. L. Padgett place.

Harry Pearson is making some improvements on his home.

The Klamath River is nearly frozen over, which affords much pleasure to some of the Keno people in skating.

Mrs. Smith has received news that her father, Mr. Bristow, is not expected to live.

Tom Grubb transacted business in the Falls last week.

Pinley Padgett came over from the desert Sunday and is visiting relatives here. He returned the following day by way of Blidell where he got a load of freight which he took home with him to the "desert."

Mr. Snowgoose, the justice of the peace, and Conrad Madison transacted business at the McCullum ranch Sunday.

Marion and Elmer Gordon have finished hauling hay from the Joe Attey ranch.

Fannie Gordon was in Keno the latter part of last week.

The Bonita Grove school closed last week.

Miss Wood was in Keno Sunday.

Remember the Xmas tree at Keno Xmas eve.

J. Dalley, I. Thurman, T. Wolf and G. W. Grands attended our literary meeting last Saturday. Mr. Grands became a member of the society.

Leon Anderson was in Keno the first of the week.

John Ackley has been hauling lumber from Wise & Maxwell's mill.

Jack Frost and wife were guests of Miss Doten and attended our literary society last week.

Chas. Stindt went to the Falls Sunday, returning the following day.

Mrs. Chas. Snowgoose is confined to her bed with an attack of rheumatism.

Walter Anderson was in town Monday doing some Xmas shopping.

Chas. Marsrow is laid up with the rheumatism this week.

Chris Connolly was accidentally shot through the hand but is recovering nicely.

Miss Skeele, who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Smith, while she was climbing up the stairs slipped and fell down several steps. It is thought that one of her ribs may be fractured.

WAMPUS NEWS.

Leon Anderson went to Dorris on Monday.

Mr. Bowers has been up from San Francisco inspecting the Southern Pacific grade in this section.

Mr. O'Hara went duck hunting Monday.

Walter Anderson, who has been working for Mr. Chase at Beswick, returned to his home Sunday evening.

Roy Connolly made a flying trip to Keno Sunday evening.

Leon Anderson and little daughter, Esther, visited Klamath Falls Saturday and returned to their home Sunday.

Misses Mona and Bertha Spencer went to Keno Saturday to take a music lesson. Mona's horse fell with her but no serious results occurred.

The vast scale of operations at Panama is shown by the fact that during the fiscal year ended June 30, the value of material received by the Division of Materials and Supplies was over eleven and a half million dollars; and the value of material disbursed exceeded that sum by seventy-eight thousand dollars.

The Right Kind of a Christmas Present

A Bank Account for Your Children

Let us start one for them
It costs you nothing

See announcement on page one of this issue