The Mutual Benefit Club gave a program Friday, January 8, in the Houston Opera House. It was not largely attended on account of sickness and bad weather. The following was the program rendered:

Male Quartet.

Reading Mrs. Parrish Solo Mrs. Johnston

Lecture—"Macbeth" Rev. Johnston.

All the numbers were good. Beulah Rhodes was unable to perform her part on account of sickness and Mrs. J. G. Patterson was also unable to do her part on account of the sad news being received of the death of her brother.

We take note of the fact that our old friends, Ernest Taylor and Miss Eva Fogle, are married.

More sidewalks are being laid in Merrill. W. P. Barrows is the contractor.

Mrs. Ben Graham and son left Wednesday for Montana on a visit. Tom Offield has left for Lower California.

Elmer Carr has been quite ill for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Bert Davis is very ill with typhoid fever. We hope for her early recovery.

Lewis Gerber's bungalow is finished and is furnished with Rhodes' best.

T. M. Durham, the city marshal, has been busy opening up drains to carry off the surplus water from the streets.
