YONNA ITEMS.

Sey Pool and A. L. Michael went to the Falls last week to bring out some freight for W. P. Sedgwick, the merchant of Dairy.

There was a small crowd met at the home of John Donnell last Friday evening. They spent the evening in dancing and all present seemed to enjoy themselves. The music was furnished by S. Harris. A basket supper was one of the pleasant features of the evening. Those attending the dance were: Misses Anna, Mary and Clara Smyth, Rosa Beck, Hazel Fitch, Louise Egert, Messrs. Geo. Smyth, Jesse Drew, John Donnell, John Ritter, Henry Stanley, Orville Smyth and Frank Beck.

Harrison Gray, accompanied by Miss May Robinson, went to Dairy Sunday.

Mr. Copperfield, of Yamnax made a business trip to Godfrey Beck's last week to get a load of oats.

The children of Yonna Valley think they have a good joke on Mr. Hoppe, of North Yonna, who set out a trap last week. When he went to visit the trap he found he had caught a wildcat, which, as soon as it saw him, started off taking the trap with him. We think Mr. Hoppe would be very grateful to the wildcat if it would bring back the trap.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Stoeshler and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Flackus and children, of Yonna, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rueck near Bonanza last Sunday.

Carl Adams, of Upper Yonna was in Dairy Sunday.

Godfrey Beck hauled a load of wood from Mr. Hoppe's place in the mountains, last Saturday.

A large Holstein bull belonging to Jacob Rueck, died last Sunday. He bought it at Fort Klamath about two years ago for $115.

While Collister Gray, of Fort Klamath, is in Yonna visiting his mother, his cousin, Bert Gray, is feeding cattle for him. Bert used to be a Hildebrand school boy and it may interest his old friends to know that he is now six feet one inch tall, and weighs 180 pounds. Colly thinks he is just the right size to feed cattle.

James Copperfield had the misfortune to break his leg last week by dropping an iron adz on it.

C. E. Drew returned from the Reservation last Sunday, where he has been since Thursday on business.

Mr. Miller, who has taken up a homestead near Godfrey Beck's, of North Yonna, is now improving it by grubbing off the sagebrush. He has also sunk a well on it.

Carl Adams, of North Yonna, is ill with the measles.

Mrs. Fred Beck is visiting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Flackus this week.

Mrs. W. H. Bliss was visiting at Mrs. Sey Pool's, of Yonna, this week.

Mrs. Chas. E. Drew entertained at her home last Sunday. An excellent dinner was enjoyed by Mrs. N. S. Drew and daughter Waive, Miss May Robinson and Harrison Gray. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Drew's birthday, which occurred on Saturday.

Wm. Clark and Theo. Flackus were at work cutting wood near the Hildebrand school last week.

Fred Beck is hauling out hay from Godfrey Beck's ranch with which to feed his stock.

Mrs. D. Y. Gray, of Yonna, who has been ill for several weeks, is still in a critical condition. Dr. Truax, of Bonanza, was called Saturday, but she is not improving as all would wish. The doctors think it may be cancer of the stomach which is troubling her. Her son, Colly Gray, of Fort Klamath, was sent for Saturday and arrived Sunday evening, making the trip on horseback in one day.

Joe Coburn, of the Reservation, was in Yonna on his way to Dairy, returning home Sunday.

Geo. Smyth has been hauling hay from Mrs. Della Colahan's place, to feed his cattle.

J. F. Wallis and John Logue went to the Falls Sunday on business.

Claude Clifton went to the Reservation Monday to ride after cattle for Chas. Horton.

The flue of Jacob Rueck's house caught fire on a windy night last week and burned out, but there was no damage done to the house.

Fred Beck is improving his place by building a new fence. Willie Jonas is helping him.

John Anderson and Manuel Vierra have gone to the Reservation to feed cattle belonging to J. G. Wight and Mr. Vierra. Miss Nellie Bliss will stay with Mrs. Vierra during their absence.

Ludwig Sterzl, of Yonna, has purchased $69 worth of trees from Mr. Bensinger, who is the agent for the Oregon Nursery Co. He evidently thinks fruit can be grown with success in Yonna Valley.

S. Harris, of North Yonna, was in Dairy Monday.

Jack Horton made a business trip to the Reservation last Sunday.

Miss Lola Pool, of Yonna, who is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. R. C. Cowley, of Langell Valley, was taken sick with the measles while there.

Wm. Uhrmann made a business trip to Swan Lake Monday.

Jacob Rueck has been on the sick list with a severe cold this last week.

Mr. Pricon and family, who has been staying at Chas. Liskey's of Swan Lake, have now returned to Yonna and are staying with Mr. Brooks.

EIGHTS JURORS; FIVE HUNDRED VENIREMEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 2.—The trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United railroads, accused of offering a bribe to the hoodling board of supervisors, entered upon its fourth week yesterday morning with eight jurors temporarily selected.

Five hundred veniremen have been examined. The prosecution has five preemptory challenges left and the defense still retains 10. At the rate the trial has been progressing it is doubtful if a complete jury will be sworn in inside of 10 weeks. It is also probable that 1500 veniremen may have to be examined before the actual taking of evidence begins.

Recently the public parks of Portland and Tacoma, and the residents of Seattle donated 25,000 geranium plants to be used in beautifying the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition this year.
