YONNA ITEMS.

Mr. Vierra, who owns the old Hildebrand ranch, is planning to raise some tule hay this year. He has been running water into several depressions where the tule hay will grow if enough water is used.

Last Thursday Mrs. W. H. Bliss made a trip to Emil Egert's place, where she remained all night. She stopped at Godfrey Beck's on her return. She was trying to dispose of some cattle.

Otto Hoppe made a business trip to Dairy last Wednesday, on his return going home with Mr. Ketchum.

Tom Stanley began plowing on the Bennett place, which he has rented, last week.

Harrison Gray was busy last week making posts for Jesse Drew.

Mrs. P. H. Gray went to Bonanza Tuesday, where she is visiting with Mrs. Bassett of that place.

Scy Pool and Perry Randalls made a trip to D. Y. Gray's last Saturday to get a horse which Mr. Pool had bought from Harrison Gray.

Jeff Kirkpatrick returned to Lost River last week, taking with him supplies to last while he is trapping there.

Miss Louise Egert made a trip through Hildebrand to Dairy Sunday. She was horseback and we think her quite courageous to come so far through the snow and over such bad roads.

Earl Gray and R. Ward made a business trip to C. E. Drew's last Saturday to get a horse which P. H. Gray had traded for.

All day Saturday there was a heavy snow storm and at times nearly a blizzard. The roads continue to get worse, although there is yet a good deal of travel over them.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the Hildebrand school last month were: Elizabeth Vierra, Carl Ritter, Carl Rueck, Henry Stanley, Louise Flackus, Clara Smyth, Orville Smyth, and Mary Smyth. Those having the most perfect lessons were: 1st grade, Ora Allred, 3rd Clara Smyth, 4th Willie Beck, 5th Hazel Fitch, 7th Nellie Bliss and Mary Smyth a tie, 8th Ernest Nall. The last two days of the sixth month of school for this year were spent in the regular examinations. The highest per cent in average being made by Ernest Nall of the 8th grade, his average was 94 1-5 per cent. Last month the teacher finished reading "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and is now reading "The Red Mustang."

Wm. Uhrmann returned from the Falls Friday evening, bringing back with him some freight for W. P. Sedge, the merchant of Dairy. Mr. Uhrmann reports the roads in a very bad condition.

Chas. Carlson, who has the contract to carry the mail from Dairy to Yonna, is making use of the new snow by going back and forth in a sleigh. J. H. O'Brien and Theo. Flackus, of South Yonna, have been busy the past few days breaking horses.

John Anderson went to Dairy on business Sunday, going from there to the Horton ranch after a horse.

A large pond in East Yonna has been overflowing across the road and making it very miry. It has also been overflowing on some of Jacob Rueck's land which he has sown to rye. As this is the wrong time of year for irrigation, we are afraid it will not benefit the crop.

The woods near Hildebrand rang with music one evening last week, when Scy Pool, Perry Randalls, Jerry Pearson and Harrison Gray all met at D. Y. Gray's and spent the evening in solos and quartets on the violin, sornet and guitar.

Chas. Woelk has moved with his family from their homestead in North Yonna to their home near Dairy.

Scy and Dock Pool were busy hauling hay last Sunday from the homestead to their home ranch. On account of the bad roads they had four horses to draw the load.

The picture given by the teacher to the grade having the most pupils on the Roll of Honor this month, was won by the 5th grade.

Jesse and Waive Drew and Harrison Gray took dinner and spent the afternoon with C. E. Drew's family last Sunday.

Emil Egert went to the Falls Monday taking with him some meat which he intends to dispose of there.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Reynolds and Miss Hazel Fitch made a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Hammersley, of North Yonna, Sunday.

J. P. Colahan went to the Falls last week to be a witness in the Liskey case.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rueck and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sterzl last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gray, of Dairy, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Brien last Sunday.

John Lind was a Dairy visitor last week.

C. E. Drew made a business trip to Dairy Wednesday.

Jas. Wight is intending to take his cattle to Swan Lake soon where he has hay on the Connor place there.

Mrs. Chas. Woelk, of North Yonna, is reported ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smyth and Anna Smyth, and Mrs. W. H. Bliss went to Dairy Saturday, to attend the funeral of Thos. Michael's mother.

Chas. Faith, of Bonanza, is now employed at Mr. Bassett's, who has a lively stable at Bonanza, which he recently purchased.

John Ritter, who has been hauling hay from the Paxton place in Upper Yonna, has been having considerable trouble to keep from miring down with the loads.

Perry Reynolds made a trip to John Donnell's place last week to measure his hay for him.

Miss Mary Smyth, of Hildebrand, made a visit to Tom Michael's place in Dairy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Welch and family were in Dairy last Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Bennett, who until a year ago lived in Yonna, but is now living at the Falls, has gone to California on a visit and also on account of her health.

Miss Louise Flackus, of Hildebrand, was visiting with her uncle, Emil Flackus, last Sunday.

Wm. Welch was in Dairy Sunday.

Geo. Ritter has returned from the Falls where he has been a witness in the Liskey case, but he will be required to go back again in a few days.

L. A. Sterzl has been hauling stringers for the road supervisor, Wm. Uhrmann, who intends to use them for a new bridge on the county road.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Stoehsler and children, and Gilbert Anderson, of Dairy, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rueck.

John Donnell has been helping Theo. Hammersley make improvements on the latter's house.

Master Ernest Nall was in Dairy Sunday.

J. H. O'Brien made a business trip to Bonanza Saturday.

John Donnell made a trip to Mrs. L. M. Fitch's place in North Yonna to get a horse which he has had pastured there.

John Lind was in Dairy Saturday on business.

W. P. Sedge, of Dairy, is having an addition built on the west side of his store.

We saw the cupboard pass the house and heard about the stove and cooking utensils, and now we would like to know what it all means, Jesse?

Wm. Wight was in Dairy Sunday.

By present indications the wells in Yonna will not be so short of water next year, as we have already had as much rainfall since the first of the year as fell altogether last year.

Several of the Vinson horses have been hanging around the ranches in this vicinity lately. We think it is a shame they are not being fed and taken care of this cold weather.

Mr. Shook was in Dairy Saturday. We had eight inches of snow in Yonna Valley Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCumber were visitors to Dairy one day last week.

The hens of Yonna Valley are doing well this month and as eggs are selling at a good price, it is a more profitable business than it was for a while.

Henry Stanley visited with Carl Ritter last Saturday.

Wm. Flackus made a trip over to Mr. Struble's place in Swan Lake Feb. 21, finding him in a very bad condition, worse than he has been for years. He is to be taken to a hospital and cared for. He has a ranch and a few head of stock, and during his absence some one will be appointed to take care of his property. He will probably leave in about a month.

Godfrey and Fred Beck's and C. C. Pearson's children are now staying out of school on account of the bad roads, but there is still a large attendance.

David Bliss, who graduated from the Hildebrand school last May and is now going to high school in Medford, writes that they are having pretty fair weather over there. He says they have now moved into the new high school building and he passed the first half year's work with an average of 88 per cent.

Miss Rosa Beck, who was subpoenaed on the Liskey trial, returned to her home in Yonna Monday.

She reports the roads as being in a very bad condition, the stage breaking down before they had reached Dairy, and the stage driver was compelled to go back to one of the ranches and get a buckboard in which to continue the journey. They did not reach Dairy until 3 p. m.

Geo. Smyth and daughter, Anna, left for the Falls Monday as witnesses in the Alf. Wallis trial. Mr. Wallis and Mrs. Alf. Wallis accompanied them.

Perry Randalls will start for Medford Sunday. Mrs. Randalls will go later, remaining for the present at the home of Mrs. Manuel Vierra.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Michael, of Dairy, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smyth Monday and Tuesday.

Manuel Vierra is moving the windmill he recently bought from W. H. Bliss to his place. Perry Randalls, John Anderson, Scy Pool, W. H. Bliss, Godfrey Beck and Wm. Flackus are assisting him.

Mrs. Thos. Michael passed away at her daughter's home in Swan Lake last Thursday night, February 18. She had had the gripe a short time before but had seemingly recovered, but was found dead in bed by her daughter Friday morning. The funeral was held at the home of A. L. Michael in Dairy Saturday and burial was made Sunday in the Bonanza cemetery. She leaves to mourn her demise three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Tom Patterson, of Swan Lake, Mrs. Wm. Thompson, of Edgewood, Mrs. Taylor Wilson, of Olene, A. L. Michael, of Dairy, and Tom Michael, of Dairy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Gray and son, Harrison, made a trip to Dairy Monday. We are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Gray up again after their recent illnesses.

Jacob Rueck went to the Falls last Tuesday to attend the meeting of directors of the Water Users. He was compelled to go horseback on account of the roads.

Ludwig Sterzl and Chas. Woelk went up to the latter's homestead last week to saw wood.

Fred Beck and sons, Frank and Albert, and Willie Jonas are busy working on their tree culture. While the roads are so bad the boys cannot come to school.

Master Orville Smyth will be compelled to stay at home from school during his father's absence at Court.

Miss Anna and Mary Smyth visited with their cousin, Mrs. Alf. Wallis, of East Yonna, last Sunday.

Judge Geo. T. Baldwin returned last Sunday from Portland where he has been for several months. The Judge has been laid up with rheumatism and at one time was on the verge of pneumonia. While he has not completely recovered he is greatly improved. He was at Salem before and during the passage of the Crater Lake bill and did some good work there for the bill. He states that it was a hard fight, but they finally succeeded in getting the chairman of the senate ways and means committee, who was opposed to the bill at first, not only to have the committee report favorably, but the chairman personally took the floor in its support.

GALE HAPPENINGS.

Mrs. J. D. Morgan and daughter, Mildred, went to Sand Hollow Monday to visit Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Mayme Jones, of Chico, arrived last Thursday for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Albin.

Mrs. Lloyd Brownell, of Klamath Falls, is the guest of Mrs. C. J. Anderson.

Eugene Hammond is hauling hay from his ranch on the south side of Lost River.

The bridge across Lost River at Dan Colwell's has been condemned. This is very inconvenient for the ranchers on the south side of the river.

The church at Gale was largely attended Sunday. Rev. Johnston, of Merrill preached at Gale every other Sunday.

J. D. Morgan is hauling hay from the Davis ranch.

R. S. Wooden purchased a horse last week for his spring work. Mr. Wooden is a rasher.

Mrs. W. H. Hadley is quite sick with a severe cold and sore throat. Charles Whitlatch and Dell Gerking are out of school on account of the measles.

R. C. Anderson and W. H. Hadley are breaking sagebrush and starting spring work.

Those attending the Firemen's Ball at Merrill Monday night from Gale were: Misses Della Gerking, Neva Whitlatch, Blanche Robinson, Mrs. C. J. Anderson, Mrs. Lloyd Brownell, Messrs. Lee Thomas, Chas. Whitlatch, Howard O'Connor, Horace Hickman, C. J. Anderson and Jesse Johnson.

Oran Ward returned home Monday from Reno, Nevada, where he has been at work for some time.

Mrs. J. D. Morgan and Miss Blanche Robinson were in Merrill trading on Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Hobbs gave a supper to a number of her friends Saturday evening. The guests arrived before six, and after a delicious supper passed the remainder of the evening playing 500. Those present were: Mrs. Trask, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. M. Giacomini, Miss Ella Callahan, Miss Blanche Robinson, Misses Pauline and Mamie Giacomini, John Callahan, Jack Anderson, Dannie Anderson, Willie Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hobbs.

Mrs. Rosa Trask, of Whitelake, was the guest of Mrs. R. C. Anderson over Sunday.
