

LISKEY FOUND GUILTY.

defendant, gave evidence that he was at the home of his mother on December 13, 1908, and that the defendant was there on that day. He had been sick, but was improving. He went to his home at about noon on December 14, and went to the show at Dairy that night.

Bird Loosley, of Olene, testified that certain members of the Liskey family had come to his ranch to get some stock on or about the 13th of December; that August had helped drive the cattle to his mother's ranch.

Mrs. Caroline Liskey, the aged mother of the defendant, took the stand and in broken English told of her son's illness at her home, corroborating the testimony of the witness Emma Liskey. The prosecution did not cross examine her, merely asking if she was the mother of the defendant.

Fred Harpold, of Bonanza, testified that he attended a show at Dairy on or about December 14, 1908, and that he saw Chas. Liskey there.

Ben. H. Pickett, of Tule Lake, testified that he met Chas. Liskey on December 6, near his home near Dairy.

J. F. Wallis, the father of Alf. Wallis, one of the defendants in the stock rustling case, gave evidence in regard to the corralling of horses at the Alf. Wallis ranch, where he lives with his son. He corroborated the evidence of the other witnesses for the defense. He stated that Walter Welch was at the Wallis ranch on December 6th and that Chas. Liskey was there on the same day, but they did not leave together. Chas. Liskey left there saying that he was going home.

Dan Liskey, a brother of the defendant, corroborated the evidence of August Liskey in regard to getting cattle from the Loosley place and taking them to the Liskey home in Swan Lake. He claimed that he wore the defendant's "chaps" while he was driving the cattle mentioned.

John Liskey, another of the defendant's brothers, gave evidence that he lives with his mother in Swan Lake; that he has a yellow mackinaw coat which Deputy Sheriff Sam Walker took from him and brought to this city. He corroborated the evidence of the other members of the Liskey family and in numerous instances contradicted the evidence of witnesses for the prosecution. He went into detail about the matter of Walter Welch's escape from the Liskey ranch, but his testimony was contradictory to that of Welch and others of the State's witnesses who touched upon this subject.

Mrs. Martha Wallis, the wife of Alf. Wallis, one of the men charged with horse stealing, gave testimony in regard to the corral near the Wallis house; that there were no horses there on December 9th; that she, her husband and the parents of Alf. Wallis were at home all day December 9th; that she has no knowledge of any horses being brought to the Wallis ranch about that time.

At the conclusion of the cross examination of Mrs. Wallis the defense rested.

Pat Callahan was placed on the stand by the prosecution in rebuttal and testified that on January 20, 1909, in this city, in the R. M. Sarter pool hall, John Liskey told him about having tried to induce Welch to escape when he was at the Liskey ranch in custody of Deputy Sheriff Shook and Walker.

Witness Callahan corroborated the confession of Welch in regard to this matter.

Mrs. Arthur Pierson was called and testified that Chas. Liskey came to his ranch on December 14th; that he rode in on a bay horse; that he said he had been on a long ride; that he appeared to be in the best of health; that his horse looked sore.

After the testimony of Mrs. Pierson the State announced that this concluded its case.

There was not a vacant seat in the court room all day Saturday and part of the time it was impossible for many of the spectators to get to the top of the stairway. Men from all parts of the county were in attendance, all showing deep interest in the outcome of the trial of Chas. Liskey, whose fate now rests with twelve Klamath County residents.

During the arguments by the attorneys silence reigned in the room and every one of the many spectators and interested parties seemed to be anxious to catch every word uttered by counsel for both the state and the prosecution. Long before the morning session began a crowd gathered at the court house and at 9 o'clock, when Prosecuting Attorney Kuykendall began the opening argument for the state there was not a vacant seat in the room. Mr. Kuykendall consumed about an hour and a half in presenting the state's case. He went over all the evidence, connecting one link with another. During the entire time that he was talking he held the closest attention of the jury as well as all of the spectators.

Attorney Mills for the defense, after a brief intermission, began his argument which he concluded after taking more than two and one-half hours. He went over the evidence in a thorough manner and made an able plea. He strongly denounced the witness Welch and laid particular stress upon the fact that the defense had introduced uncontradicted evidence showing conclusively that Chas. Liskey was at the home of his mother at the time that Welch and his assistant drove the horses in question out of the country.

It was noticeable that the argument of Attorney Mills was impressing the jurors, all of whom gave the closest possible attention to his review of the evidence. His argument was to the effect that Liskey was not the man who accompanied Welch to Mt. Hebron and also that the state had failed to support the testimony of Welch, upon whose evidence alone it would be impossible to convict the defendant.

At the conclusion of the argument by the counsel for the defense a recess was declared by the Court for twenty minutes, at the conclusion of which Judge Thos. Drake began his argument for the state.

During the entire day the mother of the defendant sat by his side and both appeared to be confident that the outcome would be favorable to them. All of the other members of the Liskey family were in the court room and gave the closest attention to the proceedings. Walter Welch, whose confession implicated Liskey in the stock rustling and without whose evidence the state had no case attended the sessions of the Court during the day and manifested deep concern in the arguments by the attorneys.

Liskey maintained a nonchalant air during the entire day the same as he has done since the beginning of the case. If he feels that the verdict is apt to be adverse to him he has not shown it in his demeanor while the trial has been in progress. He seems to feel that the ultimate outcome will restore to him his liberty and exonerate him from the onerous crime with which he is charged.

When Judge Drake began his argument the crowd was larger than at any time since Welch took the stand and made his confession. The standing room was all utilized and dozens of spectators were forced to leave without gaining entrance to the court room. Mr. Drake made a thorough review of the case, going over all of the evidence and indulging in many flights of wit and sarcasm. His address lasted through nearly two hours during which time he held the attention of the jurors who followed him closely as he went from one bit of testimony to another, weaving a net of guilt and at the same time unraveling the alibi of the defense.

Druggists Hear Much Praise
For a Simple Home-Made Mixture

Some remarkable stories are being circulated about town and among the country people coming in of this simple home-made mixture curing Rheumatism and Kidney trouble. Here is the recipe and directions for taking: Mix by shaking well in a bottle one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take as a dose one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. No change need be made in your usual diet, but drink plenty of good water. This mixture has a peculiar tonic effect upon the kidneys; cleansing the clogged up pores of the eliminative tissues, forcing the kidneys to sift and strain from the blood the uric acid and other poisonous waste matter overcoming Rheumatism, Bladder and Urinary troubles in a short while.

A druggist here who has had hundreds of calls for these ingredients since the first announcement in the newspapers last October stated that the people who once try it "swear by it," especially those who have Urinary and Kidney trouble and suffer with Rheumatism.

All the druggists in this neighborhood say they can supply the ingredients, which are easily mixed at home. There is said to be no better blood-cleansing agent or system tonic known, and certainly none more harmless or simple to use.

MUST RETURN BY MARCH 15.

The sixty days leave of absence of Mayor Stilts was up on Monday, and the opinion of the City Attorney was asked in regard to whether the Council could extend the time. Mr. Benson stated that the Council had no voice in the matter. The charter provides that an officer being absent from the city for thirty days, his office shall become vacant, but the Council could grant a leave of absence not to exceed sixty days. Mr. Benson stated that he had not looked into the matter but that it was his opinion that the office would not become vacant until the additional thirty days had expired, at least he believed that it would be safe for the Council to accept that view of the matter. At the expiration of the thirty days, however, the office would become vacant without any action on the part of the Council.

In this case Mayor Stilts will have to be in Klamath Falls before the fifteenth of March in order to hold his position. Mr. Stilts expects to attend the inauguration of W. H. Taft as President on March 4. This will give him ten days to return home, which will be plenty of time.

DISTRESS FROM UPSET STOMACH

Also Misery From Indigestion Vanishes Five Minutes Later

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your stomach misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring. The digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.
