REV. R. C. RAMSBY.

The following is an editorial in the Oregonian on the death of Rev. R. C. Ramsby, father of E. B. Ramsby of this city:

"With the death of Rev. R. C. Ramsby at his home in this city Monday passed a man who for half of a life-time, covering a period of four-score and six years, was a prominent figure and factor in the religio-political circles of the state. A Methodist minister by profession, a politician of sturdy aggressiveness by occupation for many years, a temperance advocate of unyielding purpose, an example of domestic faithfulness, and withal a kind neighbor and friend, Mr. Ramsby was well and widely known and greatly respected. He was the friend and coadjutor of the late William R. Dunbar, when the latter was the head of the Good Templars' organization in Oregon, and materially assisted in the work of that order. All of this sounds like ancient history, the last line of practically the last chapter of which appears in the announcement of the death of R. C. Ramsby and his association with the work of an almost forgotten temperance organization, to which, thirty or thirty-five years ago, a large proportion of the young men and maidens of the state, as well as middle-aged men and women, were members."

H. L. Holgate, Jas. Driscoll and Mayor Parsons of Bonanza came down to attend the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and also the reception given to the new members by the Antler's Club.

EAT SAUSAGES AND NEW BREAD

Or Any Other Favorite Food Without Fear of an Upset Stomach

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapepsin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. I digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

MURPHY ENTERTAINED.

Wednesday evening the people of the Upper Klamath Project tendered a reception at Bonanza to retiring Project Engineer D. W. Murphy and his successor, W. W. Patch. The ladies of the Bonanza Magazine Club had charge of the function, and the reception was a most pleasant and successful affair, although undertaken on short notice. A brief musical program and display of cartoons prepared by Miss Harpold was followed by a banquet, where a number of toasts were responded to by Messrs. Murphy and Patch, Directors Dalton and Rueck and a number of local citizens, H. L. Holgate acting as toastmaster.

The people of the Upper Project have always manifested a friendly feeling for Mr. Murphy and will cooperate as readily with his successor. As a small token of their esteem, they presented Mr. Murphy with an Indian basket, one that is regarded as one of the finest specimens of the basket work of the Klamath Indians. Mr. Murphy said that he always had enjoyed visiting the Upper Project, for the people took pains to make things pleasant for him and certainly knew how to do it.

C. N. Hawkins, W. K. Brown and B. F. Gould arrived Friday evening from Hollister, California, to attend a meeting of the directors of the Klamath Falls Land & Transportation Company. Plans are to be arranged for the improvement of the street car system and the Buena Vista addition.
