BUYS TWO HUNDRED ACRES.

One of the largest individual sales of farming lands made here recently was consummated Monday, when P. E. Hannon of Moscow, New York purchased from the Klamath Development Company, through its representative, D. B. Campbell, two hundred acres adjoining what is generally known as the Pointer place. The land is located about three and one-half miles from the city and is considered as being among the very best land in the valley. The parties interested declined to state what price was paid, but it is understood it was in the neighborhood of $36, which is an extremely low price for land of this quality and location.
