DISCOVERY COMES LITTLE TOO LATE FOR KLAMATH

If a recent discovery by Prof. E. J. Voyle, a chemist of Berkeley, possesses the virtues claimed for it, corn juice devotees and celebrators of Saturday night may soon enjoy their revels without reservation or disturbing thought of a dark brown morning after. Voyle claims the "headache" of booze is contained in the cyanide of its composition, and not in the alcohol. By extracting the cyanide the exhilarating effects of the evening's libations may be retained with no fear of later complications. The chemist predicts his discovery will work a revolution in distilling processes.

According to the report of the examiner at Pokegama, only one out of five applicants passed the eighth grade examination. Miss Ruth E. Griffith was the successful candidate for the High School grade.

1000 FARMS AVAILABLE.

Land in Spokane and Coeur d'Alene Reserves Worth $100 an Acre.

The Coeur d'Alene Reservation, 18 miles southeast of Spokane, opened by the proclamation just issued by President Taft, includes some of the finest farm lands in Idaho, parts of it being now valued at $100 per acre. While the Coeur d'Alene Indians, an industrious, progressive people, will hold nearly all of the best land, it is estimated that there will be about 1000 good farms for white settlers. Some valuable timber land is found on the reserve. The Spokane reserve, 22 miles northwest of this city, is smaller, but has room for a few white settlers after the Spokane Indians lands are occupied. It is believed to contain valuable mineral deposits.

J. W. Wells of Bly has been in the city since Saturday.

PORTLAND TAKES NOTICE.

(Oregonian)

The first train into Klamath Falls has come and gone, and now Klamath Falls is devoting all its energies to a day of rejoicing over the advent of the steel steed. "Railroad Day" has been set for June 14th, and Klamath Falls intends to show the world the resources that the city can put forth.

One of the most significant things about the day has been the eagerness with which the idea has been taken up by both Sacramento and San Francisco, both of which cities are sending special excursions of business men. Sacramento jobbers will be there in force, and a strong endeavor will be made to attract business to Sacramento that has previously, by reason of personal preference, come to Portland.

There has been some talk of the business men of Portland making a special excursion to Klamath Falls. The railroad company will provide special excursions, and once at Klamath there will be entertainment diverse enough to meet the most fastidious taste.

There will be a historical parade with Indians in warpaint, cowboys, pack train and freighters. There will be the old-fashioned stage coach and modern auto stage in the parade to illustrate the progress of the West.

In order not to clash with the Rose Festival, the date of Railroad Day was changed to June 14th from the earlier date at first arranged. Klamath is called "the land where things grow," and it is in the hope that Portland citizens will respond that Klamath is inviting every Portland man to see the city and the land tributary to it. With the advent of the railroad, Klamath is bound to make a rapid growth and it is believed that unless Portland men show their interest in the growth and opportunities of the city, the trade will go to California. At any rate, Californians are making great efforts to get the business.

BONANZA BULLETIN ITEMS.

Last Saturday while Eugene Wilkerson was riding a wild horse, the animal reared up and fell backward, catching the rider underneath and hurting him very badly. The horn of the saddle struck Mr. Wilkerson in the pit of the stomach, and it was thought at first he was seriously injured, but at present he is getting along as well as could be expected. At present he suffers considerable pain, but it is thought that he will be all right in a short time.

It is understood that evidence sufficient to convict will be presented to the June Grand Jury against a local violator of the liquor laws. Besides the charge of violating the local option law, there will be also a charge of selling whiskey to minors, and probably a case for the Federal authorities as to selling whiskey to Indians. The facts are notorious and the case has been watched for some time. As the Grand Jury meets shortly it is thought advisable to await its action.

Now that the spring weather appears to be over, the Bonanza Valley's Commercial Club is preparing to attract settlers to this section of Klamath county. We have thousands of acres of surplus land of fine soil that lies under the Clear Lake Irrigation System, that can be purchased at comparatively low prices, ranging from $12.50 to $25 an acre, depending upon improvements and nearness to market. Most people who visit this section, who really want to buy and who know what they want, find attractive propositions here. Very few leave without purchasing. It is a simply a matter of getting people to look over the valleys.

TWO BUFFALOES FOR ROOSEVELT PARTY

NAIROBI (E. E. A.) May 21.—Theodore Roosevelt and his son, Kermit, are continuing their hunting excursions from their camps on the Heatley ranch on the Nairobi Rivers. Two bull buffaloes have fallen before their guns, one, the bigger of the two, was brought down by Roosevelt alone, while the other was bagged by Roosevelt and Kermit together.

MORE LAND RESTORED.

Secretary Ballinger has announced a vacation order of withdrawal of 18,000 acres of land in connection with the Pitt river project in the Lakeview land district and its restoration to settlers after August 16. Also the restoration of 25,000 acres of the same project in the Susanville, California, land district.

N. C. Seargeant arrived in the city on Sunday from Phoenix, Arizona. Mr. Seargeant will engage in the abstract business here with his cousin, H. F. Shepherd, of this city.

BIG FORCE AT WORK.

The employment of a few hundred additional workmen in Klamath Falls does not cause the stir that it did a few years ago. The city seems to be getting so large that a few hundred people more or less does not attract attention. When Chief Construction Engineer Hoey of the Southern Pacific brought in over two hundred men a few days since to work on the depot grounds it apparently caused very little comment, where a few years ago the town would have been all excitement over the event. This incident simply demonstrates the growth of Klamath Falls. Very few of the citizens realize the immense amount of improvement going on in this city and the number of men actually being employed.

Mr. Hoey now has 200 men, 150 of which are working close to the city. Erickson & Peterson, the railroad contractors, employ at the present time 175 men, and their crew is smaller now than it has been. The Hot Springs Improvement Company has about fifteen men and several teams macadamizing Spring street, which runs to the depot grounds. The company is also constructing about a mile of sidewalks along the Fort Klamath road and down Spring street. Besides this, Engineer Zumwalt has a crew plating some property for the company. The street car company is employing from 12 to 15 men on the extension of the track and the operation of its rock crusher. Its force has recently been reduced from about 25 men. The Light & Water Company is working 15 or 20 men and half a dozen teams at the present time. Practically all of these men are employed on improvement work. Besides these, there are the men employed in the regular trades, on building contracts, saw mills, etc.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT

GRAND OFFICERS

Albany, Or., May 21.—The grand lodge of Odd Fellows elected the following officers: Grand Master, H. E. Cooldige of La Grande; deputy grand master, Thomas F. Ryan of Oregon City; grand warden, A. W. Bowersox of Albany; grand secretary, E. E. Sharon re-elected; grand representative, E. D. Hostettler for two years grand representative; W. S. Stryker of Salem for one year; grand treasurer, O. D. Doan, re-elected.

The principal fight was made on the office of grand warden, there being six candidates for the position. Larkin Reynolds, George H. Riches, A. W. Bowersox, Otis Anderson, M. Oswald and C. R. Hayworth were the candidates. Bowersox received the necessary number and was declared elected. William R. Hall was a candidate for secretary, but only received 69 votes.

One thousand Odd Fellows marched through Albany's streets yesterday afternoon in the annual parade. The procession was headed by the Albany band and the Patriarchs Militant in full uniform. Next came the Rebekahs and after them the grand lodge, 500 strong, and about 200 members of subordinate lodges.

Marching in the ranks was Frank W. Benson, Governor of Oregon, who arrived to attend the grand lodge as a representative of the Roseburg lodge. It is said to be the first case on record where the Governor of the state attended a grand lodge session as a regularly elected delegate.

Another interesting figure in the parade was Silas J. Day of Jacksonville, the oldest living past grand master of the order. He presided over the grand lodge in 1868, when it included the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho in its jurisdiction.

HAMMOND DECLINES TO GO TO CHINA

WASHINGTON, May 24.—After an hour's interview with President Taft today, John Hays Hammond definitely declined the tender of the Ministership to China.

Hammond told the President that he agreed with him that China offered a field for American enterprise and development of American trade that would tempt almost anyone to take up the work of the American mission in that country. He said he felt deeply honored by the tender of the Ministership and that he willingly would make any personal or business sacrifice in order to accept. He felt, however, as a duty to his family that he should not undertake to go to the Orient for any length of time.

"Mrs. Hammond and I have several children growing up," said Hammond, "and we feel we ought to have a home and settle down. We have had many years of roughing it and think we ought to have a rest."

Mrs. Roy Walker left Saturday for Ashland on a visit with her parents.
