SATISFACTION

The feeling I want to exist between you and me. I am trying to make my name and satisfaction synonymous. You can help me.

Don't holler and cuss if I have worked for you and it's not been satisfactory, but bring it back and give me a chance to make my word of guarantee good.

One receives a certain amount of satisfaction in buying goods and feeling they have their dollar's worth.

Those are the very kind of goods I carry and are all made by the most reliable firms. I would like to have your business.

I have been told that I am on the WRONG side of the street nevertheless you are not treating yourself RIGHT unless you see my stock before you buy.

The Portland
CLOTHING & SHOE STORE

Welcome to Our Glorious City

Dear Friend: Doubtless you want to come to the Railroad Day celebration. Perhaps you are hesitating for fear that the crowd will be too large. The Portland Store is planning to be of service to all its out-of-town friends. If you want to rest or leave a package, we want you to make this store your headquarters.

We have lots of room, and we want you to use it. Our clerks will be on hand to do you any favor they can. We realize that it is tiresome for you to be on the streets all day and we extend you this invitation to visit and rest with us, not because we want you to buy something, but because we believe we can be of service to you and the city of Klamath Falls.

It is the earnest desire of the Portland Store, the largest clothing and shoe establishment in Klamath Falls, that you make your headquarters in its place of business when you are in the city. It will be a pleasure for us to have you with us.

Very truly yours,

THE PORTLAND STORE,

K. Sugarman.

If you wish to set out some large and hardy cabbage, cauliflower or tomato plants, call and see samples or leave your order with Arthur C. Lewis at the Farmers Implement & Supply House.

See O. Short's auction ad on page 6.

BALL GAMES SUNDAY.

There will be a ball game on the local grounds Sunday between the Bonanza nine and the Redmen of this city.

Kinney's team will go to Dorris, where they will play a return game with the team of that town.

See O. Short's auction ad on page 6.

Ho! For the Water Carnival!

To those who are going to decorate a boat or float for the Water Carnival, the bunting has arrived and will be issued as needed by H. C. Telford, who will have charge of the Water Carnival. See Telford, the boat builder, at his boathouse above the bridge.
