SATISFACTION

The feeling I want to exist between you and me. I am trying to make my name and satisfaction synonymous. You can help me.

Don't holler and cuss if I have worked for you and it's not been satisfactory, but bring it back and give me a chance to make my word of guarantee good.

One receives a certain amount of satisfaction in buying goods and feeling they have their dollar's worth.

Those are the very kind of goods I carry and are all made by the most reliable firms. I would like to have your business.

I have been told that I am on the WRONG side of the street nevertheless you are not treating yourself RIGHT unless you see my stock before you buy.

CITY BRIEFS.

Celery Plants for sale. Henry Jansson, Klamath Falls. 11 Mrs. B. St. George Bishop and children arrived home Monday evening.

F. M. Denton and R. H. White were down from Fort Klamath during the week.

The official register of the rainfall during the recent shower shows .41 of an inch.

R. A. Watson, special representative of the Oregon Journal, is in the city from Portland.

Miss Effie Bowne arrived Saturday from Sheldon, Ia., on a visit to her brother, Francis J. Bowne.

Charles Graves is in the city from Odell, the farthest postoffice from Klamath Falls in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Briggs and son and Louise Benson returned Friday afternoon from an outing on the Upper Lake.

Morey L. Applegate is in the city for a few days from the Lava Beds, taking in the celebration and meeting old friends.

Miss Ruby Hillis left Sunday morning for San Jose on a visit to her mother. She expects to be absent about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Chambers, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith, left Tuesday morning for their home at Eugene.

B. F. Gould of the Klamath Falls Land and Transportation Company arrived in the city Sunday from his home at Hollister, Cal.

For Sale—Seven good milch cows, with fine calves. Price $230. Call and try them.

6-17-21 R. C. COWLEY, Lorella.

Ray Fountain, son of P. L. Fountain of this city, returned last Sunday from Chicago, where he has been attending a medical school.

Lester Leavitt and Helly Siemens returned home last Sunday from Corvallis, where they have been attending the Agricultural College.

Mrs. O. Halverson, mother of Mrs. J. E. Swansen, arrived in the city Thursday from Los Angeles and will spend the summer with her daughter.

Leo S. Robinson, one of the heavy Klamath county land owners, arrived Thursday from his home in Alameda, Cal., to remain during the big celebration.

Mrs. R. W. Beach and two children arrived in the city last Sunday from Los Angeles. Mrs. Beach is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beach of Conger avenue.

Mrs. C. F. Stone returned last Friday from a visit at her old home at Walkerton, Ontario, Canada. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Skelton, who will remain here.

J. H. Cochran and H. S. Stine arrived in the city Thursday from Medford. Mr. Cochran represents the Mutual Life of New York and Mr. Stine is principal of the Medford schools.

G. Heitkemper, Jr. has received the appointment as local watch inspector for the Southern Pacific Company. He will install a telegraphic regulator clock, which will receive the time from Washington each day.

H. T. Burnett and wife of Mendocino county, Cal., arrived in the city Thursday and will locate here. Mr. Burnett states that he has had Klamath Falls in his mind for some time and that now he is here to stay.

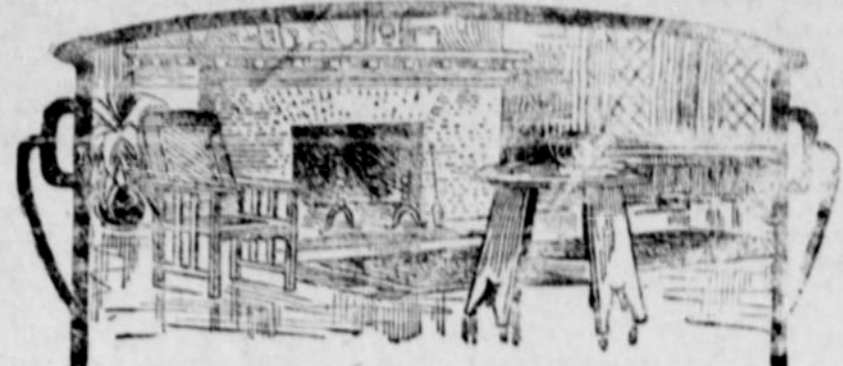

John Gill, representing J. K. Gill Stationery house of Portland, has been in the city for a few days enjoying the celebration and getting acquainted with the trade. Mr. Gill was formerly a member of the State Legislature.

J. L. Hanke and wife are in the city from their home at Canyonville, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Hanks are pioneers of Klamath county, but have been absent for the past year. Mr. Hanks hardly recognized the city, on account of the wonderful growth during the year.

All of the towns of the county attended the celebration in force. Bonanza, Fort Klamath and Klamath Agency are depopulated temporarily, and Merrill just left enough at home to guard the town. From the number of Indians in town it looks as if there were none left on the Reservation.

J. E. Bodge, a former resident here, who took in the railroad celebration, left Wednesday for his present home in Grants Pass. It wouldn't be a surprise if Mr. Bodge should return here to locate. He always did like Klamath Falls as a place of residence, and now that he has been away a while he likes it better than ever.

Capt. O. C. Applegate returned last Thursday from Portland, where he went as witness in the Barkley trial. Mr. Applegate states that he had a very tedious wait of twenty-four hours at Weed on the return trip, and that many complaints were heard from passengers coming from the north. The new flyer, which will be put on between Portland and San Francisco on June 21st, will be a great benefit to Klamath Falls travel from the north.

The pioneers of Klamath county had a very interesting time in their reunion Monday. The names of 183 were received who located here during and prior to 1887, and it is probable that there is a large number who were not present. O. A. Stearns has the distinction of being the oldest in point of residence. He located in Klamath county in 1867. John M. Corbell and Stephen Stukel came here the following year, in 1868.

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

When two horses become accustomed to working together, don't change them.

A FEW BARGAINS.
Five lots, slightly location, $1500. Can loan $750 on the deal.
A nice cottage with bath, large lot, $1700. A good buy.

It is very hard on a prompt horse to be obliged to work with a lazy one. The wear and tear is great and unnecessary, and a loss.

A large residence, fine lot, $3500. Three cottages on three lots. Room enough for another cottage; $2250.
