GOV. FORBES INAUGURATED

MANILA, Nov. 24.—W. Cameron Forbes was inaugurated governor-general of the Philippines today in succession to Gen. James F. Smith. The inauguration was accompanied by civic and military display, and was more elaborate than previous inductions into office. The official home of the governor-general was thronged with thousands of citizens of all classes, while army and navy officers, consular officials and others, many of them in full uniform, added brilliancy to an impressive scene.

Washington.—Secretary Ballinger, acting on the recommendation of the Agricultural Department, has withdrawn temporarily from settlement the vacant unappropriated lands comprised in 48,522 acres proposed as an addition to the Sevier national forest, Utah. The withdrawn area is in Lane county, Utah, and lies along the southern boundary of the Sevier national forest.

Portland.—S. F. Armour & Co. have purchased all of the Miller & Lux cattle holdings in Oregon and California. The price paid is not named, but it is said to be up in the millions. It will boost the cattle business of Southern and Central Oregon and Northern and Central California.

Washington.—The general land office rejected the Deschutes Railroad company's map for section 5 of its line, insofar as it conflicts with the right of way of the Central Oregon railway. An opportunity will be given to file a new map which avoids this conflict.

Lakeview.—James Foster of Summer Lake raised two hills of potatoes on his farm this year that yielded 65 pounds of marketable potatoes. Many of them ranged from four to six pounds each.

Los Angeles.—It is believed that 400 people lost their lives when the steamer St. Croix of the North Pacific Coast Steamship company burned fourteen miles off Santa Monica.

Madrid.—Bursting with fury, the volcano Saleres is in eruption again on the island of Tenerife, one of the Canary group.

Auburn, Cal.—The trial of Alma Bell for the murder of Joseph Ames, her lover, last June, began. The jury was completed after ten days' examination, during which an ellisor had to be appointed by the court because of the admission of the regular officers that they were prejudiced in the case. One hundred and thirty-two men were examined.

The trial promises to be long and bitterly fought. The plight of the 23-year-old girl has excited widespread interest. Offers of financial assistance have come to her and threatening letters have been received by the prosecuting attorney. The state, it is understood, will not exact a death penalty. The defense will be temporary insanity.

San Francisco.—Francis J. Heney announced that he will resign his position here as Assistant District Attorney at once, and that he will leave for Portland, Ore., to resume his position as prosecutor in the government land cases. A number of men are under indictment in the Northwest for alleged government land frauds, but Mr. Heney asserts that he is not prepared to state which of these will go on trial first.

New York.—It was recently announced that the New York public school board has decided to abolish football from the school of this city. The announcement did not state when the ban will become effective.

Ithaca, N. Y.—Cornell faculty has granted a petition of the Cornell Aero club for the establishment of a chair of aeronautics next year. The course will be in charge of Professor G. R. McDermott. Heavier-than-air craft will be specialties.

STEAMBOATING AND COMMERCE ON KLAMATH LAKE

In dealing with this subject one is somewhat handicapped, as much of the available data must be gleaned from those engaged in the lake trade, and the veracity of steamboat men, like that of fishermen, is at times to be doubted.

There is practically little in the subject worthy of mention previous to the advent of the old Alma, a boat of the steam scow model, built by Dan Griffith to run as a tender for his sawmill at Odessa five years ago. The boat did little more than tow lumber scows from the mill to this place for two or three years. Four years ago Tom Staten placed in commission another boat of like pattern, but devoted to the passenger trade. She was called the Jessie, but the career of the boat was short, for she was burned at Eagle Ridge before she had served the public very long.

Soon after the Jessie the Winema was built by Messrs. Hansbury and Totten, and was, when launched, as even now, the commodore ship of the lake both as a freight carrier and for passenger accommodations. She cost in the vicinity of $10,000 and will be a good boat for some years yet. Until the last season the principal part of her income was derived from carrying excursions up and down the lake; in fact, anything like a freight or passenger traffic might be said to have come in with the Winema.

Soon after the Winema was put in commission an abortive attempt was made by parties not here named to launch upon the waters of this "Nym Skookim Chuck" a boat erroneously called the Black Mariner. She did everything but go ashore and climb trees, and was a total failure.

About this time the Eagle was built by Capt. Alex Nosler, ostensibly for a cruising houseboat, but was bought by parties who placed machinery therein, a stern wheel thereon, and forthwith began to stagnate and sallyente every kind of business they butted into, and soon got the record as "hoodoo ship" of all the Klamath waters. She was never successful beyond making a record like a checkerboard until Captain Wickstrom, a thorough navigator, bought her last spring, since when she has done a splendid business, having since last June handled over a thousand tons of freight and made a mileage of over two thousand miles with no serious accidents or mishaps. So much for a captain who understands his business.

The Mazama was built by Capt. Alex Nosler for Messrs. Parker & Taylor of Ft. Klamath, at a cost of $7,000. She has the distinction of being the only twin propeller boat in Klamath waters. She was built for the Wood river trade, and under the able management of her owners is filling her mission well. She is a stanch boat and will do service a long time with the irrepressible Capt. Parker at the wheel—a man who has had much salt water in his whiskers in past years, which goes well with a pleasant and accommodating nature. He is a man who commands the highest respect of all the ladies, with no man his enemy.

A NAVIGATOR.

Horton, who recently returned from a trip to the Silver Lake country, said that the merchants and ranchers there are awakening to the advantages gained by trading in this city in preference to hauling over 185 miles from Shaniko. When the road from here to Silver Lake has been repaired, Mr. Horton says that all their trading will probably be done in this city.

M. M. Riggs, brother of Mrs. C. H. Withrow, arrived in Klamath Falls, his old home, Monday evening and will visit relatives and old-time friends for a few weeks. Mr. Riggs has made his home in Marysville, Cal., for some time past. It has been fifteen years since his last visit here. Landmarks of the earlier days he finds very few, but their passing for things better and more modern speaks his early predictions for a bright future for Klamath Falls and the Klamath country.

Dr. Hamilton will resign his position as city physician and health officer after the first of the year. His practice has grown to such proportions that he is unable properly to attend to all the duties incumbent upon him as city health officer, and rather than let the work drag along, he would resign and let some other man with more time step in and take the positions vacated. Dr. Hamilton has always accomplished the work of health officer in the most perfect manner, and those to whom he has made known his intentions are trying to prevail upon him to reconsider before taking such a step.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, droopiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Jesse Freeman, Sterling Mine, Jacksonville, Ore., says: "I actually believe that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. I suffered from kidney disease for a long time before I realized what was the matter with me. My worst troubles were pains in my back and limbs and an irregularity in the passage of kidney secretions. I was unable to rest well on account of the pains and felt so stiff and lame at times that I could hardly walk. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, and as they were so highly recommended I procured a box and began using them. They seemed to be just what I required, for in less than two weeks beneficial results were apparent. When I had used seven boxes I was in better health than I had been for years."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

At the trial Thursday last Harry Ward, the defendant, and former proprietor of the Davenport cafe, was bound over under $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. The warrant for the arrest of Ward was sworn out by Heidrich & Dulaney of the Monarch Mercantile company, the charge being obtaining money under false pretenses. It seems that the defendant had mortgaged, in order to obtain more credit, certain property to the Monarch Mercantile company and that the property mortgaged had not as yet been fully paid for. Attorney Irwin made a strong plea in behalf of Ward.
