

MANY SOCIETY EVENTS

Past Week Has Been a Whirlwind of Social Functions

The rush of the holiday season being past, activity in social affairs and entertainments was renewed with increased vigor this week.

One of the largest functions of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. E. B. Hall, at the Baldwin, on Wednesday afternoon.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. G. Pierce entertained three tables at bridge at her home on Conger avenue.

Mrs. C. Rose Anderson and Miss Marie McMillan entertained at 500 on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. O. Smith entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club Saturday at her home on Conger avenue.

The Twenty-One Club gave another of its delightful dances Saturday night at the new White-Maddox hall.

Mrs. George Chastain entertained the members of the Art Needlework Club at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

WOMANLY WISDOM

The young wife: "This rabbit (rob) I've been plucking it (sob) all the afternoon, and it isn't half done yet."

Grind up the meat that is left over, stir it up with potatoes and make croquettes for supper. Nice as can be.

Some girls would be successful in obtaining a husband if they would remove the hatpin before setting their caps.

Never wash flannels in water in which cotton clothing has been washed, as there is lint always left in the water that "fills" the flannel.

When making boys' pants, if mothers will put in a large piece of the same material in the knees between the lining and outside, it will be there ready when needed.

It isn't safe to buy eye-glasses of peddlers. If your eyes need glasses, go to a reputable oculist or optician in some near-by town or city.

It is heavy work to carry up a full scuttle of coal, but if a grape basket is kept at the head of the cellar stairs, and if each time a trip is made to the cellar it is filled and brought up, the scuttle may be kept supplied.

LYON-GALBREATH

At the residence of the Rev. F. B. Creey, near Olene, Ore., December 29, 1909, Frank Galbreath and Miss Nellie Lyon, both of this county.

All straw, stalks, etc., used for litter in the sheep barn should be put through a cutter to increase the power of absorption.

PYTHIANS ENTERTAIN

Reception Given to Grand Lodge Officers, Who Are Visiting City

One of the most pleasant and enthusiastic meetings ever held by local Pythians took place at the Castle Hall Saturday night.

The early part of the evening was spent at the Castle Hall in social pastime. Following this the banquet was served.

During the special convention County Judge J. B. Griffith was inducted into the mysteries of the rank of Esquire.

Messrs. Yorlan and Stinson are paying the Klamath country their initial visit. Unless to say, they were not prepared for what they found.

Klamath Lodge No. 99, Knights of Pythias, was organized some four years ago.

Messrs. Yorlan and Stinson will leave in the morning. They will spend the next ten days visiting the lodges between Ashland and Portland.
