

CITY BREVITIES.

John Hazen went to Dorris Wednesday morning.

J. Frank Adams was in town Friday from Merrill.

Henry Parrish arrived in the city Friday from Merrill.

Mrs. Geo. W. Loosley left Friday morning for Ashland.

Mrs. F. T. Nelson returned Wednesday morning to her ranch.

Carl Ripley is convalescing after quite a severe spell of sickness.

E. Vernath, of Dorris, returned Wednesday morning after a visit in this city.

N. B. McFarland and J. W. Stockman left on the stage Friday morning for Lakeview.

F. A. Smith has cleared and seeded 400 acres on his ranch eight miles south of town.

W. E. Purdy left Wednesday for Medford on business. He expects to return in a few days.

A. W. Wisner returned to Seattle Wednesday after investing in Klamath Falls real estate.

H. H. Eaton, a prominent Elk and business man of Ashland, was a visitor in the city Friday.

Wm. March, a prominent ranch man from upper Poe Valley, was a visitor in the city Friday.

A. Limeing was a passenger on the outgoing train last Friday for his home at Georgetown, Ohio.

J. V. Houston, of the Houston Opera House, left Wednesday for San Francisco on business.

Mrs. Burkhardt and daughter were passengers on the Lakeview stage Friday morning for Bonanza.

C. A. Hoffman arrived in the city Thursday. He represents the Sunset Realty Company of Topeka, Kas.

W. B. Grubb returned Friday to Fall Creek, Cal., after a visit here with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Hurn.

The lunch served at the horse sale of Masten & Adams is highly spoken of by everyone as being a good feed.

John Perle left Wednesday for Jennings, La., to return with his family, and expects to locate in Klamath Falls.

C. W. Andruss, expert novelty man, has displayed his ability in the manufacture of a dog harness for C. T. Oliver.

A nice, cute little airship may now be bought for $2,500. Why not provide all of your castles in Spain with airships?

Wm. Ormsby returned Friday from a trip through Poe Valley and the Merrill district. He reports the roads as improving fast.

John McCall, of the Portland Store, returned last Tuesday from a visit at Ashland. Mrs. McCall has gone to San Jose to visit her mother.

T. A. Smith, one of the well-known ranchmen of this community, is much pleased by the arrival of his mother, who will make her home here.

Mrs. M. McMillan, of the Lakeside Inn, returned last Tuesday from Chico, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edward Williamson.

Passengers on outgoing stages Wednesday were: J. C. Henning and A. H. Hart to Lakeview; H. R. Christman to Merrill, and Mr. Mendall to Merrill.

G. E. Hallack left on Wednesday's train for Seattle. While here he purchased two residence lots and two business lots from the Klamath Development Company.

H. V. and O. B. Gates were at Merrill Tuesday to meet the stockholders of the Merrill Telephone Company in regard to arrangements for service in connection with the Klamath Falls line.

W. J. Rogers arrived in the city Wednesday from Minneapolis with the intention of locating here. He will look over the city first before deciding on what business he will engage in.

Since the abandonment of the Upper Project the people of Yonna Valley are considering putting in pumping stations for irrigation. Two plants have been bought recently to go in that vicinity.

Among those registered at the American House are C. H. McCumber, Dairy; F. J. Loufek, Merrill; F. Welch, Dairy; Alfred Bradburn, Dorris; B. F. Nichols and family, Bonanza; O. H. W. Richstein, Dairy.

W. W. Masten will commence work on the ranch of L. M. Allison plowing and seeding 120 acres in wheat and peas. Mr. Masten will also plow and seed 160 acres for W. J. Steinmetz.

Roy Taber and wife left on Wednesday's train for their new home at Dorris, where Mr. Taber is a prosperous merchant. There is a promise of a very warm reception somewhat on the order of a postponed charivari.

V. R. Nachant left Wednesday for his home in Seattle. He has been looking over the real estate situation here and speaks very highly of the future of Klamath Falls. Mr. Nachant also spoke of the present railroad connection as very objectionable to passengers from the north on account of having to lay over at Weed on their way here from Seattle and Portland.

W. I. Clark left Friday for Weed on a business trip.

Wm. Barks is a visitor in the city Friday from Spring Lake.

Wm. Griffith was in the city Saturday from his ranch near Olene.

Wm. Marcho left Saturday afternoon for his ranch in Poe Valley.

Mrs. Alma LaPrie was in town Saturday on a visit from her ranch.

Mrs. James Pelton, of Fort Klamath, left last Friday for Oakland and a visit with friends.

A. W. Ross was in the city Saturday from his ranch on the Merrill road.

Frank McCormick and family were visitors in town Saturday from the ranch.

L. J. Tucker and wife left on Saturday morning's train for their home in Farmington, Ill.

Miss Minnie Foss, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived on Saturday to visit friends in the city.

E. H. Burnham, teacher of the Somerville district school, was a visitor Friday night to attend the Maccabees' dance.

Wm. Dalton and wife were visitors in the city to attend the Masten & Adams horse sale. They left for the ranch Friday.

Among the county people registered at the American Friday were R. H. Bunnell, Merrill, and J. W. Jury and John Matney, Midland.

Mike Dobry, one of the leaders of the Bohemian colony, purchased a wagon, plow and harness Monday to go out to the colony.

A suit was filed Saturday by Geo. Kesterson vs. O. D. Cravens for the recovery of money. D. V. Kuykendall is attorney for the plaintiff.

Chas. Wilson will start his lime kilns in operation in about a week. The kilns are about two miles from town and will be in charge of Louis Biehn.

Mrs. Phebe Wells and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Smith, returned Friday evening from Los Angeles. They left next morning for their home at Bly. Saturday morning were W. Hampton.

P. M. Cunningham was in from Pine Grove Saturday. He reports the new school house as finished and church services will be held there the last Sunday in the month at 3 p. m.

Passengers on the Lakeview stage last Saturday included W. Hampton, to Bonanza; Mrs. M. Smith, to Bly; Mrs. Phoebe Wells, to Bly; G. M. Causey and W. J. Proudfoot to Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Biehn have returned from their trip to Long Beach, Cal. Mrs. Biehn is very much improved in health, but Mr. Biehn still remains troubled with the rheumatism.

Mrs. J. F. Goeller entertained about twenty friends Friday afternoon at her home on the west side. The time was spent in embroidery work after which dainty refreshments were served.

The dance given by the Ladies of the Maccabees Friday at Redmen's hall turned out a large crowd and proved a very pleasant evening in which the supper served at 11 o'clock deserves particular mention.

The contention that "it is immaterial whether Senator Lodge or Senator Elkins heads the committee to investigate the high cost of living" is sound. It is immaterial. They will simply whitewash the highness.

C. A. Bunting writes from Pasadena that the party from the Merrill section which went to Mexico has returned to Pasadena, and Mr. Bunting and family will leave soon for Klamath County.

It is reported that about 75 per cent of the purchases at the horse sale Thursday were paid in cash, taking advantage of the 5 per cent discount, which speaks well for the prosperity of the country.

Articles of pugnacity were signed Friday between Frank Shevlin and Jack Linkenbach for a fifteen-round glove contest to take place at the Opera House, Klamath Falls, March 24. Both boys go in training today for the coming event.

Fred Clives and Charles Thomas made the catch of the season Thursday afternoon, bringing in a bunch of fish strung on a pole between them that would make any fisherman's heart go up in his throat until he would have to swallow twice to get it back in place.

The following party came down from Bonanza Friday: Chas. Pattee, J. D. Parker, Richard Pickett, J. B. Reed and S. C. Graves.

Will and Walter Campbell on Wednesday sold to Mr. Tagsdale, of Southern California, thirty head of 2-year-old mules at $80 a head. The animals were shipped on Saturday.

H. F. Swingle, Billie Duvall and Fred Fleet were in town Monday with a fine bunch of furs from Langell Valley. The animals were caught near Lorella. Besides coyote and cat skins, the bunch included two cougar skins.

Lime—Parties wishing lime should phone their orders to the Big Basin Lumber Company at once. The first kiln has been burned and hauling will begin tomorrow. Parties can save the cost of reloading and hauling by placing their orders at once for wagon load lots.

W. S. Worden left Monday morning for Merrill.

J. P. Callahan was a visitor Monday from Dairy.

Ludwig Sterzel was in the city on Monday from Dairy.

F. J. Bowne was in the city Monday from Bonanza to pay his taxes.

L. A. West and wife were recent visitors in the city from Lost River. Herbert Phillips and wife were visitors in the city Saturday from Lost River.

Grant Lincoln, the editor of the new paper, has returned from San Francisco.

Miss Quillich has accepted a place as apprentice with Moore & Wagner, the milliners.

John Koontz and wife were visitors in the city from the Lost River ranch this week.

Chas. Steemans and Ed Howard took out a load of goods to their place at Lost River.

Annie and Phebe Vinson returned from Medford and left on Monday morning for Bonanza.

Florence Short paid a visit to her parents on the ranch at Lost River Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Taylor has returned from Dorris, where she was called by the death of her father.

Mrs. Alma LaPrairie left for her ranch Sunday. She has just purchased a handsome new buggy.

S. D. Wilson left last Monday for Portland as a witness before the Federal Court in a cattle case.

A. W. Lathrop was in Monday from his poultry plant twelve miles from town on the Merrill road.

Miss Minnie Foss arrived Monday from Portland and will make her home with Miss Runk of this city.

W. F. Reece on Monday brought a gang-plow and other farm machinery from the Farmers' Implement & Supply Company.

Archie Colson and Robert Short last Saturday brought in the road grader which they have been using near their ranches.

Seven of the Southern Pacific carpenters left on Sunday's train for Oakland, after finishing the work on the new dredge on the Upper Lake at Hanks.

The private car carrying S. O. Johnson, president of the Klamath Development Company; G. X. Wendling and Mr. Sweet left last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for San Francisco.

Ernel O. Stearns, while attending the Iris theatre last Friday, left his bicycle standing outside. When he came out it was gone. Later it was found hid at the rear of the building with the wrenches and tools gone and the tires cut open. He offers a reward for the apprehension of the parties doing the damage.

Miss Oveshner from Portland will take charge of the branch millinery of Wagner & Moore at Hector's store.

A. Wickstrom has returned from California, where he spent the winter. He states that he will start this week after his first load of sand. He will have a new boat and barge and will lay in a big supply of sand at the upper lake landing.

Mrs. E. A. Dunham left Tuesday for Medford.

Alec Watson, from Merrill, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Jack Moore has gone to Bonanza and Bly to buy horses.

Geo. W. Mitchell is a visitor in this city from his homestead in Langell Valley.

Jesse Strotts and daughter, from the Little Deachutes, were visitors in the city this week.

The Curlew made its first trip up the lake Tuesday to investigate the condition of the ice.

Captain Wickstrom is raising the steamer Eagle that became water-logged some time ago.

Mrs. A. M. Worden and daughter left last week on a visit to their old home at Topeka, Kas.

Mrs. Levi Ward, who has been sick for some time at the American House, returned Tuesday to Merrill.

Mrs. Alex. Martin, Jr., left Tuesday morning for Eugene. She was accompanied as far as Weed by Mr. Martin.

The steamer Hornet was sold at sheriff's sale on Monday. Evans & Hamaker were the buyers, their bid being the highest.

Archie Wishard, of the Owl pool room, left last Sunday for Weed to meet his wife and brothers. He expects to be back on tonight's train.

Some of the Bohemians from the colony near Merrill are visitors in town, among them being J. J. Vogle, M. Dobby, Frank Halas and Frank Loubek.

We are pleased to announce that spring and summer styles in millinery are now ready for inspection, and it would afford us much pleasure to have you call.—Runk & Schneider.

Captain Wickstrom, while in San Francisco, purchased machinery for a new tug boat which he will build as soon as he can get the material on the ground.

Dr. Merryman returned Tuesday from a visit to the railroad camps at Modoc Point. He states that the new county road is completed and is in fine condition.

Frank Klazba, from the Bohemian settlement near Merrill, left Tuesday morning for Portland to close a real estate deal on land which he owns at Elberta, Canada.

E. R. Reams has just purchased a 38-pound rubber-tired riding sulky from Fred Johnson and this spring will work out some of his native born standard colts.

Gus J. Hillyard, recently of Kansas, has purchased the Jackson Tramel place five miles southeast of the city, consisting of 160 acres. The price paid was $40 an acre.

Passengers on the Lakeview stage Tuesday were O. O. Haydenfeld, T. M. Fleming and J. C. Dodson, to Lakeview; Judge Benson, to Bly; M. Orr, to Bonanza, and Mrs. Angle, to Merrill.

A cat of a most roving disposition was found with her family in the smoking car at the depot and the boys there removed them to the freight depot, where they will now be given a home.

SPRING CLOTHES

We have on the road the largest and finest line of Hart Schaffner & Marx and Friend Bros.' Clothing ever brought to the city. They are so well known among the nobby dressers of this city that they need no comment. Wait for them : : : : :

The Portland

CLOTHING & SHOE STORE

Next door to the Postoffice Klamath Falls, Oregon

A Snap for You

Beautiful designs and color while the stock is new.

1910-WALL PAPER-1910

Now is the time to savings. Cheap and up to date.

PHONE 954.

BAMBER & PEAIRS, The Decorators

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary

DON J. ZUMWALT,
C. E.
President

Abstracting

E. M. BUBB,
Vice President and Treasurer

Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc.

Surveying and Irrigation Engineering

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Geo. W. Loosley was down from Fort Klamath last week.

J. G. Pierce and wife and son, Albert, have gone to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hessig have returned from their wedding trip to San Francisco and visited in the city for a few days before going to Fort Klamath.

J. B. Chambers, proprietor of the Gun Store, reports a large amount of furs being brought in from the surrounding country. Last week he purchased $500 worth.

A party of seven machinists arrived last Monday from Stockton and Alameda to install the machinery in the dredge Grady, which has just been built by the Southern Pacific Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Beeson left Tuesday for Talent, Ore., where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. Carl Beeson, who died Monday morning. The deceased is a sister-in-law of Mr. Beeson.

One of the boys from Rattlesnake Point reports that during the digging of the cut an old Indian burial ground was encountered and the steam shovel brought up numerous skulls, skeletons and Indian relics.

S. A. Smith, of the firm of Allison & Smith, has just returned from San Francisco and reports much talk of the advantages of the situation of Klamath Falls. With the present outlook of approaching railroads, Klamath Falls is often spoken of as the second Spokane.

R. C. Spink was in the city Monday from Klamath Agency. He left on Tuesday for San Francisco. Mr. Spink states that he does not know yet whether he will open his resort on Spring Creek this year or not. The Government is not favorable to a public resort on the Indian reservation and it is probable that the hotel and tent city will be abandoned.

ORDERS OF UNION NOT GENERALLY OBSERVED

United Press Service.

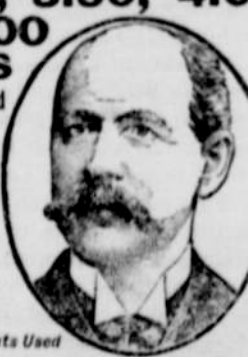

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—The orders of the Central Labor Union to mill men, wagon drivers, ice men and others who deliver necessities, were not generally observed today. Some quit, but most remained at work today. The city was quiet during the day. A canvass indicates that most of the men who went out last week are still out.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00, $3.50, $4.00 & $5.00

SHOES

Best in the World

UNION MADE

Boys' Shoes $2.00 and $2.50

Fast Color Eyelets Used

W. L. Douglas shoes are the lowest price, quality considered, in the world. Their excellent style, easy fitting and long wearing qualities excel those of other makes. If you have been paying high prices for your shoes, the next time you need a pair give W. L. Douglas shoes a trial. You can save money on your footwear and get shoes that are just as good in every way as those that have been costing you higher prices.

If you could visit our large factories at Brockton, Mass., and see for yourself how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better and wear longer than other makes.

CAUTION—W. L. Douglas shoes are stamped on the bottom to protect the wearers from high prices and inferior shoes. "Take No Substitute." If W. L. Douglas shoes are not for sale in your vicinity, write for 25¢ color catalog, W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

K. SUGARMAN