

CITY BREVITIES.

W. J. Steinmetz was in from his ranch Saturday.

Wm. Bassett was in from Bonanza Tuesday on a visit.

Mrs. F. J. Doherer left Saturday morning for Portland.

Louis Gerber has returned from a trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. R. H. Anderson was a visitor from Merrill Tuesday.

E. L. Elliott has filed a damage suit against J. B. Reed.

Mack Adams, from Medford, is visiting his brother, Charlie.

Mrs. Hives and children left Wednesday morning for Petaluma, Cal.

Miss Ida Otto returned home Wednesday after a visit in this city.

Mrs. M. J. Maynard and Mrs. J. H. Colburn left for Texas on Saturday.

Fred Allen, wife and son are recent arrivals in this city from Los Angeles, Cal.

J. W. Fitzgerald, school teacher from Poe Valley, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Sam Banard was a visitor Tuesday night at the Women's dance from the Altamont district.

There have been quite a number of Indian visitors in the city lately from the reservation.

Born, at noon Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Benham, Shippington, an 8 1/2-pound daughter.

John Ratcliff, proprietor of the Riverside Hotel at Merrill, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

E. E. Burrell and F. Day are delegates from this city to the National Socialist convention at Chicago.

Wakefield & Peterson, boat builders from Portland, will operate again this summer on the Upper Lake.

Roy F. Beach is much improved in health and able to be around after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Parker and Taylor arrived at the boat landing on Upper Lake Tuesday in their launch from Wood River.

I. D. Applegate has purchased six lots in the Mills addition. He expects to build and improve the property.

R. W. Tower and son, of Keno, were in town Tuesday. They were on their way home from a trip to Bonanza.

Miss Grace Cooley is a recent arrival from Sacramento and is occupying a position in Oliver's Seed House.

A suit was filed Saturday by the Oregon Nursery Co. vs. M. F. Parker. H. M. Manning is attorney for the plaintiff.

Dave Cox was in from Merrill Saturday after a load of freight for the Whitney Mercantile Company and for Martin Bros.

C. C. Jackson and daughter were visitors in the city Saturday from Ft. Klamath, where Mr. Jackson is proprietor of the hotel.

G. W. White has sold to Portland parties thirty feet of the property between the American Bank & Trust and Mason & Slough buildings.

Dr. C. P. Mason has purchased from Maj. C. E. Worden the five-room bungalow recently erected by him on the Hot Springs addition.

Charles Parrish, of Portland, is in the city renewing acquaintances with his host of old friends here and looking after private business interests.

Louis Gerber shipped a car load of hogs on Wednesday to Sacramento. This speaks well for the hog industry when a July hog brings $11.25 in March.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garrett, who have been visiting at their old home in Missouri, have returned to Klamath and left Tuesday for their home near Bly.

Ike Wright left Saturday for Woodville, Cal., after closing out all his holdings in this city. Mr. Wright will go into the livery business at Woodville.

H. T. Barnett is moving in from his ranch at Midland. He has purchased the agency of all outside papers and will give his attention to them in the future.

Arrivals at the Lakeside were W. F. Parker, Ft. Klamath; J. S. Griffith, Eagle Ridge; A. H. Clough, San Francisco; D. M. Griffith, Eagle Ridge; J. B. C. Taylor, Fort Klamath.

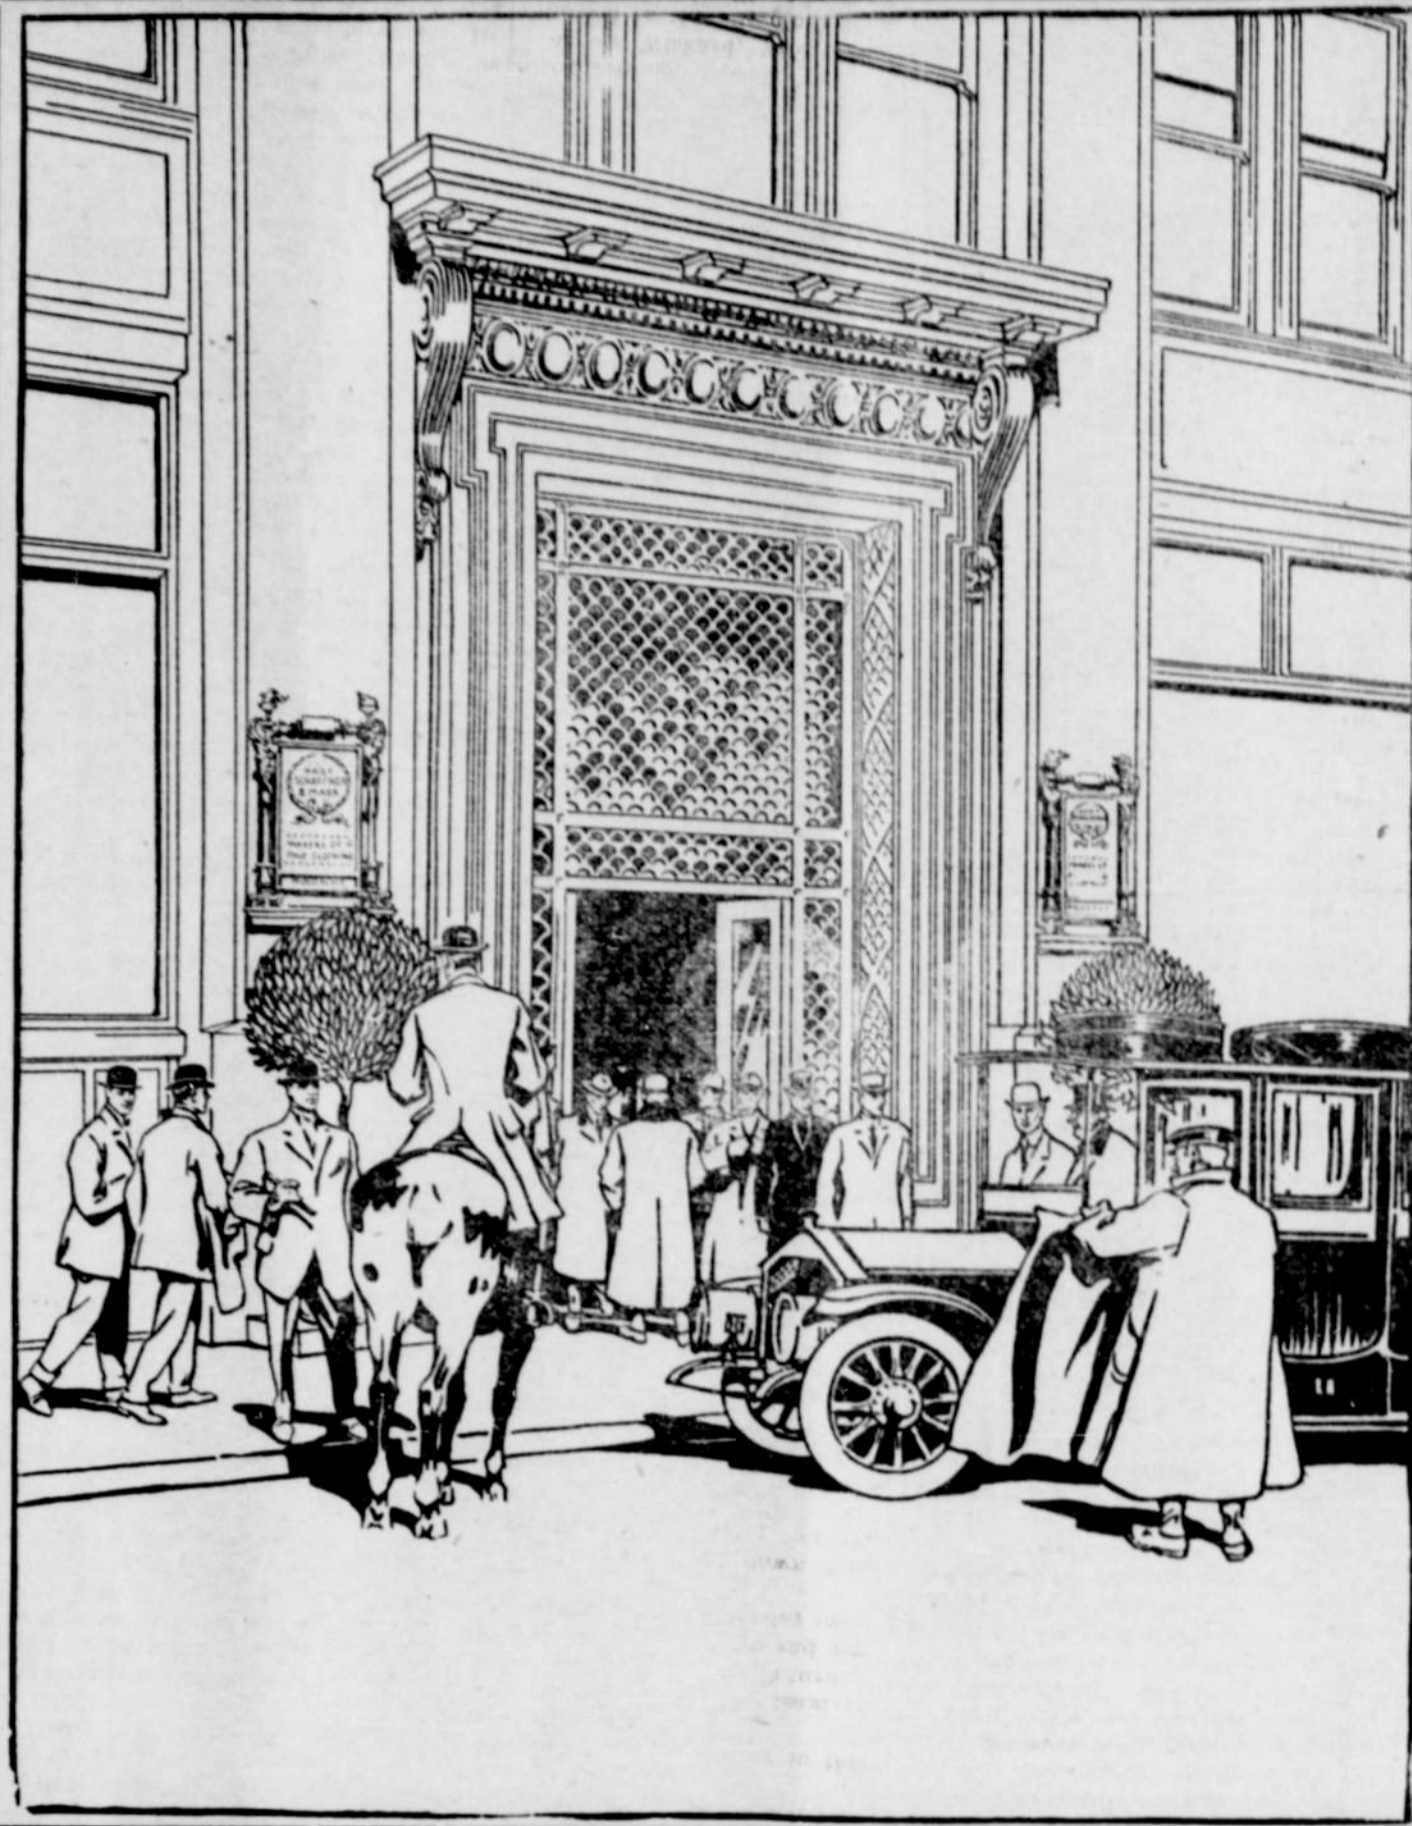

Jesse and Henry Goff, Ray Watts and Walter Pilsch arrived Tuesday from Sacramento to go to work at Shippington for the Great Northern Box Company.

Four large bunches of small trees are awaiting shipment to Summer Lake. They are Carolina poplars and billed to Jörn Prader. The trees came from the Ashland nursery.

The Lakeview stage left Wednesday with the following passengers: Mrs. E. Smalley, to Lakeview; three greaves with unpronounceable names, to Lakeview; R. B. Lilly, to Olene; B. Biehl, to Bly.

Arthur Britton and J. A. Krause are in town today from the Enterprise ranch. They are looking for horses and teams to rent for spring plowing.

A sign bearing the inscription of "Colorado Headquarters," displayed in the windows of the Farmers' Exchange, is fulfilling its mission, as a Colorado delegation of ten was present there Monday, and from their talk it is gathered that they are well

HERE'S the entrance to the new twelve-story building occupied by our friends Hart, Schaffner & Marx

We just received a large shipment, by express, of which are now on display. Call and pick out your Easter Suit

EASTER SUITS

PORTLAND STORE

Next door to the Postoffice
Klamath Falls, Or.

pleased with the prospects in and around Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Alma LaPrairie and sister have been visitors in this city.

David Painter, who has been spending the past several days in McCloud, returned home Monday evening.

Services will be held in the Baptist Church this evening at 7:30, at which time Rev. G. H. Feese will preach.

W. H. Mason Saturday loaded the steamer Winema with supplies and camp equipment and lumber for his logging camps which he will build on the Upper Lake.

J. W. Wonderly and C. L. Stickney, trappers from Langell Valley, arrived Tuesday morning with a fine bunch of furs. They have been trapping all winter near the head of the valley.

John R. Stilts and Miss Lily Stilts returned home Monday from San Francisco. Miss Stilts is greatly improved in health, due to the exhilarating influences of the sea breeze and automobiling.

Henry Bolvin has purchased the Ike Wright property on Main street between Fifth and Sixth streets which was until recently occupied by Stahlman Bros. The consideration is said to have been $7,000.

Louis Gerber shipped from Midland Tuesday 200 head of cattle to Sacramento. A similar shipment will be made the latter part of the week by Mr. Mitchell. This will probably be the last large shipments this season.

James Herron, of Portland, has purchased of G. W. White thirty feet on Main street adjoining the American Bank & Trust Company at a price of $150 a front foot. Mr. Herron is the representative of Fleishner & Meier.

W. S. Worden has purchased the home now occupied by his father, Major C. E. Worden, and expects to move there in the near future. The Major is erecting a new home for himself on his property in close proximity to his present home.

J. E. Whitlatch, of Merrill, was in the city Saturday with skins of 20 bob cats, which he recently killed in the southern part of the county. The county and state pay a bounty of $2 each, and Mr. Whitlatch states that he can get $9 a piece for the hides in the East.

John Sauber, who for the past three months has been visiting with his daughter, Miss Lorinda Sauber, left Tuesday for Chico, where he goes to attend to some business. He expects to return in the course of a few weeks, and will spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Pickett.

S. Clark, of Dairy, spent Sunday in the city.

R. T. Brown left Thursday for Portland.

Mrs. R. H. Short is reported as being ill at her home.

Judge Short was a visitor in this city Saturday night.

Will Mason sold a fine team of horses to Ed Harwood last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pierce and son, Albert, returned home Saturday evening.

A. M. Erickson came down from Rattlesnake Point Sunday on the Curlew.

Mrs. Geo. T. Pratt, who has been ill for some time, had a relapse Sunday.

G. B. Hickman is a recent arrival in the city from Grand Junction, Colo.

H. V. Gates and daughter left for their home in Hillsboro last Sunday morning.

Mrs. W. A. Leonard and daughter left Thursday for a visit with friends at Portland.

The Hooligan came down the lake Sunday with a raft for the mill at Shippington.

E. W. Ralston, from Medford, is now employed as a printer on the Morning Express.

Archie Colson and Roy LaPrairie were visitors in town Saturday night from their ranches.

Jack Moore has returned from a trip to Bly and Bonanza, where he has been buying horses.

R. H. Olds, W. S. Amos and Elmer French made a trip down the river to Miller's Island Sunday.

Shippington might be called the Venice of Klamath County, as the streets now are mostly water.

The Klamath Falls baseball team defeated the linemen's team Sunday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0.

Chas. Sherman, Jr., has returned from Talent, where he spent the winter, and has gone to Dairy.

David Painter, of the Klamath Development Company, left Thursday on a business trip to McCloud.

Miss Pearl Davidson and Miss Ethel Gilson returned to Midland Sunday morning after a visit in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Grimes are in the city from Eugene on a visit to their sons—James A., Joseph D. and Henry A. Grimes.

C. A. Bunting and family arrived in the city Wednesday en route to their home at Merrill from Los Angeles and a trip through Mexico.

Archie Wishard, wife and family returned to the city Thursday. Mr. Wishard went to Weed to meet Mrs. Wishard on her way from Portland.

Sam Woodard, his two sisters and R. H. Olds visited Miss Pearl Davidson, of Midland, Sunday.

Ed Harwood and wife were in town Monday to close a deal on eighty acres of land near Whitelake.

Griffith Brothers, owners of the resort at Eagle Ridge, came down the lake in their launch Tuesday.

Parties owning dogs will please take notice that the city dog tax was delinquent after March 1.—E. C. Townsend, City Marshal.

Guests at the American House are S. Clark, Dairy; Nathan Dorvak, Brainard, Neb.; Mrs. E. Smalley, of Lakeview, and J. S. Becker, Portland.

A game of ball Saturday afternoon between the High School and the Public School resulted in a victory for the High School with a score of 14 to 8.

E. Oaks and son of Grand Junction, Colo., arrived in the city last Sunday for the purpose of looking over the country and a suitable place in which to locate.

Reserved seats are now on sale at the Central for the boxing exhibition, McClellan vs. Morrissey, Thursday, March 24. Phone orders will be given prompt attention.

R. H. Short, Buel Short and Bert Hawkins, directors of School District No. 36, were busy Saturday afternoon ordering desks and other equipment for the new school house at Henley.

Dr. R. R. Hamilton has purchased from M. L. Anderson the house and lot at the corner of Seventh and Walnut streets. The doctor has been occupying the residence for the past year.

J. M. Platts is suffering from a severe cut on one of his hands, due to falling on the lid of a bucket. It was necessary for the doctor to take several stitches in the wound and it will be many days before Mr. Platts will have the full use of his hand.

F. L. Pierce, assistant secretary of the Mesa County Poultry Association, Grand Junction, Colo., arrived here Sunday. He has heard much about the greatness of Klamath County as a poultry section and he is here to see for himself and also to report conditions to many of his Mesa County friends.

W. P. Strandborg, of the Portland Telegram, and W. J. Byner, who came here with Mr. Lavey and party, left on Saturday's train for Portland. They were both very highly impressed with Klamath Falls and the county, and have promised to return. Mr. Byner represents several business concerns, who are contemplating going into business here. He expects to return here some time in June.

A Snap for You

Beautiful designs and color set while the stock is new.

1910-WALL PAPER-1910

Now is the time to serings. Cheap and up to date.

PHONE 954.

BAMBER & PEAIRS, The Decorators

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary

DON J. ZUMWALT, President

E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer

Abstracting

Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc.

Surveying and Irrigation Engineering

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Among the guests at the American Friday were Grant Gay and C. C. Thilberton, Merrill; H. G. Laughton, Oakland.

The ladies of the Pocahontas lodge have postponed their entertainment and dance until some time in April. The date will be announced later.

F. M. Thompson, formerly Southern Pacific agent in this city, arrived here Wednesday on business connected with his duties as traveling freight and passenger agent for the same company.

L. V. Comstock and C. A. Breustle are associated in contracting and building. They are now putting in the new shelving and counters in the new store of the Monarch Mercantile Company.

The dance given Tuesday night by Ewauna Lodge No. 137, Woodmen, brought out a goodly crowd of dancers. Good music was furnished by the Baldwin Orchestra. Supper was served at 11:30, there being eighty-five guests at the banquet table. The entertainment goes down on record as a marked success.

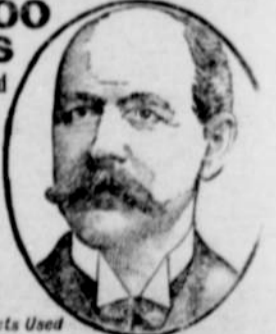

The dance given by the Volunteer Firemen of Klamath Falls at the Opera House Friday was a decided success and the firemen should be complimented on having made it so, both financially and socially. The number of those showing lack of sleep last night is only justified by the good time they had the night before.

W. I. Clark left for Portland and Seattle on business connected with the new saw mill which he is to build on the Upper Lake.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00, $3.50, $4.00 & $5.00 SHOES

Best in the World UNION MADE Boys' Shoes $2.00 and $2.50

W. L. Douglas shoes are the lowest price, quality considered, in the world. Their excellent style, easy fitting and long wearing qualities excel those of other makes. If you have been paying high prices for your shoes, the next time you need a pair give W. L. Douglas shoes a trial. You can save money on your footwear and get shoes that are just as good in every way as those that have been costing you higher prices.

If you could visit our large factories at Brockton, Mass., and see for yourself how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better and wear longer than other makes.

CAUTION—W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on the bottom in plain, legible characters. High prices and inferior shoes. Make No Mistake. If W. L. Douglas shoes are not for sale in your vicinity, write for Mail Order Catalog, W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

K. SUGARMAN