

A NEW STORE WITH NEW GOODS,
NEW METHODS AND NEW PRICES.

According to Previous Announcements the doors of the New Store will swing open Saturday, Apr. 2

though the stocks will not be complete for another week. This we very much regret as it is our ambition to make this store the

and we were especially anxious to have every department filled to overflowing with bright, new merchandise opening day. However, at the most it will be but a few short days until our entire stocks will be on display subject to your careful inspection, and we feel safe in making the prediction that you'll not find a better place to supply your wants than at this store. Everything to wear for everybody covers the field completely, and at prices from 25 to 40 per cent lower than you are used to paying. We do not make this statement with disrespect to the merchants of Klamath County, but our system of handling merchandise is entirely different, our methods of buying (being connected with more than forty other stores) enables us to buy in quantities that a single merchant cannot hope to do, and when you stop to consider this advantage alone it will be easily seen that we are in a position to do exactly as we say, sell you the world's best merchandise at a lower price.

We ask you to expect more of us than any other store and we'll see that you are not disappointed.

Our Mission in Klamath Falls

is not to destroy and condemn, but to assist and improve. We are not here for a short time, to do business on the get-rich-quick plan, but tomorrow is more important with us than today. We want to make this store a better store next month than it is this month; to do a greater volume of business next year than we'll do this year. To grow and grow in keeping with Southern Oregon's new metropolis, and to give you a store that will be second to none in the entire country. We ask your support on the merits of our merchandise and the manner in which we handle same.

ACCUSED OF FORGETTING FRIENDS

TRYING TO REGAIN POLITICAL PRESTIGE HE HAS LOST

Has Established a Pretty Good Reputation for Making and Breaking Promises

Mayor Sanderson is working hard to regain his old-time prestige among the voters of the city, but it is evident from his peevishness that he is not meeting with the success he would desire. During his tenure of office, and in fact ever since he was honored by being sent to the council, he has worked assiduously for political favor. He has never hesitated to cast off old friends and take on new ones. This policy is coming home to roost with a vengeance. One of the meanest things that can be said about a man is that he goes back on his friends, and there are many in the city who are today making that statement about the mayor. It is a difficult matter to prove the truth or falsity of such a charge, but it is a pretty well established fact that Sanderson has sought to promote his political welfare through the making of promises that he never kept. And a man who will not keep political promises is apt to forget the friends who helped to make him. It is to the failure to keep these promises that every politician must attribute his defeat. When the public is certain that their ideal is made of bad material they soon pass him by, and it would seem that this is to be the case with Sanderson.

The vehemence with which Willits is declaring that he would not accept the nomination for mayor is beginning to bear in on his friends and they are exhibiting signs of fear that he really means what he says and will stay out. Willits has a faculty of doing just such things. While he would make a strong race, there are stronger men in the city. The one big handicap that he would have to labor along with is his connection with the bank combine. Ever since these institutions issued the statement that they would have to call in their loans if the farmers did not do thus and so, there has been a rising feeling against the banks of the city. This was added to when the fight was started to put the Herald out of business, and the direct threat was alleged to have been made to some of the business men that if they did not cease to do business with the Herald their credit would be chopped off. Some of the weak-kneed ones were scared into line, but the others were not. There, also, is Willits in connection with Charlie Moore. Everyone knows that when Moore takes snuff Willits sneezes until he is told to quit. And the people of Klamath Falls would be loath to have as their executive a man who would wear leading strings so willingly. But nevertheless, Mr. Willits has many admirable points, declare his friends, and if he would only consent to be a candidate they could place him in the mayoralty chair without trouble.

ROOSEVELT DEFIES THE EGYPTIAN NATIONALISTS

United Press Service.

CAIRO, Egypt, March 28.—Disregarding the warning that had been sent him by the Nationalists, Roosevelt in his address at the University of Egypt today took a square stand for law enforcement, denouncing the recent assassination of Premier Bouaros, Pasha, so vigorously that he surprised even those knowing the Colonel's fearlessness. The Nationalists were charged with the responsibility of the assassination. Despite the fact that many of the students and faculty of the university are in sympathy with the Nationalists, there was so much in the address appealing to the enlightened Egyptians, regardless of politics, that the Colonel was warmly applauded and congratulated at the end of his address.

EFFORTS MADE TO BUY THEM OFF

S. O. JOHNSON NAILS CANARD THAT IS GAINING STRENGTH

The Klamath Development Company Stands Ready to Make Its Offer Good

For the past several days there has been current on the streets of the city a rumor to the effect that the Klamath Development Company was on the point of withdrawing its offer of the free court house site made to the county court some weeks ago. The basis for the rumor was that the offer was originally made for the purpose of securing advertising that would prove a valuable aid in bringing about the sale of lots in the Hot Springs addition. It was further stated that all but a few lots in the addition have been sold and that now the company was seeking a loophole to withdraw the offer, in order that it might sell the property and realize its value, which is something over $30,000.

To reach the bottom of the story and secure affirmation or denial direct from Mr. S. O. Johnson, president of the Klamath Development Company, this paper wired the fact to that gentleman, and in reply Monday received the following telegram:

"To The Republican: The rumor referred to in your telegram had already reached my ears, and I was about to take steps to deny it when your message reached me. I am glad to avail myself of the use of your valuable publication to convey to the people of Klamath Falls and Klamath County that the Klamath Development Company stands ready to make good its offer of a free court house site. Let it be understood that our company does not recede from its position. Emissaries have come to us with offers to buy this property at a good figure, giving as a reason that it was too valuable to be given away, but all these have been turned down. The Klamath Development Company has no desire to withdraw its offer and all efforts to bring about such an act will prove unavailing."

"S. O. JOHNSON, President Klamath Development Company."

Under the able management of W. S. Worden and the wide publicity given the property of the Hot Springs Company, the sales of lots have been phenomenal. There had been no secrecy about this. The fact that all of the property in the vicinity of the proffered site, as well as the larger proportion of that remaining unsold in the tract, has been disposed of has led the designing ones to grab onto this fact as a last straw. The foolishness of their position is proven by Mr. Johnson's reply. The property offered the county can be disposed of for over $30,000, and since all of the property that might be affected by the removal of the court house has been sold it can readily be seen that Mr. Johnson and his associates have no selfish motive back of their offer to the county. It is what they have contended, and what this paper contended—an effort to secure for Klamath Falls the best means of advertising that can be secured through the erection of a fine public building.
