Rector is an expert linotype man, having been with the Herald since coming to Klamath Falls. This paper regrets to lose his services, and hopes that he has become sufficiently inoculated with the Klamath spirit to make him come back again.

The many friends of Alex Martin Sr. will be grieved to learn of his serious illness at the home of his daughter in Fresno, Cal. Mr. Martin's illness is due to rheumatism, complicated with stomach disorders. Arrangements are being made to have him taken to one of the California hot springs, where it is hoped he will be once more restored to his former robust health. His host of friends in this county will anxiously await a favorable report of his improvement, and hope they may be able to welcome him back here this summer. Mr. Martin is of a different calibre from the average man, as will be testified to by many residents of this county. His policy was never one of destruction, but rather of assistance, and it is this fact that has won for him the love of so many of the early settlers of this county.

LINEMAN EARL IS NEARLY ELECTROCUTED

Head Comes in Contact With Power Wire While Working on Pole

Martin Earl, a lineman in the employ of the Light and Water company, was nearly electrocuted at 1 o'clock Tuesday while at work at the top of the pole at the corner of Fourth and Main streets. Earl had just ascended to complete some work on which he had been employed before dinner. While engaged in fastening the safety strap the back of his head came in contact with the power wire which carries 2,300 volts. His assistant saw him fall backward and immediately came to his assistance. He succeeded in removing him from his dangerous position, and with the aid of other employees Earl was lowered to the ground.

The electricity had burned a small hole in the back of his head and had severely shocked him. After a few moments he recovered sufficiently to walk a short distance, when he was taken to his room in an automobile.

Mr. Earl came here from Cottage Grove, his home, about a month ago to enter the employ of the Light and Water company. He has been a lin-man for many years, but this is the first time he has met with any serious injury from a live wire. It is expected that he will be able to resume his duties within a few days.

EIGHTH GRADE RECEPTION

The eighth grade of the public school gave a reception Monday evening in honor of their teacher, Miss Drew, and the rest of the faculty. The students planned and carried out an excellent program, as follows:

Music, by High School Orchestra.

Song, "The Invitation," by Eighth Grade pupils.

Short Address, "Self Control," by Superintendent Swan.

Vocal Solo, Miss Florence Santima.

Short Address, "Mexico," Father Cunningham.

Instrumental Solo, Beatrice Clendenning.

Short Address, "A More Difficult Aim," Wm. N. Vallandigham.

Vocal Solo, Mrs. Gamble.

Reading, Miss Grace Anderson.

Music, High School Orchestra.

Song, "Hark to the Bugle," Eighth Grade Students.

After the program the friends and visitors were served with delicious refreshments in the way of ice cream, cake and candies.

The manner in which the program was planned and carried out showed that the pupils have been well trained while passing through the public school.

During the evening Walter Donart, on behalf of his classmates, presented Miss Drew and Professor Dunbar each a beautiful present in token of the love and esteem that the eighth grade hold for their teacher and superintendent. Professor Dunbar was also the recipient of a present from the teachers of the public school, showing their appreciation for his excellent supervision and help during the school year. Miss Nickerson made the presentation speech, while Professor Dunbar and Miss Drew gave heartfelt responses for the gifts they had received.

There will be forty pupils to take the examination, which is a remarkable record, as only forty-three were enrolled, and it is seldom that so many can be held throughout the year and for the final examinations.

Altogether the occasion was a most enjoyable one, and the parents and friends that were present were generally entertained. Klamath Falls should be proud of her public school system, and ever guard it with a jealous eye.

ROOSEVELT WAS NOT MET BY THE GERMAN TROOPS

Report That He Was Half an Hour Late Caused the Mistake

BERLIN, May 19.—Owing to a report that Roosevelt was half an hour late the Imperial Guard was not present when the party arrived here today. The kaiser is very angry over this seeming discourtesy, and immediately dispatched an aide to Colonel Roosevelt, conveying his regrets. Mr. Roosevelt took a taxicab to the embassy, realizing, of course, that by some unfortunate mistake the customary reception was lacking. In view of the fact that the kaiser is in mourning on account of King Edward's death, all meetings of Colonel Roosevelt will necessarily have to be informal.
