

BRIEF MENTION

R. Wooden came in from Merrill Friday.

E. T. Hosley is a visitor in the city from Merrill.

F. P. Van Meter of Merrill was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. M. Hougham arrived Tuesday evening from Wood.

A. B. Crawford and family are in the city from Bonanza.

S. O. Johnson left Saturday to be absent for several days.

Arthur Livermore left Saturday for a visit to San Francisco.

E. T. Thurman was in the city on a visit from Merrill Saturday.

Joe Pierce left on Saturday's train for a short visit in Portland.

Jas. H. Driscoll was a visitor in the city from Bonanza Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Childers were in the city Saturday from Yonna valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis are the parents of a baby girl, born on Sunday.

L. Jacobs of this city left Wednesday morning on a business trip to Bonanza.

Farmers throughout the valley are working on their ditches getting them in readiness to irrigate their grain.

Archie Colson is a visitor in the city today from his ranch on business connected with the reclamation service.

F. D. Fisher of the Wells Fargo company is a guest at the Livermore, coming in Tuesday night from Redding, Calif.

W. T. Smith was in the city Wednesday from his ranch. He has just completed building four miles of fence on his place.

C. F. Galarneau left Wednesday for a three-months' visit to his old home in Logansport, Ind., and other sections of the East.

Wm. Rogers is in the city with associates from Portland, looking over the real estate situation with regard to investments.

J. T. Anderson and J. Postlethwaite of Portland have been in the city for the last few days looking over the business prospects here.

The Masten rooming house has been repainted, and presents a much better appearance.

Mrs. Wm. Gilson and daughter of Tulare, Calif., arrived Friday night and left Saturday morning for Dairy to visit relatives.

M. McFee, C. J. Johnson, George Nelson and Wm. Becker of Seattle arrived Thursday by auto on a trip through the country.

Chas. V. Broad and A. M. Kinney are guests at the Livermore from Astoria. These gentlemen are looking over the prospects in Klamath Falls.

Rev. G. Feese's small dog, which has been absent for the last six weeks, has returned home, but is giving out no information as to his recent travels.

The Methodist Sunday school held its annual picnic in the courthouse grounds Saturday. It was greatly enjoyed by all the youngsters, and a good time and good things to eat were coming to all.

C. T. Oliver is planning a baseball tournament during the socialist encampment. The tournament will last a week, and Mr. Oliver says he will have the best teams that can be gotten in the surrounding country including the all-star Indian team from the Agency.

F. C. Markwardt, who has five acres in the Mills addition, has developed two fine hot springs on his place. He has had the water analyzed, and it compares most favorably with the celebrated Carlsbad waters of Germany.

Those who have tickets for the High School commencement week may have the coupon for the Senior play reserved any time at Dunham's confectionery. Also single admission may be had for 50 cents and season tickets for 75 cents at the same place.

A number of capitalists from San Francisco have bought the Royce ranch half way between Crescent and Crescent lake. They will build a club house and have the ranch for hunting and fishing purposes. A force of men are now at work constructing an automobile road from there to Klamath Falls.

A. M. Erickson and niece were in the city Friday from Modoc Point.

Rev. J. W. Bryant has been under the weather for several days, but is rapidly improving.

The Epworth League will give an entertainment and social this evening at the Methodist church.

H. Rogers, an old-time resident of Portland, is in the city looking over the situation here. He says he had heard so much of Klamath Falls he would not be satisfied until he had seen it.

P. C. Lavey & Co., who are acting as selling agents for several of the Klamath Development company's town sites, were dined 55 lots in the town of Worden by the Development company Tuesday.

Ned Lysle is here from Harrisburg, Pa., visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wiley of the reclamation service. Mr. Lysle is en route to Los Angeles and other points south, and may return here and engage in business.

Tuesday's stage for Lakeview left the American hotel on time, with the following passengers: Geo. T. Cline and Chas. Dumar, booked to Bly; C. L. Stickney to Lakeview; L. Schultz to Bonanza, and J. Winters to Olene.

E. R. Dyer of San Francisco, D. A. Catford of Oakland, Chas. Flint of Dunsmuir and G. W. Palmeter of Dunsmuir arrived Tuesday on a tour of the country in an automobile. They are on their way to Crescent, Bend and the Deschutes country.

The Merrill baseball team sent word to the Klamath High School left Wednesday that they would be over Thursday for a game in the afternoon. The High School will have the same lineup as usual, with Vernon Moteschenbacher and Ort Artoild as the battery.

Joel T. Ward on Saturday closed a deal on lot 8 and the east 50 feet of lot 7 in block 29, selling the property to Portland capitalists for $16,175. The property is better known as the corner now occupied by the Klamath barn. The Portland people will build a two-story brick building on the property. The plans are now being prepared. This is considered

FREE! FREE! FREE!

A high grade, natural tone Talking and Singing Machine FREE

Call at our store and hear the specially prepared Records of Bands and other Instrumental Music, Songs, Stories, Recitations, etc., and assure yourself that this is the best offered. You buy only the Records

Remember that this offer will only be for a short time, as our supply of machines is limited. Come early and take advantage of this fine offer

One Standard Talking Machine with Handsome Flower Horn FREE to every Customer whose Cash Purchases amount to $35

See and hear this wonderful instrument and learn how easily you can obtain one. Only one machine to a home

The Portland Store

The home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Next door to the Postoffice

Klamath Falls, Oregon

PHONE 1051

M. M. CO.

PHONE 1051

Klamath Department Store

Groceries, Dry Goods Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings

You can supply your needs here in the shortest possible time and with the greatest possible satisfaction. Numbers of people have found this out, and we want you to make a voyage of discovery here the next time you want anything to wear to eat

DRY GOODS

Fancy Hosiery, Neckwear, Embroideries, Laces, Lingerie Waists, Silk Waists, Muslin Underwear, Silk Kimonas, Net Waists, Silk Gloves, Kid Gloves, Fancy Dress Suitings, Wash Goods, etc.

DOMESTICS

Lace Curtains, Draperies, Muslins, Table Linen, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Toweling, Fancy and Plain Bed Spreads. All are guaranteed values

GROCERIES

We carry a complete line of Preferred Stock Canned Peaches, Pears, Plums, Grapes, Cherries, Blackberries, Raspberries, Loganberries, Strawberries, Pineapple, Pumpkins, Corn, Peas, Tomatoes—Everything in canned goods

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES ARRIVING ON EVERY EXPRESS

MONARCH MERCANTILE CO.

[INCORPORATED]

as one of the best buys in the city, being slightly over $140 a foot.

Mrs. McKay left Friday morning for Odessa.

Abel Ady was in the city Friday from his ranch near Midland.

R. C. Spink left Friday morning on the Curlew for his home at the Agency.

Malcom & Goddard have received recently from Berkeley a canoe to be used on the Upper lake.

H. B. Millard, who is interested in Yonna valley property, came in from Lakeview Thursday and left for Portland Friday morning.

Miss Anna Applegate left last Saturday to take a summer school at Clear Lake.

Lupe Clapp left Friday for Lakeview by auto, with a load of passengers.

Business lots are on the boom in the new town of Crescent, there having been over a hundred sold up to date.

Dr. R. E. Dunlap, district superintendent of the Methodist church, has been a visitor in the city recently from Ashland.

The steamer Klamath, loaded on two flat cars, was Saturday taken to the Upper lake, where she will be repaired and put in commission.

Ignace Cacka has completed the purchase of a big ranch in the Lakeside tract at Tule Lake, from the Lakeside company. The price paid was $4,829.50.

Henry Rabbes of the Home Realty company is taking a party of land-seekers through Poe, Yonna and Langell valleys.

The Ladies' Aid society recently gave the Methodist church a present of a new Brussels carpet for the altar and new pulpit furniture.

M. F. Thurmond, an investor of Tacoma, Wash., who has been in the city looking over this country, has returned to his home for the present.

The renovation of the Klamath house is about completed. Under the new management the place will afford first class accommodations for many of the newcomers.

G. H. A. Beermann, traveling missionary colporteur of the International Association, left last Friday to walk to Lakeview. He is a pioneer missionary, and a heroic type of the veteran of the Civil War.

C. T. Oliver was unable to get the game Sunday with the Indians, as they were already engaged.

Paul O. Kessig is in the city from Santiago. He is an expert draughtsman, and expects to locate here.

C. H. Underwood returned Monday night from San Francisco, where he has been for the past two weeks on business.

August Rollins, a land owner of Moscow, Idaho, and F. Rogers of Portland, are here to study the land situation.

A. S. Cormack, formerly of the Morning Express left last Friday for the Erickson & Peterson camp, where he will occupy a position as timekeeper.

A. J. Richter is here from La Grande, Ore., looking after his property interests in this city. He was here a few years ago and invested in some city lots. He says he can see a wonderful growth in Klamath Falls.

J. Vineandy, J. M. Etner, F. L. Bunting, Guy B. Walker and Douglas D. Ganhar arrived Thursday in an auto from Bend. Mr. Vineandy will establish an auto business at Crescent.

The reclamation service has been very active lately getting the farmers to sign up for the drainage of Lost river. Mr. Wiley as right of way agent is urging all land owners to submit definite proposition relative to prices.

Ed Jacobson returned Monday from Keno, where he went to ship some big timbers for his house moving operations in this city. The timbers were secured from the Towers place, and some of them were as long as 62 feet. They will be hauled by steamer to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Abbott Tuesday for Salem, Ore., where Abbott has been called by the serious illness of his mother. Mr. Abbott has been working in the Herald job office for a short time, and intended taking a camping trip to Pelican bay, if he had not been called away.

Frank Smith, Frank Richards, Jack Wells, Kid O'Brien and Sam Carlyle arrived here Tuesday night, coming down the lake on the Curlew from the Long Lake Lumber company's camp. The boys have been swinging the axe some time in the timber, and are in town for a vacation, and incidentally to take in the boxing exhibition between Morrissey and McLellan Friday night.

Arrivals at the Livermore: A. L. Blumberg, Los Angeles; J. J. Brown and wife, Guy C. Browne and wife, Marysville; E. Jensen and wife, S. F. Williams, Los Angeles; H. S. Schilling, Salem; W. A. Williams, Portland; E. T. Hosley, Merrill; W. Byer, Fred Snow, Carl Spuhn and Walker Widman, Ashland; W. R. Hall, Reno; C. A. De La Mater, Redding; Chas. V. Galloway, J. B. Eaton, Salem; Mrs. M. Hougham, Weed; A. B. Crawford and family, Bonanza; H. Clark, Santa Monica; H. G. Fisher, Dunsmuir; C. J. Olmstead, Chicago.

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary

DON J. ZUMWALT, President

Abstracting

E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer

Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc
Surveying and Irrigation Engineering
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON