

BIG REWARD FOR MURDERER

PARENTS OF BOYS AND LAKE COUNTY OFFER $2,000.

A SHORT HISTORY OF THE TRAGEDY

Was One of the Most Cold-Blooded Ever Committed in This Part of the State

The following account of the tragedy which occurred in Lake county last Thursday is taken from an extra issued by the Lakeview Examiner of last Saturday:

Without doubt the most shocking tragedy that has occurred in the history of Lake county happened Thursday evening at a point on Honey creek, about five miles northwest of Plush, when Herbert and Walter Newell were shot and killed by Ike Harrold, known also by the name of Bolliver or Dolliver.

News of the terrible tragedy did not reach Lakeview until about noon Friday, and immediately Sheriff Dent formed a posse and left by auto for the scene of the crime. Other parties left during the afternoon, including Deputy District Attorney Venator and Deputy Sheriff Snider, while practically every available man in Warner started in search for the murderer as soon as the crime was discovered.

There are many different versions of the terrible affair, but as near as can be ascertained at this time the facts are about as follows:

The shooting occurred Thursday evening, and Dick Allen, a herder in the employ of the boys, saw one shot fired. He was some distance away and saw Harrold and one of the boys holding an animated conversation, whom he took for Herbert, and suddenly Harrold raised his gun and struck the boy, knocking him down. Walter then came to his rescue, whereupon Harrold drew his gun and shot him.

Allen was coming into supper at the time and was on horseback. As soon as he saw what was occurring he wheeled his horse and struck out for the range, where he remained all night. Early the next morning he went into Plush, but was afraid that Harrold was there and would kill him, and left without awakening anyone and giving the alarm.

He then returned and gathered up the sheep, and on reaching the camp found the dead body of one of the boys, thought to be that of Herbert, his head having been torn by a shot fired at close range.

Allen was so badly frightened at the sight of the tragedy that he could not locate the place of the first shooting, although he thinks Walter was killed where the alteration first took place.

It appears that the boys had two camps some two miles apart, and that the alteration took place near the camp furthest from Plush. It is the supposition that Harrold thought that he had killed Herbert with the first shot, but in this he was mistaken, for he was subsequently found at the camp where he had gone and laid down in his bunk.

As to Walter, reports are not clear, but it is generally supposed that he was making his way toward the upper camp when Harrold shot and killed him, afterward going to the other camp, where he found Herbert and then completed his terrible work.

The body of Walter was found at 3:30 Saturday morning, half a mile or so from the camp, he having been killed instantly. Herbert's escape to the camp is therefore somewhat mystifying.

Up to 11 o'clock Saturday morning no trace of Harrold had been found.

Arrangements had been made to commence shearing Friday morning at Plush corral, but the sheep not arriving Nolan Curry, who was in charge of the plant, went out to learn the cause of their non-arrival, with the result as stated above.

Harrold had been in the employ of the Newell boys, and his work not proving satisfactory, he was discharged. In settling up he seems to have become greatly incensed over what he considered an injustice done him, and thereupon committed the deed.

Harrold is a character well known in Lakeview and Warner, he having been here about four years. He drove the Plush stage for a time last spring, and was never considered a dangerous man. It is said that Harrold ate breakfast at Plush Friday morning, after which he started for Lakeview. Parties claim to have seen him some four miles this side of that place, and since then no trace of him has been found.

Herbert and Walter Newell were aged about 24 and 22 years respectively, and were born and raised in Lake county. They owned about 4,000 sheep, having got their start by raising a few pet lambs. They were well known as energetic young men, and stood high in the estimation of all who knew them. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell, are pioneers of Lake county, and the heartfelt sympathy of all goes out to them in their terrible affliction.

R. J. Mack, familiarly known as Shorty, brought the body of Herbert in from Plush this morning, and it is now at the rooms in the Bunting building opposite the Odd Fellows' hall.

The tragedy is a great shock to the community, and the telephone office has been constantly thronged by persons anxious to learn the details of the crime. Miss Alice McGrath, the operator, kept the office open all night, and is entitled to much credit for her courtesy and willingness to give all information in her possession.

A reward of $2,000 has been offered for the apprehension of Harrold—$1,000 by the parents of the boys and $1,000 by the county.

The description received by Sheriff Barnes of Harrold is as follows:

He is a French Canadian, 45 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs 190 pounds; dark complexion, has dark hair mixed with a few gray ones, heavy dark mustache; he wears a number ten shoe, making a track 12 3-4 inches in length; he wore a chinchilla coat and pants, size 42-32; has hobnails in his shoes, ones in heel being larger than those in the toe. He took breakfast at Plush, and was seen on the road about six miles from Lakeview, but since then all trace of him has been lost.

WILL SUBMIT PLANS FOR A CLASS-A BUILDING

Architect G. E. McDonald says he is making plans at his own expense of a fire-proof building throughout of the class-A style, which he will submit to the building committee of the Odd Fellows' lodge. This is done on account of the scarcity of brick, as well as the probable raise in price should the brick prove merchantable. Mr. McDonald states that the masonry is the expensive part of the building, and that brick at $18 per thousand in the wall is equal in bulk to reinforced concrete at $12 per yard, and that one-half the number of yards in bulk of concrete will do the work. This, taken together with the wages for laying brick at $7 per day is more than three times as high as the labor used in concrete construction. This saves the importation and cost of structural steel, and will make a reduction approximately of $6,500, as well as save the cost on annual insurance.

GALLAGHER IS LOCATED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Living Quietly With His Daughter, and Has No Desire to Return to San Francisco

United Press Service.
VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—Jas. L. Gallagher, formerly one of the board of supervisors of San Francisco, who was discovered in his retreat north of this city, stated today: "There is nothing in the statement that overtures have been made to me by the Ruff prosecution to keep me away. I believe the prosecution has used my absence as an excuse to drop the case. If what the prosecution claims is true, they have evidence enough to convict Ruff and all others connected with the boodling in the Bay City."

STORM IN MISSOURI INFLECTS HEAVY DAMAGE

Three Hundred Thousand Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed

United Press Service.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 9.—Three hundred thousand dollars' worth of damage was done by the cyclone which swept Missouri last night. Communication with many of the cities of the state has been destroyed. The state penitentiary at Jefferson city was partially destroyed, five of the buildings being unroofed and the light plant damaged. There was no panic among the convicts in their cells. The loss will be close to $600,000. No deaths have been reported, but the list of injured throughout the state will be a long one.

BIG CHICAGO BANKS ARE CONSOLIDATED

Porkopolis Will Have the Second Largest Bank in America

CHICAGO, June 11.—The Commercial Commission and Continental banks were consolidated today. The capital will be $20,000,000, surplus $12,000,000, deposits $185,000,000. It is the second largest bank in the United States, the National City bank of New York being the largest.

MEANS BIG DEVELOPMENT THERE THE SALARY ORDINANCE IS PASSED

WORK BEGUN TODAY TO CONNECT IT WITH MAIN LINE

Simply Another Step Toward Creating a Manufacturing Center for This City

Work was commenced Friday on the construction of a railroad spur on the main line of the Southern Pacific to Shippington, the new manufacturing center of the city. The laying of this track was the final step toward creating this new center of industrial activity, which in time will be the fountainhead of all the manufacturing part of this city.

Already located in Shippington is the big mill of the Long Lake Lumber company and the factory of the Great Northern Box company. To these will be added the mill of the Clark Innis company, which will probably remove the old Moore Brothers' mill to that point this fall. In addition to these there are several other enterprises booked for location there, and it is not unlikely that within the next year there will be made an announcement that will be of startling interest to the city.

NIGHT RIDERS ASSASSINATE IMPORTANT STATE WITNESS

Judge Robinson Is Victim of an Ambuscade

United Press Service.

PRINCETON, Ky., June 10.—Judge Robinson, one of the important witnesses for the state in the cases against the night riders, now pending in the state courts, was shot from ambush last night and instantly killed. The news of his assassination has stirred the country as has no event since the commencement of the crimes of the riders. The judge was one of the most fearless and popular men in this part of the state, and his murder has filled the country with indignation. It is only an indication of the desperation to which the riders are driven, and may be the commencement of a feud that will be more far reaching than any in the history of the state.

AN OLD SETTLER TO LEAVE KLAMATH FALLS

Bertha Conners and little daughter, Lorene, and Miss Octavia Arnett, her sister, will leave on the morning train for Oakland, where they will visit with Mr. Arnett's mother for a few weeks. Mrs. Conners' health has been quite poorly since coming here a few weeks ago, the altitude affecting her.

While these ladies are visiting they will also keep on the watch for a pleasant location for a home, as their father, Mr. Arnett, and the balance of the family expect to follow them to California in the near future, where they will establish a home in a milder climate.

The Arnetts are old settlers, they having reared a large family here, and their decision to leave Klamath Falls will be regretted by their many and life-long acquaintances.

MEXICAN EXILE APPEALS TO PRESIDENT TAFT

Asks Him to Use His Influence to Permit His Return to Mexico

United Press Service.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Heriberto Barron, exiled republican-democratic candidate for the presidency of Mexico, today wrote a letter to President Taft, asking him to use his influence to secure a permit for his return to Mexico. In his letter he states that he is "not exiled for heading a revolt or because he has been guilty of anything unconstitutional, but for being a candidate for the presidency." He denounces President Diaz as a tyrant.

TO MEET THE WANDERER

Members of Ex-President's Cabinet Chosen to Greet Him on His Return to His Country

United Press Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—President Taft has appointed Secretaries Wilson and Meyer to meet Colonel Roosevelt at New York when he returns. Captain Butt will accompany them. The party will carry a letter of greeting from President Taft welcoming Roosevelt back. Secretary Wilson and Secretary Meyer were selected for this pleasant duty on account of their having been members of Roosevelt's cabinet.

COMMITTED TO ASYLUM

Chas. Halbele, a native of Sweden, 45 years of age, who was taken off the streets several weeks ago and placed in the poorhouse, was brought before the county judge Friday for examination and pronounced insane by the county physician, Geo. I. Wright, and was committed to the asylum at Salem.

CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS IS PROPOSED OF BY CITY DADS

Plumbing Ordinance Is Referred to Committee on Public Health for Amendment

Council met Wednesday evening at the usual hour. In the absence of Judge Leavitt, Councilman Castel acted as recorder.

Among the first matters considered was the granting of building permits. J. V. Houston was granted a permit for a frame building on Second street, to be erected subject to the instructions and supervision of the council.

G. A. Schenecker, one-story building on lot 2, block 15, Ewauna addition.

In the matter of leaving teams unhitched on Main street it was discovered that there was no ordinance compelling people to either tie or fasten a weight to their teams when left standing in the street. It was the sense of the council that such an ordinance be drafted at once.

In regard to vacating the alley in block 88, which the city owns, it was decided all that would be necessary was to pass an ordinance to that effect.

The question of paying from $75 to $125 for the wiring of Main street for the coming celebration was referred to the Light and Water committee.

Members of the council then discussed the matter of the granting licenses to the hawkers, peddlers and the running of games etc., during the encampment of the socialists. This was finally referred to the mayor.

In the matter of connecting the laterals to the main sewer the city attorney instructed the council that the expense of such connecting could be governed by police regulations under the penal code. This will be brought up at next meeting.

Next came the option on property selected for a city hall. It was claimed by the parties selling that the option was not good, but the city attorney had reported that a tender be made for the property before the expiration of the option on June 15th. The mayor appointed the following councilmen on the committee to look after the matter: Stone, Hanks, Summers, Obenchain and Wilkins, who are to meet at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon to settle this business.

One of the most important matters coming before the council was the passing of an ordinance regulating the salary of the police judge and the city attorney, or rather, an amendment to a former ordinance. The amendment placed the salary of the police judge at $1,200 per annum, payable monthly, and that of the city attorney at $1,000 per annum, payable monthly. This brought out some discussion as to whether or not the salary of the police judge was not too high, but on putting it to vote it carried, Hanks being the only one voting against it.

The ordinance for fixing sewers and regulating plumbing of all connections thereto was discussed at some length. The mayor referred the ordinance to the Health committee, consisting of Wilkins, Waldron and Faught.

The bond of George B. Snyder as policeman was then approved, after which an ordinance was introduced by Hanks for the repairing of a portion of several streets was passed to second reading.

When the ordinance for granting a franchise to the Oregon Independent Telephone company came up for its second reading, the papers could not be found. After an unsuccessful search for them the matter was put over until the next meeting.

Mr. Gowen then asked that some change be made in the grading of streets abutting his property, but no action was taken in the matter.

The council then adjourned until Friday evening.

PREPARING FOR STREET PAVING

CROSSWALKS BEING REMOVED BY MAYOR SANDERSON

EXPECT TO START AUGUST FIRST

All Obstacles to the Rapid Completion of Work Will Be Removed in Advance

The first move to be made toward the paving of Main street occurred Monday, when, under the direction of Mayor Sanderson, all of the crosswalks on that thoroughfare were removed. The best of them are to be taken to other parts of the city, where they are needed, while those that are of no value were taken to the dock of the Navigation company, to be disposed of in some manner not yet decided upon. In addition to removing them preparatory to the paving of the street, the mayor stated that most of them would interfere with the digging of the laterals to the main sewer, and would have to be removed on that account, so he thought that it might as well be all done at once.

It is expected that the contracts for paving will be let in time to permit the successful bidder commencing work by August 1, which is only six weeks away. The removal of the crosswalks may result in a little inconvenience in case of rain, but it will be so slight that it will be forgotten in memory of the paving of the street, something which everyone has been looking forward to with a great deal of satisfaction.

Whether the proposed demand that the paving bids be thrown open to competition will have the result of tying the matter up for any particular length of the remains to be seen. If any one should get stubborn and play a game of freezeout the removal of the crosswalks will prove to have been a serious mistake. As the matter now stands there should not be a longer delay than two weeks, if the council decides to overrule the mayor, which from present indications will prove to be the case. The usual notice to the property owners will be insisted in the papers following which the advertisement for bids will be made, when all bidders can then come in.

The imperative necessity for the paving of Main street from the depot to the bridge makes it incumbent on everyone to get in and do his best to bring about an adjustment of any controversy that may arise, in order that he work proceeds as expeditiously as possible. This is a matter in which every citizen is interested, and one in which everyone seems to be of one mind.
