

BRIEF MENTION

M. Fleet left on Friday's stage for Bonanza.
 Harry Trainor of Merrill is in town on a business trip.
 Miss Pearl Davidson was in the city from Midland Saturday.
 A. D. Wooden of Merrill was in the city Friday on business.
 H. J. Christmas was in town from his home near Dairy Friday.
 Guy Merrill was in town Friday, and registered at the Livermore.
 Miss Mary and Mamie Erickson of Modoc Point are visiting friends in the city.
 M. J. Phelan of Seattle is in the city. Mr. Phelan represents a Milwaukee brush factory.
 Mrs. Harradon and daughter of Seattle arrived on Saturday's train on a visit with Judge and Mrs. George Noland.
 Miss Mabel Campbell left Saturday morning for Sacramento and San Francisco, expecting to be absent about a month.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Worden and son Donald returned from San Francisco Sunday evening.
 D. M. and J. S. Griffith were in the city Friday from their summer resort at Eagle Ridge.
 Frank Adamek, wife and children took passage on the Merrill stage Monday to join the Bohemian colony near Merrill.
 Mrs. Nelson, wife of Herbert Nelson, salesman for the Farmers' Implement company, left on Saturday for Detroit, Mich.
 Emmitt Beeson and wife have returned from their Rigue River ranch, where Mr. Beeson has been looking after his hay crop.
 Miss Nina Noel leads in the contest for Goddess of Liberty. Miss Noel has 1167 votes, while Miss Sanderson has 549 and Miss Bolvin 347.
 Miss Nett R. Drew, one of the principals of the public schools for the coming year, drove in from her home near Dairy Saturday morning.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Spaulding of Phoenix, Ariz., were passengers on the Curlew Wednesday for Upper lake, where they will take a week's outing.

 Born—To the wife of Al Stalman, proprietor of the Little Louvre, a 14-pound boy.
 At the big sale! What? Why, the entire stock of clothing, boots, shoes, hats, ladies' and gents' furnishings, will be sold at cost. Prices talk at Goodrich's Cash Store.
 A deed from the State of Oregon to J. Conners was picked up in the hallway of the courthouse today and left in the care of the clerk. The deed has not been recorded.
 A crew of men started tearing up the crosswalks from the depot to the bridge on Saturday in preparation for the work of paving the streets. That is to be begun later on.
 O. M. Hecton returned on Friday from Portland, where he has been enjoying the beauties of the Rose carnival. Mr. Hecton states that it was one of the most gorgeous sights he ever witnessed.
 Miss Campbell, one of the popular young lady teachers of Klamath Falls, left on Friday's train for San Francisco, where she will spend a few weeks visiting friends there and also in Sacramento.
 Robert Foster of San Francisco arrived Friday night to visit for a week with his brother-in-law, Silas Obenchain. Mr. Foster is connected with the Prudential Insurance company of America. Mrs. Foster has been here about a month.
 Neil Campbell left on Monday morning train for Los Angeles, having received word that his wife is quite ill. It will be necessary that she be operated on, but Mr. and Mrs. Campbell's friends hope that she will undergo the operation successfully and soon regain her strength and health.
 Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Applegate left Saturday morning for Oakland, where they will be present at the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice, which will be solemnized in that city on the 15th. Miss Applegate will be married to Emil Peil of Ashland. After the ceremony they will take an extended wedding trip, returning to Ashland, where they will make their home.

S. O. and W. P. Johnson arrived here Monday evening.
 Judge Benson left for Portland on Wednesday morning's train to attend some legal business.
 Wm. N. Ellis, son of John Ellis of Fort Klamath registered at the Livermore Monday. Mr. Ellis was on his way home from school.
 Miss Cora E. P. Phillips, who has been teaching at Bly, and her sister, Della, were passengers on Monday's train, en route to Salem, where their parents reside.
 A. Cameron and W. J. Irwin, attendants from the State asylum, arrived Sunday and took the parties that have been declared insane back with them to Salem.
 M. J. Rush of Chehalis, Wash., has purchased from Otto F. Anderson 80 acres near Midland, the consideration being $3,000. Mr. Rush will bring his family here about July 1st.
 Ralph Hartin of Roseburg, Ore., left for Lakeview Monday, in company with Mr. Seagard. Mr. Hartin goes to bring back his wife, who has been visiting with relatives.
 N. J. Reasoner and J. A. Smith, two young men from Ashland, spent Sunday in the Falls. They are on an outing trip, and expect to spend some time in the vicinity of Tule lake.
 Miss Mabel Nickerson, who is a former resident of Klamath Falls, has arrived from San Jose, Cal., and will spend the summer visiting with relatives and friends. Miss Nickerson is a niece of W. W. Nickerson of the Monarch Mercantile company.
 A. E. Crance has purchased the John Hammond property on Bush street, between Ninth and Tenth, from John Hammond of Popenish, Wash. The property was purchased through the C. P. Gregory company, the consideration being $3,300.
 L. F. Cronemiller, G. D. Cronemiller, R. T. McKee, W. L. Dutton and Henry Newell, students from Corvallis, were passengers on Monday's stage for Lakeview. The latter is a relative of the two Newell boys who were murdered a few days ago.

We are Agents for

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Holeproof Sox and Florsheim Shoes

Three of the best lines of merchandise in the United States

The Portland Store

The only exclusive men's store in the city
 Next door to the Postoffice
 Klamath Falls, Oregon

PHONE 1051 M. M. CO. PHONE 1051

Klamath Department Store

Groceries, Dry Goods Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings

You can supply your needs here in the shortest possible time and with the greatest possible satisfaction. Numbers of people have found this out, and we want you to make a voyage of discovery here the next time you want anything to wear to eat

DRY GOODS

Fancy Hosiery, Neckwear, Embroideries, Laces, Lingerie Waists, Silk Waists, Muslin Underwear, Silk Kimonos, Net Waists, Silk Gloves, Kid Gloves, Kid Gloves, Fancy Dress Suits, Wash Goods, etc.

DOMESTICS

Lace Curtains, Draperies, Muslins, Table Linen, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Toweling, Fancy and Plain Bed Spreads. All are guaranteed values

GROCERIES

We carry a complete line of Preferred Stock Canned Peaches, Pears, Plums, Grapes, Cherries, Blackberries, Raspberries, Loganberries, Strawberries, Pineapple, Pumpkin, Corn, Peas, Tomatoes—Everything in canned goods

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES ARRIVING ON EVERY EXPRESS

MONARCH MERCANTILE CO.
 [INCORPORATED]

Mrs. O. L. Carter will leave Friday morning for Dallas, Salem, Portland and other points, where she will visit for several weeks with friends and relatives.
 Captain O. C. Applegate, who has been over the state in the interest of the enumeration of the Indians for the government census, returned Monday night.
 H. F. Schweers and J. C. McPherson of Petaluma, Cal., arrived in the city Tuesday, and will spend some time in looking over the country with the view to locating.
 Frank Obenchain of Sprague river was here Saturday, going to Jackson was here Saturday on his way to Jacksonville after his daughter, who has been in school there the past year.
 D. W. Burling, and H. E. Crane returned Tuesday from several weeks trip through the Deschutes country, returning by way of Crescent. They report a good trip, but plenty of dust on the roads.
 Joseph Walter and son, Richard, of Alameda, Cal., left for Eagle Ridge, where they will spend a portion of their summer outing. Mr. Walter Sr. is a designer for one of the large jewelry manufacturers of San Francisco.
 Arrivals at the Hotel Livermore: W. A. Potter, J. W. Call, Medford; C. S. Webster, Spokane; J. R. Flynn, Portland; S. A. Keist, San Francisco; J. A. Star, Portland; Josh Quigby, Alverdor; C. E. Witts; Chas. Cox, Merrill.
 Miss Mary H. Test and Byron C. Jackson of Fort Klamath were married last Tuesday at 2 p. m. Both the bride and groom are well known young people, and have a host of friends who wish them much happiness in their new life.
 E. E. Fitch of Merrill reports the sale of $28,000 worth of real estate last week in the vicinity of Merrill. Among the sales was that of a 160 acres belonging to Pierce Combs for $12,000. Mr. Combs then purchased 240 acres of Mrs. S. S. Henley for $14,000.
 Arrivals at the Lakeside Inn: J. O. Hamaker, Bonanza; E. E. Fitch, Herbert Fitch, Merrill; R. H. Wilson; Geo. Dickey; Mrs. E. J. Yahr and daughter, Hoquiam, Wash.; Chris Novich, E. J. Seibold, J. R. McDonald, San Francisco; S. M. Thompson, Dunsmuir.
 Jas. Malone, while putting away some fittings in the plumbing shop of H. Bolvin, fell from a ladder, cutting a gash about two inches long across the back of his head. Dr. Parker was called to dress the wound. It is not thought that anything serious will result from the injury.
 That this section will produce a fine grade of strawberries was clearly demonstrated by a jar of berries brought to the Star Drug store today by Calo Oliver. These berries were large, finely colored, sweet and delicious in taste. They will be placed on exhibition in one of the windows in a few days.
 Mr. Chilcote, the real estate man, reports the sale of forty acres of farm land two miles from Midland to Fritz Kiehl of Pittsburg, Kans. The property was owned by Henry Offenbacher. The price paid was $40 per acre. Mr. and Mrs. Kiehl will arrive here about the first of July to make this their home.

 There will be an excursion to Fort Klamath next Sunday to witness the game of ball between the Wood River team and the Klamath Falls boys. A large crowd is expected to go on the trip, which can be made for $1.50 for the round trip.
 A party of five from Medford, W. C. Kinyon, C. C. Garrison, E. L. Roth, F. E. Martin, F. L. Vincent, arrived by way of automobile, and will spend a few days in pleasure seeking and looking over the country. They are stopping at the Lakeside.
 Mrs. Baldwin and her daughter, Mrs. Ella Chapman, who have been staying at the Ewauna for the past month, left on Monday for Portland, where they will stop a few days on their way to Republic, Wash., where another daughter of Mrs. Baldwin resides.
 Jo X. Bryan, of Astoria, Eureka, Yreka, and other impossible places, has accepted a position with the Herald, and expects to make this city his home for the future. Jo is a printer of the old school, having served his apprenticeship in all its branches, and the Herald is glad to extend him the hand of welcome and gather him into the fold.
 Rev. Father O'Malley arrived here on Tuesday from Lakeview, expecting to meet his superior, Father Collier, who was expected here this evening. Father Cunningham has been advised that on account of the serious illness of Father Goller his visit to this city has been postponed until sometime in July, the date to be announced later.
 The contractors are busy laying the foundations for the large lumber yard of the Meadow Lake mills. The space to be covered by the yard comprises eleven lots and faces on Spring street, extending out to the county road. A spur track will be built down the alley in the rear of the yard, making it convenient for shipping the lumber.
 The Cofer Bros. have secured the contract for furnishing the brick for the construction of the new school building on the West Side. It will take about 250,000 brick. Mr. Cofer states that they already have in the neighborhood of 400,000 brick contracted for, and the first kiln, containing 125,000 brick, has been burned, the kiln sealed, and will be opened and ready for delivery Monday morning.
 Harry Nichols is in town from Bonanza. Mr. Nichols states that while in Plush the other day he took his breakfast at the same table as did Ike Harrold, the fend who so heartlessly murdered the two Newell boys. He says the citizens of Lakeview were very much wrought up over the affair, and that it would not go well with Harrold should he fall into their hands.

 Misses May Evans and May Hanley arrived Tuesday from Medford, Ore., on a visit to relatives and friends here. Miss Evans is a daughter of John Evans.—Dorris Booster.
 H. B. Millard and W. H. Bradford were in the city from Portland. Mr. Bradford is the president of the Warner lake Irrigation company, while Mr. Millard is the manager. These gentlemen are on their way to Plush, Lake county, and left Monday for that place in Mr. Clapp's machine.
 L. G. Comstock, proprietor of the Harriman house, has made extensive improvements in his place. The interior has all been remodeled and very tastefully arranged for meeting the demands of the public. Mr. Comstock proposes to have things arranged so as to furnish the best to his customers. They have music twice a day to entertain his patrons while they enjoy a good meal.
 This paper is in receipt of the official program of the funeral procession of his late Majesty, the King of England, sent by A. H. Nafziger, who was in London at the time. Accompanying the program is a letter in which Mr. Nafziger states that it was one of the most gorgeous funeral pageants that the world has ever seen. The many friends of Mr. Nafziger in this city will be glad to learn that he is enjoying good health and having a most enjoyable time.
 W. A. Duncan and R. F. Tuttle were here Friday from Lorella. These gentlemen are interested in the development of their part of the country, and at present are working up on the proposition of constructing a private irrigating plant that will water hundreds of acres of land in that section. While they have not begun work, they expect by next year to begin the active construction, unless the government should in some satisfactory manner take up the project.

New Blacksmith Shop

On Klamath Avenue near O. K. Feed Barn

GENERAL BLACKSMITHING Horseshoeing a Specialty

F. T. ALLEN AND E. H. PATTERSON

---

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary
 DON J. ZUMWALT, President
 C. E. Abstracting
 Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.

E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc
 Surveying and Irrigation Engineering
 KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON