

HAWLEY SEEKS RE-ELECTION

WILL VISIT KLAMATH COUNTY TO ASCERTAIN ITS NEEDS

SAYS BALLINGER WILL COME HERE

Claims He Has Assurances That He Will Receive Appropriations for Crater Lake Park

SALEM, July 9.—Congressman Hawley has announced his intention of being a candidate for re-election. In a statement issued here today he said:

"I will spend this summer much as I spent last summer," stated the Congressman, outlining his plans. "I expect to visit the various places in the district, ascertain the people's needs and secure a personal knowledge of what my constituents desire."

"Just before I came away from Washington I received assurances from Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that he would visit Oregon this year, and make a personal inspection of Crater Lake park and the Klamath Indian reservation. Chairman Tanney of the appropriations committee assured me that if he received the proper surveys from the secretary of the interior I could count on an appropriation for park purposes near Crater lake, including construction of highways."

"One important move I desire to make as early as possible is a visit to the Klamath Indian reservation. I have a bill pending for the opening of that reservation which will mean 500,000 acres thrown open to entry. There are certain points in the bill on which further information is necessary, and I wish to work these out with the people on the reservation themselves."

"One thing that I have made a strenuous effort to bring about is the opening of agricultural lands in forest reserves, when those lands are capable of development, and with the start which I have made in this direction I believe this may be brought about."

"I consider the session in congress has been a very profitable one for the state of Oregon and for my district. Among other things that I secured was an appropriation of over $400,000 in the rivers and harbors bill, including $200,000 for the locks at Oregon City, $56,000 for the Coquille river, $50,000 for the Siuslaw, and in the public buildings bill $110,000 for Medford for a postoffice building, courthouse and site, $10,000 for a site at Roseburg, and in the fight for irrigation bonds to the extent of $20,000,000 I furnished all the assistance possible."

"In addition, I took up with the secretary of the interior the allotment of money out of the old fund for the Klamath project. I also secured the promise of a soil survey in the Rogue river valley from Ashland to Grants pass, and got through the house a provision for payment of what Oregon expended during the civil war."

"Had my Siletz bill passed the senate earlier than it did, it would not have been vetoed. I saw the president the morning the bill went to him and was confident it would be signed, and knew nothing of an adverse report which was to be sent from the department of the interior. If I had had a little more time to see the president I am sure the bill would have passed."

Half Hundred Views of State Will Be Placed in City of Chicago

Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, has contracted with a Chicago firm for placing fifty large outdoor bulletin displays on Chicago boulevards and streets, which will show scenes throughout Oregon and the Pacific Northwest. This information was received by the Commercial club, says the Oregonian.

"Hit the Oregon Trail" and "Back to Oregon and to Nature" are slogans that will appear, among others, on these displays. The pictures themselves are mammoth oil paintings and the contracts just made specifies they shall remain in prominent positions for at least one year.

The scenes depicted are made from photographs. They appeal alike to the homeseeker and tourist, for not only are opportunities in horticulture and agriculture shown, but Oregon mountains, lakes and rivers are shown in a very attractive way. Orchards, alfalfa farms, dairy, grain and cattle ranches are included in the pictures.

Street car junction points, convenient roofs where the displays will attract other vantage points throughout Chicago are those selected for these paintings. President Hill, besides advertising Oregon and the Pacific Northwest, is carrying forward the aims of the "See America First" movement, which has for its object the turning aside of tourists travel from Europe to America.

BIDS WILL BE OPENED WEDNESDAY

DRAWINGS ARE MADE FOR ODD FELLOWS' BUILDING

When Completed Will Be One of the Handsomest Structures in the State

Architect G. E. McDonald is preparing plans for the new temple which the Odd Fellows of this city are to erect on the corner of Fifth and Main streets, and when it is completed it will be one of the handsomest structures in the state outside of Portland.

The bids for the new structure were opened Wednesday, and the specifications call for a reinforced concrete, class A building, three stories in height, with a basement. It will be 68 feet on Main street and 106 feet on Fifth, and both of the street sides will be plate glass for the lower floor.

The basement will extend under the entire building. The first floor will consist of three storerooms. The second will be divided into twenty-two office rooms, while the third floor will contain two lodge rooms and a banquet hall and kitchen. The building will be heated with steam, and will have all the most modern ideas in the way of plumbing and sanitary conveniences.

Mr. McDonald thinks the bids will be close, as six or seven contractors have signified their intention of submitting figures. The cost of the structure will be in the neighborhood of $50,000.

The Willits Building

L. F. Willits, president of the First National bank, is to erect a two-story building adjoining the Odd Fellows' temple, and bids for that structure were opened at the same time that the others are. It also will be built of reinforced concrete, and will have store rooms on the ground floor and offices above. When it is completed it will make a continuous front of plate glass on that corner, and the appearance would be a credit to a much larger city than Klamath Falls.

PLAN TO SAVE SMALL FISH

Petition Out to Kill the Use of Nets by Anglers

SALEM, July 8.—An initiative petition for an act to make it unlawful for persons to fish in the Rogue river with anything but a line and hook was received by the secretary of state today. It was prepared by a majority of anglers residing in the district several miles above the mouth of Rogue river, and is mainly for the purpose of protecting the smaller fish from being caught and thrown aside by commercial fishermen along the lower river.

Riparian owners to the shore land along Rogue river use fine-mesh nets under the present fish laws, and owing to several large fishing concerns controlling in the neighborhood of twenty miles of shore land on the lower river, a great quantity of small steelhead salmon are being caught and thrown aside because they are too small for canning purposes. These fish, it is claimed, take the hook on the upper river readily, and are a very sporty fish, and for this reason should be protected from the mesh nets of the commercial fishermen.

Delicious Refreshments Are Served—Lodge Is One of the Strongest in the State

The meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F., Thursday night was one of the most enjoyable that has been held by that order for some time. It marked the assumption of office by as capable a lot of officials as can be found in any lodge in the state, and is the commencement of a prosperous term for that lodge.

Under the efficient direction of District Deputy President Miss Lula Straw, installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Francis E. Boyd, grand marshal; Mrs. Alice Goeller, grand warden; Lorinda M. Sauber, grand secretary; Mrs. Jennie E. Hurn, grand treasurer; Mrs. Dollie Uerling, grand chaplain, the following officers were obligated and assumed their stations:

Noble Grand—Mrs. Lizzie Ramsby. Vice Grand—Mrs. Nellie Wattenburg.

Treasurer—Mrs. Flora A. Emmitt. Secretary—Miss Lula Straw. Warden—Mrs. Louisa Humphrey. Conductor—Mrs. Dorothy Cofer. Chaplain—Mrs. Nellie Van Riper. R. S. N. G.—Mrs. Jennie Hurn. L. S. N. G.—Mrs. Lydia Houston. R. S. V. G.—Mrs. Alice Goeller. L. S. V. G.—Mrs. Charman Behn. Inside Guardian—Mrs. Dollie Uerling. Outside Guardian—Mrs. Irene Gourley.

After the ceremonies were over lemonade, ice cream and delicious cake, such as only the excellent cooks among the Rebekahs know how to make, were served.

Prosperity Lodge No. 104 is one of the strongest in the state, and that it will continue to maintain its previous high station in the order is guaranteed by the capability of the officers installed last night.

GOVERNORS AGREE TO PROHIBIT FIGHT PICTURES

Signify Their Intention of Acquiescing in the Christian Endeavorers' Request

BOSTON, July 8.—The governors of many states have responded to the request sent them by the officials of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in this city, asking that they prohibit the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures. Governor Mann of Virginia says that he is opposed to the exhibition and will join the movement against them.

Governor Ansell of South Carolina will join in the movement and has recommended the prohibition of the pictures.

Governors Donaghy of Arkansas and Coker of Alabama are also in favor of restraining the exhibition of the reels in the cities of their states, while Governor Vessey of South Dakota has agreed to acquiesce in the recommendation of the Endeavorers and prohibit the exhibition of the pictures.

FUGILISTS SIGNED UP BEFORE BIDS WERE OPENED

Each Pugilist Believed He Was Getting the Best of the Other Contestant

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The inside workings of the Jeffries-Johnson fight deal were revealed by Tex Rickard, who arrived here today. He said he had signed both fighters two days before the New York bids were opened, the other bidders not having a look in. No bids besides his own were considered, the other promoters not being allowed any chance whatever. Each fighter in signing believed he was "double-crossing" the other in getting the $10,000 bonus.

The Reno house drew $250,000. The promoters, Rickard and Gleason, got $120,000 and a one-sixth interest in the moving pictures.
