

BANKRUPT SHOE STOCK SALE

The Complete Shoe Stock of Klamath's Exclusive Shoe Store

Has been purchased by us at a great reduction, which enables us to close them out at unheard-of prices. This stock of shoes consists of some of the best brands in the market today. We will close this excellent line out at

50% Less than Wholesale Prices

200 pairs Infants' and Children's Shoes, sold regularly at 50c, 75c and $1.00 for - - - - - 30c
 100 pairs, Lot 1, Women's Shoes, sold regularly at $3.00 and $3.50 for - - - - - $1.75
 75 pairs, Lot 2, Women's Shoes, sold regularly at $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 for - - - - - $1.95

These Shoes Must Be Closed Out in the Next Three or Four Days

COME EARLY AND GET THE CHOICEST BARGAIN

No Shoes Exchanged or Money Refunded. No Women's, Children's or Infants' Shoes Sold After 5 P. M. Come Early and Get Your Pick

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE

PORTLAND STORE

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

CITY BRIEFS.

L. M. Robinson was here from Merrill Saturday.
 F. C. Klatzuba of Malin was in the city Saturday.
 T. A. Barrows of Merrill had business here Saturday.
 Charlotte Schultz was down from the Klamath Agency Saturday.
 Frank A. Lyon is registered at the Livermore from far-off New York.
 A. G. Duhme, the lumber man, left for Lakeview on the auto Saturday morning.
 The Bridge Whist club adjourned to meet the first Saturday in September.
 Miss Lillie Stilts has gone to San Francisco to select the fall line of goods for their store.
 Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt left for California Monday, where she will remain for several weeks.
 Frank Bloomingcamp of Merrill was one of the interested listeners at the circuit court proceedings last week.
 Mrs. Mary Fish and daughter arrived from Sisson last night for a visit with old friends here.
 A. D. Voekel of Portland returned from a hunting and fishing trip in the Upper lake country Tuesday.
 J. H. Sheehan of San Francisco, who is connected with the Southern Pacific road, is registered at the Livermore.
 Born—On August 5th, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beckley, nine miles out on the Merrill road, near Henley, an eight-pound daughter.
 C. H. Underwood and Dr. R. R. Hamilton left the first of the week for a hunting trip. Their families will go to Eagle Ridge to stay while the hunters are searching the wood for game.
 W. H. Shadley Jr. arrived here Saturday from Pokegama, where he has been working, and left next morning for Fort Klamath, where his parents reside. He has not been home for two years, and his father and mother did not know that he was coming.
 J. S. Shook, the popular dairy rancher, returned from Portland Friday night, where he had been for a couple of weeks. His folks wrote him that they were getting along better without him than while he was here, and he concluded that he had better come back home.
 S. B. Low and wife left for an overland trip to Odell lake and the Lake of the Woods country Saturday. The trip is made for the benefit of Mrs. Low's health, as she is somewhat weak from the effects of an operation for appendicitis which she underwent at an Ashland hospital a short time ago. They will be gone until the last of the month.

J. F. Richardson of Sisson is at the Livermore.
 A. Corley of San Francisco is at the Livermore.
 O. Millsap of Chicago is registered at the Lakeside.
 Alexander Akeson is in the city from Sacramento.
 H. L. Parrish had business here from Merrill Wednesday.
 J. Harmon Stover of Chico is a guest at the Lakeside Inn.
 J. M. Miller of San Francisco is registered at the Livermore.
 S. A. Weinberg of Butte, Mont., is here looking over the country.
 Charles McIntyre of Spokane is registered at the Lakeside Inn.
 Ray Merrill went down to Redding, Calif., Wednesday morning on business.
 H. Shultz and wife are here from Madison, Wis., looking over the country.
 Mrs. Broadsword of Bonanza returned from a visit in Portland Tuesday night.
 Amanda Coffee and Caroline Smith of Grants Pass are guests at the Livermore.
 O. A. Warren of Kennett, Calif., went to Lakeview on the auto Wednesday morning.
 L. J. Briggs, E. L. Shantz and J. P. Irish went to the Upper lake Wednesday morning.
 W. W. Lamb of Medford is here looking over the country in the vicinity of Klamath Falls.
 A. J. Oswald of Portland returned from a trip in the hills from Wampler's place Tuesday.
 B. St. Geo. Bishop was down from his beautiful home "The Cedars," on the Upper lake, Wednesday.
 The Misses M. and W. Walseman and Joseph Newman of New York city left for Frank Silva's place on the Upper lake, where they will camp out and fish for a short time.
 Mrs. Nora Truex of Oakland left for Upper lake Wednesday morning, where she will remain for some time, enjoying the cool air of the summer resorts on that magnificent body of water.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Heard, Miss G. L. Heard and Dr. R. J. Conroy of Medford came down from Crater lake Friday night in an auto, and left next morning for a trip through the country.
 Services were resumed in the Presbyterian church last Sunday, Rev. Pratt having arrived home from his vacation. Mrs. Pratt is visiting friends in Portland, and will not be home for a couple of weeks yet.
 T. E. Arnold and wife of Wichita, Kans., returned from Lakeview last night, where they have been spending a few days. Mr. Arnold went deer hunting and enjoyed the outdoor life in the Lake county hills while he was away.

 W. R. Davis of Ashland was at the Lakeside Friday.
 H. A. Trexel was down from Bonanza on business Friday.
 W. P. Johnson returned from a business trip to San Francisco Thursday evening.
 H. H. Lewis, the real estate man, left for several days' fishing on the Upper lake Friday morning.
 The Long Lake Lumber company's mill at Shippington is running nights at present, there being a rush of orders to be filled.
 Delos Mills, the 4-year-old son of L. O. Mills, had a portion of his tonsils removed Wednesday. Dr. Merryman performed the operation.
 When Chilcote gets a contract on a piece of property he always shows it. If you will list yours with him he will spend some money on it. Office 622 Main street.
 The Ransome-Crummy company rock crusher has been running since the first of the week. It is situated at the end of the old street car line, on the banks of the Link river, and the company will furnish rock for the new paving which is to be laid here.
 The building which Mr. Matthews is having built on Fourth street near Pine is rapidly nearing completion. The roof is on, and the carpenters are busy putting on the siding on the storerooms. There will be three rooms in the building, and it is the expectation to have them ready for occupancy by the first of September.
 Floyd Edgington arrived from Ashland Tuesday, and will make his home here. His mother will come some time next week. Mr. Edgington was working for Howard F. Shepherd a few weeks ago, and liked the looks of Klamath Falls so well that he decided to remain here permanently.
 Little Marlon Masten furnished an act not on the program at the opera house Tuesday. He was sitting on one chair with his feet on the other when the chair on which his feet rested slipped and the boy turned completely over, alighting, however, right side up on the floor. He was more scared than hurt, but the way he took the tumble was amusing.
 Little Josephine Ringo, the granddaughter of Charles Graves, is ill with scarlet fever at the home of her grandparents on Washington street. Her father and family had been ill with the disease at Crescent, but the baby had been left down here. The family came down recently and about four days ago the little one was taken down with the malady. The house has been quarantined.

Born—In this city, July 29, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goddard, an eight-pound daughter.
 Born—In this city, August 2, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Guthridge, an eight-pound daughter.
 M. W. Coseboom, who has leased the Sutton ranch on Lost river, had business in town Friday.
 R. Duggins of Bangor, Cal., came up Thursday for a brief visit with his old friend, Arthur Livermore.
 Wm. Dalton and family, R. Dalton and wife and Mrs. M. J. Little were among those who went to Crater lake Friday.
 George Stamer, the genial night clerk at the Hotel Livermore, is back at work again from a week's vacation in Lakeview.
 W. L. Means and daughter and Mrs. Means of Snelling, Cal., who are on a tour of the coast, left for Crater lake Friday morning.
 Ellis Young and family left their ranch on Lost river Wednesday and go to Huckleberry mountain, where they will remain a week or more.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Withrow and daughter returned Thursday from their vacation trip in the northern part of the county. They report a most enjoyable time.
 The sewer pipe on Pine street, across Juniper, has been laid and covered and workmen are blasting a trench on Juniper street above Pine in which the pipe is to be laid. They are encountering some heavy rock.
 Ralph Carter, the clerk in Underwood's pharmacy, arrived home Friday from a four weeks' horseback ride through Nevada. He spent most of his time at Rebel Creek, where he has many friends, and had a most enjoyable outing.
 Mrs. H. E. Peltz and two children returned Thursday from a three months' trip in the east, during time she visited her old home in Williamsport, Pa.; also Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Jacksonville, Fla., and other points.
 J. M. Tatum, family and maid, and Mrs. J. E. Merritt, arrived from Bakersfield, Cal., Thursday and next morning left for Eagle Ridge and Crater lake, where they will spend part of the summer away from the heat of their home town.
 Tim O'Connell and son, Mr. Moran and son, Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss DuFault left for Huckleberry mountain the first of this week, where they will camp for several days and gather enough berries to supply their wants all winter.
 P. C. Prior, F. C. Hartman, Lewis F. Stone and P. K. Schabarum arrived Thursday from San Francisco and next morning went to Silva's

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary
 DON J. ZUMWALT, President
 C. E.
 Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.
Abstracting
 E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer
Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc
 Surveying and Irrigation Engineering
 KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

New Blacksmith Shop
 On Klamath Avenue near O. K. Feed Barn
GENERAL BLACKSMITHING
 Horseshoeing a Specialty
F. T. ALLEN AND E. H. PATTERSON place where they will spend several days fishing for the gamey trout that inhabit the waters near that famous resort.

 Dr. R. F. Rooney and I. H. Burnham of Auburn, Calif., went up to Eagle Ridge on Tuesday, where they will remain for several days, enjoying the fishing that abounds in the vicinity of that beautiful summer resort.
 Rev. J. M. Kersey pastor of the First Christian church of Omaha, Neb., will be in the city through August, and will preach in the Christian church each Lord's day, morning and evening. Everyone is cordially invited to hear Bro. Kersey. He is a strong minister of the gospel as well as a great Chautauqua lecturer.
 Miss Wilma Waggener, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. B. Gates, for several weeks, left for her home in Portland on Tuesday. Her little niece, Miss Olive Gates, accompanied her. Miss Waggener has made many friends here by her charming personality and accomplishments, and they regret that her visit here has been so short.
 G. W. Brady, who broke his leg while haying nine days ago at the Crisler & Stilts ranch, is getting along nicely, and the doctor put his broken limb in a cast last Friday. If this done he will be able to move around a little more, and for a man who has never been in bed from sickness in his life it means a good deal. He will be more than pleased when he will be able to get out again.
 Mrs. Carrie F. Thwaite of Los Angeles and Miss Ada Carvill of Globe, Ariz., arrived here Thursday and left next morning for B. St. George Bishop's beautiful home, "The Cedars," on the Upper lake. Miss Carvill is a sister of Mrs. Bishop, and will remain here all winter. Mrs. Thwaite will be here for several weeks before returning to her California home. Mr. Bishop and family came down to meet them, and took them to "The Cedars" this morning.
 Mrs. M. Hoagland and son-in-law, Mr. McDonald, went to Bonanza on business on Monday, returning that evening.

 R. C. Raymer was here from Lakeview Tuesday.
 Fees for fishing licenses amounting to $211 were rec'd by the county clerk during July.
 Miss Grace Drake arrived here on Tuesday on a visit to her father, City Attorney Thomas Drake.
 E. B. Hall arrived home Monday from Mehalin, Ore., and will remain here for a couple of weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. Heitkemper Jr. returned from a trip to Crater Lake Monday. They went up Saturday, and had a most enjoyable time.
 Mrs. L. Caldwell and two daughters, Gertrude and Florence, of San Francisco, are visiting friends in this city. They will be here for a week or more.
 Irving Worthington and family went up to Four-Mile lake Monday, where Mr. Worthington will oversee the work being done by the Rogue River Canal company.
 Many complaints have been made of late against the Holeproof hosiery not giving the wear they should. We find that those who have complained have been buying what they supposed was the original, guaranteed Holeproof hosiery, but which were not. The only store in Klamath Falls where the original Holeproof hosiery can be purchased is at the Portland Store.